The Works of William Shakespeare. Edited with ... Revision of the Text by C. and M. Cowden Clarke. The Leicester Square Edition; with Portrait and ... Illustrations from the Boydell Gallery in Permanent Photography William Shakespeare,1875 A Revitalization of Images Gregory C. Higgins,2019-03-05 The philosopher theologian and biblical scholar Austin Farrer 1904 1968 highlighted in his various writings the central role that images play in the interpretation of biblical writings the construction of theological arguments and the descriptions of the Christian spiritual life Theologians down through the centuries have sought to revitalize the central biblical images as they addressed the pressing theological moral and spiritual questions of their day A Revitalization of Images offers students the opportunity to participate in this ongoing creative engagement with ten dominant biblical images that continue to shape the church s beliefs and practices as well as each Christian s own spiritual journey Sound theology is rooted in Scripture conversant with past thinkers and engaged in the present life of the church This dynamic directly informs Revitalization In each chapter we begin with a biblical image that has figured prominently in the Christian theological tradition Next we examine two prominent voices from the Christian tradition who have drawn upon the image when crafting a compelling vision of the Christian life We then turn our attention to a contemporary thinker who has incorporated or critiqued the image in his or her own theological work This discussion is set within the current spectrum of theological positions including orthodox liberal postliberal and postmodern perspectives A Nonviolent Theology of Love Sharon L. Baker Putt,2021-02-02 The impetus behind the ease with which the church has periodically justified violent behavior lies in its conceptual image of God as a violent deity This book emerges out of a passion to think differently albeit biblically about the character of God and articulates a theological construction of a nonviolent God an alternative to any image of God that seems to condone human violence It calls the church to rethink theology as something other than what might be termed redemptive violence and encourages Christians to reinterpret Scripture and traditional theological beliefs in ways that are more faithful to the God disclosed in Jesus of Nazareth Students of theology need a fresh glimpse of the love mercy and redemptive power of God through Jesus As it follows the structure of the Apostles Creed through the various theological topics this book reminds Christians to share in God s desires for peace and love and to recommit themselves to the call of God to be ministers of reconciliation and lovers of both neighbors and enemies even while at times responding to violence with nonviolent resistance Biblical Scholarship and the Church Allan K. Jenkins, Patrick Preston, 2016-04-15 Conflicting claims to authority in relation to the translation and interpretation of the Bible have been a recurrent source of tension within the Christian church and were a key issue in the Reformation debate This book traces how the authority of the Septuagint and later that of the Vulgate was called into question by the return to the original languages of scripture and how linguistic scholarship was seen to pose a challenge to the authority of the teaching and tradition of the church It shows how issues that remained unresolved in the early church re emerged in first half of the sixteenth century with the publication of Erasmus Greek Latin New Testament of 1516 After examining the differences between Erasmus and his critics the authors contrast the situation in England where Reformation issues were dominant and Italy where the authority of Rome was never in question Focusing particularly on the dispute between Thomas More and William Tyndale in England and between Ambrosius Catharinus and Cardinal Cajetan in Italy this book brings together perspectives from biblical studies and church history and provides access to texts not previously translated into English Humanity in God's Image Claudia Welz, 2016 A study which suggests human beings are created in the image of an invisible God an idea that can only be conceptualized in the imagination The Confessional Alois Anton Röggl, 1880
