Love Of Learningmark:

For the Love of Learning Jenny Sockey, 2002-06 For the Love of Learning Kristin Phillips, 2022-08-16 An illuminating and refreshing memoir about a year in the life of an elementary school principal outlining the joys and challenges for teachers and students of education today Outside of home children spend more time at school than anywhere and teachers play an important role in their young lives Teachers inspire nudge support and help students through many difficulties both academic and developmental And yet we almost never hear about what's really happening in school Kristin Phillips taught grade school for years before becoming a principal helping to guide not just students but also staff through better learning Here she takes us through a school year from the excitement of fall through the long days of winter and into the renewed energy that comes with spring Through her eyes we experience the increasingly complex education system children with disruptive behaviours teachers attempting new practices some more successfully than others and even parents who need a little help parenting As she walks us through this year we're introduced to the many problems that she faced but also those of the students and teachers she worked with What's the best way to address bullying in the classroom and school yard What do you do with a five year old who won't stop cursing in class And importantly how do we ensure all students are learning And these are just the concerns Phillips faced during school hours At home she reckoned with her own family's problems Recently divorced Phillips shares the ups and many downs of parenting three teenagers one of whom at times suffers from debilitating mental health issues With the realities of Covid 19 the importance of schools and their vital role for children and all of society has never been clearer Phillips takes us into the classrooms hallways and principal's office revealing the innovations happening in our schools and also the areas where education can do better With honesty and compassion Phillips gives a human face to the very real challenges educators work to overcome one year and one student at a time For the Love of Learning Tim Bilham, 2013-11-11 Edited collection featuring essays from exceptional National Teaching Fellows Presents the cutting edge of pedagogical thinking on the most important topics in higher education today including student engagement assessment internationalisation and employability Destined to become a must read guide for anyone involved in higher education Rekindling The Love Of Learning Arlene Rotter, 2009-03 Education in this country needs a major overhaul Students need to be engaged in the learning process Challenging ingrained notions of learning and teaching author Arlene Rotter co founded an experiential learning academy Chrysalis Experiential Academy serving grades four through twelve in Roswell Georgia Over the past seven years she's watched unmotivated students soar to great achievements Rekindling the Love of Learning is Rotter's nonfiction tribute to experiential learning This book demonstrates how experiential learning can be utilized by home school students public schools and private schools The key is to change student teaching Off the Mark Jack Schneider, Ethan L. Hutt, 2023-08-08 Schooling has become less about learning and more about the scramble for good grades high test scores and spotless transcripts No one is happy about this least of all students

But what can be done Off the Mark explains how we got into this predicament why our reforms haven t worked and how we can reorient our system to advance learning

A Touch of Class Carol Vanderheyden,2003 We always have time for the things we put first Most people get ahead during the time that others waste Successful people try practice and wander down blind alleys They pay their dues but don t give up These are just a few of the thousands of quotes I have collected and used to inspire and challenge hundreds of students and educators during my thirty year teaching career I have compiled these quotes along with historical quotes and documents into a comprehensive book entitled A Touch of Class This book is meant to be a tool and an asset to any classroom instructor I envision this book as a resource for classroom banners and wall charts In an era of cultural changes and a need or quest for teachers to find tools to enhance character building in our young people I believe using meaningful quotes to teach life lessons was met with personal success in my classroom It is my desire to inspire other teachers to use quotes as part of their daily routine classroom experience It will help alleviate behavioral problems in the classroom and aid our children s growth toward good citizenship Many interesting spontaneous and enlightening discussions may follow as students share their interpretations The art of deciphering quotes and writing interpretations is a classy way to start your day hence the title A Touch of Class A Touch of Class is divided into three sections designed for educators of all grade levels Section 1 A Wealth of Wisdom for Teachers Includes topics like discipline and motivation Section 2 The Making of a Great Nation Includes historical quotes and documents Section 3 Earth s Wonders and Resources Includes quotes related to scientific topics This treasure of quotes is designed to be a continuous source of strength encouragement joy and enrichment through your teaching career

The Quest for Mark's Sources Thomas P. Nelligan, 2015-07-07 The question of the relationship between the Gospel of Mark and letters of Paul has been ever present in New Testament scholarship but has never been fully explored This monograph seeks to probe further into this question through an examination of the literary relationship between sections of Mark and 1 Corinthians Nelligan explores the context of these texts in Greco Roman and Jewish literature adopting the view that New Testament authors use imitation with a sophisticated use of literary sources as a major technique in their composition He proposes a new set of criteria for judging literary dependence that builds upon and advances those already promoted by biblical scholars Sections of Mark and 1 Corinthians are then compared and analyzed including the Eucharist accounts given in both texts By analyzing and comparing sections of Mark and 1 Corinthians most notably the account of the Eucharist in both texts Nelligan argues Mark used 1 Corinthians as a literary source and that this was done using well established literary techniques used in the wider Greco Roman and Jewish literary world

Disabilities Tina A. Newman,Robert J. Sternberg,2012-12-06 We were motivated to edit this book when we began to hear stories of exceptional students who were struggling with reading writing or math but who could solve seemingly any problem with computers or build the most intricate structures with Legos or could draw beautiful pictures or could tell the most creative stories but ended up in tears when asked to write it out How is it possible to have so much talent in some areas and yet to appear to have a disability in another What resources are available for these students How can we ensure that these students abilities are nurtured and developed Our goal in this book is to provide ideas and possibly even tentative answers for educators and to stimulate more questions to be answered by researchers We have ourselves been addressing related questions for some time Our group at the PACE Center at Yale has explored the developmentof abilities competencies and expertise that allow people to be successful in life Through this work we have collaborated with school districts and other educators and researchers across the country to expand the notion ofwhat is traditionally thought ofas intelligence We use the conceptofsuccessful intelligence to allow for the possibility that the skills traditionally taught in school are not the only ones and often not even the most important ones that allow people to be successful in the world It Takes a Church to Raise a Christian Tod E. Bolsinger,2004-04 Rediscover the triune nature of God to reawaken and nourish a communal spirit in our individualist times Apuleius' Platonism Richard Fletcher,2014-07-17 Apuleius of Madauros writing in the latter half of the second century CE in Roman North Africa is best known to us today for his Latin fiction the Metamorphoses aka The Golden Ass about a man who turned into a donkey and back again However he was also a Platonic philosopher who even though many of his writings are lost wrote a range of rhetorical and philosophical works which survive to this day This book examines these works to reveal how Apuleius Platonism is a result of his impersonation of philosophy that is a rhetorically powerful methodological tool that allows him to speak on behalf of Plato and his philosophy This book is the first exploration of the full scope of his idiosyncratic brand of Platonism across his multifarious literary corpus and is a major contribution to the study of the dynamic between literature and philosophy in antiquity and beyond Saint Paul and the Education

First Love Devotions Dr. T.E. Grainger, 2017-12-12 First Love Devotions is written from the authors rich experience of over fifty years as a pastor and teacher One of the dangers a pastor faces is becoming mechanical and professional and losing the first love that motivated him to devote his life as a servant of God The best safeguard against that is maintaining a loving intimate daily fellowship with Jesus as you seek his guidance in understanding the scripture If you find your love for Jesus waning do a thorough job of repentance as you renew and cultivate this relationship Each first love devotion treats a passage of scripture and gives insight based on prayerful reflection as it relates to personal experience In addition to personal spiritual benefits the Christian worker will find a wealth of topics sermon prompts and illustrative materials that may be shared with others

Called into Questions Matthew Lee Anderson, 2023-10-03 Do we know what it means to question well We need not fear questions By the grace of God we have the safety and security to rush headlong into them and find ourselves better for it on the other side Faith is not the sort of thing that endures so long as our eyes are closed The opposite is the case Faith helps us see and that means not shrinking from the ambiguities and the difficulties that provoke our most profound questions In our embrace of questioning we must learn to question well In our uncertainty we must not give up the task of walking worthy of the calling that Christ has placed upon us We are living in the age of deconstruction We are constantly bombarded online in schools and sometimes even in our homes by attitudes and arguments aimed at deconstructing our faith Called into Questions is written to aid us in faithfully questioning our foundations Professor Matthew Lee Anderson shows us and the ones we love how to grapple with doubt in a redemptive way in a way that brings us closer and leaves us more secure in Jesus Christ
