Most members of the Namoluk Community (b)on Namoluk do not currently live there; some 60 percent of them have moved to Chuuk, Guam, Hawaii, or the mainland United States such as Eureka, California. The question is how and why those expatriates continue to think of themselves as (b)on Namoluk and behave accordingly despite being a far-flung network of people with inevitable erosions of shared language and culture. From Out of the Smokies Charlie Tombras, 2025-08-12 Knoxville native Charlie Tombras may be best known for his fifty-seven year leadership of the nationally recognized advertising firm the Tombras Group but in his moving memoir From Out of the Smokies: Stories of Fly Fishing and Life he chronicles his personal journey letting business take a backseat. Born and raised in the Smokies, Tombras grew up exploring mountains and streams, fostering an appreciation for nature and fly fishing that would follow him through a tour of duty in Vietnam and into adulthood. With a relatable, often humorous style, Tombras recounts adventures spanning eight decades and the resulting lessons of friendship, loss, and love that he learned along the way. Emphasizing the value of hard work and perseverance, Tombras thoughtfully examines his lifelong love of fly fishing and leaves no stone unturned as he takes readers from childhood to adulthood in vivid memories and captivating prose. From exhilarating tales of white water canoeing in Northern Labrador to grief-stricken seasons of loss, Tombras's memoir of spirit and adventure provides a nuanced portrait of a successful man in business and in life. Through his sporting adventures and other personal experiences, Tombras continues to learn how to weather storms in whatever shape they may take and how to grow in the face of adversity. Much like the wild rivers that Tombras explored and loved, From Out of the Smokies will inspire readers to accept and marvel at forces beyond our control. Journal of the East Africa Natural History Society, 1911 The Journal of the East Africa and Uganda Natural History Society East Africa and Uganda Natural History Society, Nairobi, 1911 Journal of the East Africa Natural History Society and National Museum, 1914
