Henty, 2023-12-10 The G A Henty Ultimate Collection is a compendium of over 100 historical novels adventure tales and short stories showcasing Henty's signature style characterized by meticulous historical research and engaging narratives that captivate young readers. The collection explores diverse eras from the Roman conquest to the Victorian age while intertwining thrilling adventures with educational elements. Henty's works reflect the Victorian ethos emphasizing themes of courage perseverance and moral integrity amidst the backdrop of historical events rendered in accessible yet vivid prose that makes history come alive. G A Henty 1832 1902 was a prolific British author journalist and war correspondent whose extensive travels and experiences during conflicts inspired much of his writing. His background as a war correspondent during the Crimean War and his advocacy of the British Empire's values shaped his narrative perspective leading him to craft stories that not only entertain but also instill a sense of national pride and heroism. Henty's commitment to portraying historical accuracy and his knack for storytelling solidify his place within the pantheon of classic children's literature. Readers seeking a rich tapestry of historical adventures will find the G A Henty Ultimate Collection an invaluable resource. This anthology not only provides entertainment but also serves as an educational tool that sparks curiosity about history through dynamic storytelling. Perfect for young adventurers and educators alike this collection stands as a testament to Henty's legacy in historical fiction.

Conrad is regarded as one of the greatest novelists in English though he did not speak the language fluently until he was in his twenties. He wrote stories and novels often with a nautical setting that depict trials of the human spirit in the midst of an indifferent universe. He was a master prose stylist who brought a distinctly non-English tragic sensibility into English literature.

married Elizabeth Woodville and the House of Rivers rose to the first place in the royal favour and eclipsed the Star of Warwick It is no wonder the proud Earl chafes under the ingratitude of the man who owes his throne to him and that he is ready to dare everything so that he can but prove to him that he is not to be slighted with impunity But why come to me when he has Clarence as his puppet He may have convinced himself madam that Clarence is even less to be trusted than Edward or he may perceive that but few of the Yorkists would follow him were he to declare against the Usurper while assuredly your adherents would stand aloof altogether from such a struggle Powerful as he is Warwick could not alone withstand the united forces of all the nobles pledged to the support of the House of York Thence as I take it does it happen that he has resolved to throw in his lot with Lancaster if your Majesty will but forgive the evil he has done your House and accept him as your ally No doubt he will have terms to make and conditions to lay down He may make what conditions he chooses Queen Margaret said passionately so that he does but aid me to take vengeance on that false traitor to place my husband again on the throne and to obtain for my son his rightful heritage
