American Catholic Bishops and the Politics of Scandal Meaghan O'Keefe, 2019-04-18 This book explores the rhetoric and public communication of the Catholic Church in the United States in the wake of the sexual abuse scandals and offers a demonstration of how large organizations negotiate a loss of public trust while retaining political power While the Catholic Church remains a major political force in the United States recent scandals have undoubtedly had an adverse effect on both its reputation and moral authority This has been exacerbated by the public responses of Catholic clergy which have often left supporters of the Church let alone critics profoundly unsatisfied Drawing on documents voting guides pastoral letters sermons press releases and other materials issued by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops USCCB as well as American nuns the book explores Catholic political statements issued after the sexual abuse crises entered the public consciousness Using approaches from linguistics and rhetoric it analyses how these statements compare to similar materials issued before this time This comparison demonstrates that for the American Catholic Church persuasion is less important than maintaining the impression that there has been no loss of authority This is a timely study of the Catholic Church s handling of the recent revelations of abuse within the Church As such it will be of keen interest to scholars of religious rhetoric contemporary Catholicism linguistics rhetoric communication and religious studies Nursing History Review American Association for the History of Nursing,2003 List of Journals Indexed for MEDLINE ,2005 List of Journals Indexed in Index Medicus National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1996 Issues for 1977 1979 include also Special List journals being indexed in cooperation with other institutions Citations from these journals appear in other MEDLARS bibliographies and in MEDLING but not in Index medicus Bishops and Bodies Lori Freedman,2023-07-14 Four out of the ten largest U S health care systems follow the policies of the U S Conference of Catholic Bishops that forbid abortion sterilization and related treatments in their hospitals Drawing on rich interviews with patients and providers Bishops and Bodies shows how these opaque restrictions conflict with medical standards producing unjust and unequal reproductive care
