Growing Leaders Within Michael Coquyt, Brian K. Creasman, 2017-07-20 Growing Leaders Within A Process toward Teacher Leadership will aid school administrators in the task of growing and empowering teacher leaders The goal of growing teacher leaders is to grow a school culture of shared decision making and collaborative leadership It is through this transformation that teacher leaders help school administrators to create a laser focus on student success The underpinnings of the book are based on academic research resulting in a seven step process to growing teacher leaders which is distinctive from other books about teacher leadership Schools may have several teacher leader candidates but it is the responsibility of the school administration to ensure that the right individuals are chosen to become part of the school s leadership team The role of teacher leadership can be diminished if the wrong individuals are selected In response to this the book offers school administrators a research based pragmatic

growth process that ensures the right teachers are chosen to enter the leadership ranks at any school Growing and empowering teachers to be leaders is now critical in all schools Nurture II A Nurturing Approach to Trauma Dr. Mattie Lee Jones, 2024-07-17 In the book Nurture Dr Mattie demonstrated how the social emotional and cognitive development of children are connected and how by creating nurturing environments children will thrive now and into adulthood e second edition of the book Nurture allowed her to research and take a deep look into nurturing for traumatized children and what the lack of nurturing relationships and environment has on the type of adult they become It reveals the urgency for the use of the nurturing approach to trauma for all children and adults Pedagogy of Teaching Dr. Nandini N, Teachers DO Make a Difference Judith A. Deiro, 2004-10-05 Teachers make a difference not only in what their students learn about content but in what they learn about life Closing the achievement gap and creating high performing schools depends not on what we teach but how we teach The most powerful and effective way teachers can help students overcome negative influences in their environment as well as succeed in becoming their best selves is by developing close and caring connections with them Developing quality relationships with students is key to their healthy development Teachers DO Make a Difference gives teachers strategies guidelines and real life examples of how to build and enrich close and trusting teacher student relationships This important new resource covers key topics including Setting high expectations for students Conveying confidence in student capabilities Creating classroom rituals and traditions Networking with family and community Developing strong interpersonal skills Identifying relational resources Communicating appropriate caring and respect in the classroom Healthy connections with teachers are associated with a decrease in behavioral problems and an increase in social and academic skills The relationships we develop with our students are at the heart of how we make a difference

International Research Handbook on Values Education and Student Wellbeing Terence Lovat, Ron Toomey, Neville Clement, 2010-08-05 Informed by the most up to date research from around the world as well as examples of good practice this handbook analyzes values education in the context of a range of school based measures associated with student wellbeing These include social emotional moral and spiritual growth elements that seem to be present where intellectual advancement and academic achievement are being maximized This text comes as values education widens in scope from being concerned with morality ethics civics and citizenship to a broader definition synonymous with a holistic approach to education in general This expanded purview is frequently described as pedagogy relating to values and wellbeing This contemporary understanding of values education or values and wellbeing pedagogy fits well with recent neuroscience research This has shown that notions of cognition or intellect are far more intertwined with social and emotional growth than earlier educational paradigms have allowed for In other words the best laid plans about the technical aspects of pedagogy are bound to fail unless the growth of the whole person social emotional moral spiritual and intellectual is the pedagogical target Teachers and educationalists will find that this handbook provides evidence culled from both research and practice of the beneficial effects of such a values and wellbeing pedagogy Nurturing the Parent-teacher Alliance Frank J. Beyond the Schoolhouse Sheri S. Williams, 2022-10-01 Beyond the Schoolhouse introduces eight paradigm shifts that are urgently needed to challenge inequities in education and improve the conditions for historically marginalized school children The book provides educators and scholars with actionable strategies to shift the paradigm from schools alone to engaged partnerships with families and communities Too many educators enter the profession with an incompatible paradigm one that asks educators to resolve the problems facing school children from behind the closed doors of the school The book offers a new paradigm one that opens the power of partnerships to improve the conditions for school children from within and beyond the walls of the schoolhouse Drawing thoughtfully on leadership theory current research and evidence based practice the author engages practitioners and scholars in a spirited and candid conversation about why partnerships with families and communities are needed in this era of rapid cultural change and soaring inequalities The book features scenarios from the field along with lessons learned on the pitfalls and possibilities embedded in the paradigm shifts The scenarios reveal how the partners leveraged their power to disrupt historical patterns of racism classism and nativism The book offers a compelling analysis of the power of school family and community partners to embrace dramatically different paradigms for schooling With anecdotes and illustrations the author invites readers to consider their role in engaging in meaningful partnerships that reflect the community s best hopes for the education of their children Her narratives offer a deeply rooted understanding of the possibilities and pitfalls of school family and community partnerships in a diversity of settings including urban rural and tribal schools and systems in the U S and abroad The chapters build hope and a realistic optimism that engaged partners can leverage their talents and resources and work together to bring best practices to scale for the benefit of children of diverse identities cultures and ethnicities Chapters contain strategies and tools to tackle the growing inequalities which keep far too many children on the margins of schooling and furthest from justice and equity Strategies include equity focused protocols structured questions for dialogue in virtual and face to face settings and resources for extended reflection The book may be useful for scholars in academic circles principal and teacher preparation providers novice and experienced educators and administrators and the allies school board members and elected officials who are invested in enriching the education and well being of school children and the families and communities they serve

Conceptions of Literacy Meaghan Brewer, 2020-05-01 Addressing the often fraught and truncated nature of educating new writing instructors Conceptions of Literacy proposes a theoretical framework for examining new graduate student instructors preexisting attitudes and beliefs about literacy Based on an empirical study author Meaghan Brewer conducted with graduate students teaching first year composition for the first time Conceptions of Literacy draws on narratives interviews and classroom observations to describe the conceptions of literacy they have already unknowingly established and how these conceptions impact the way they teach in their own classrooms Brewer argues that conceptions of literacy undergird the work of writing instructors and that many of the anxieties around composition studies disciplinary status are related to the differences perceived between the field s conceptions of literacy and those of the graduate instructors and adjuncts who teach the majority of composition courses Conceptions of Literacy makes practical recommendations for how new graduate instructors can begin to perceive and interrogate their conceptions of literacy which while influential are often too personal to recognize

Leadership For Change: The Singapore Schools' Experience Thiam Seng Koh, David Wei Loong Hung, 2017-12-27 The book shares stories of the role of school leadership in Singapore with case studies from selected schools that provides some insights on how Singapore delivers a high quality education that had led to it achieving high rankings in TIMMS and PISA This book will provide both the historical and present contexts of changes in the education system school leadership and teacher leadership in Singapore that made it what it is today It will distil some universal principles of educational change that school leaders and policy makers can apply in bringing about educational changes that will enhance the learning experiences of students and prepare them for future challenges IJER Vol 11-N4 International Journal of Educational Reform,2002-12-24 The mission of the International Journal of Educational Reform IJER is to keep readers up to date with worldwide developments in education reform by providing scholarly information and practical analysis from recognized international authorities As the only peer reviewed scholarly publication that combines authors voices without regard for the political affiliations perspectives or research methodologies IJER provides readers with a balanced view of all sides of the political and educational mainstream To this end IJER includes but is not limited to inquiry based and opinion pieces on developments in such areas as policy administration curriculum instruction law and research IJER should thus be of interest to professional educators with decision making roles and policymakers at all levels turn since it provides a broad based conversation between and among policymakers practitioners and academicians about reform goals objectives and methods for success throughout the world Readers can call on IJER to learn from an international group of reform implementers by discovering what they can do that has actually worked IJER can also help readers to understand the pitfalls of current reforms in order to avoid making similar mistakes Finally it is the mission of IJER to help readers to learn about key issues in school reform from movers and shakers who help to study and shape the power base directing educational reform in the U S and the world

Teachers As Mentors Aram Ayalon,2023-07-03 The book describes two similar and successful models of youth mentoring used by two acclaimed urban high schools that have consistently achieved exceptional graduation rates Providing a detailed description of their methods based upon extensive observation and interviews with teachers students administrators and parents this book makes a major contribution to the debate on how to reduce the achievement gap Using similar teacher as youth mentor and youth advising models these two inner city schools Fenway High School in Boston Massachusetts and the Kedma School in Jerusalem have broken the cycle of failure for the student populations they serve children from underrepresented groups living in poverty in troubled neighborhoods with few resources Students in both schools have excelled academically rarely dropout and progress to college in significant numbers Fenway has 90% graduation rate with 95% of graduates going on to college Kedma outperforms comparable urban schools by a factor of four Both schools have won numerous awards with Fenway High School gaining Pilot School status in Massachusetts a recognition the state only awards to a few exemplary schools and Kedma School being declared one of the 50 most influential educational endeavors in Israel The success of both schools is directly attributable to their highly developed teacher as a youth mentor programs that embody an ideology and mission that put students at the center of their programs and structures The models are closely integrated with the curriculum and support the social emotional cultural and academic needs of students as well as develop close mentor student parent relationships The model furthermore includes extensive support for the mentors themselves Apart from the potential of these models to narrow the achievement gap these two schools have a record of creating a school climate that promotes safety and reduces the incidence of bullying and violence At the heart of both programs is creating community between departments and functions in the school and between teachers staff students and parents Everyone in the school system should read this book Research suggests that caring relationships between students and teachers significantly enhance Social Emotional Learning SEL defined as the process through which children develop their ability to integrate thinking feeling and behaving to achieve important life tasks which is recognized as an important factor in children s success in school However caring schools are usually the exception especially at the secondary level where relationships between students and teachers seem to deteriorate significantly This book provides a schoolwide model for establishing caring secondary schools and enhancing SEL using a teacher as a youth mentor model Every Teacher a Leader Barbara B.
