Possessing The Land God Promised:

The Land Cries Out Salim J. Munayer, Lisa Loden, 2011-10-21 Our theology does not exist in a vacuum but must relate to the world we inhabit and must influence our moral and ethical actions This is especially true when discussing theology of the land in the context of a violent territorial conflict The Holy Land has seen so much bloodshed that the earth itself is crying out to God The chapters presented in this book form a unique collection of voices speaking from different perspectives on the issue of the theology of the land These voices include Messianic Jewish and Palestinian Christian theologians and scholars who live in the Holy Land as well as others from around the world The various chapters reflect a wide spectrum of opinion and reveal how much disagreement still exists among followers of Christ However the dialogue generated by having these opposing voices side by side speaking to each other rather than past each other is encouraging This book is both challenging and inspirational and contributes in an innovative way to this important discussion The Promises of God Kevin P.

Conway, 2014-10-29 This study is the first to investigate why Paul makes exclusive use of epangelia for the divine pledge when referring to the Abrahamic covenant a usage of the term never found in the OT LXX After examining Jewish writings and Greek literature of the classical and Hellenistic periods this study demonstrates that Paul is rather unique in his exclusive use of the epangelia word group for the divine pledge and for using the term predominantly in reference to the Abrahamic promises This exclusive usage is further deemed unexpected in that the horkos and omnymi lexemes are by far the terms most commonly associated with God's promises to Abraham in the OT the literature with which Paul was most familiar The study then moves to explain why Paul has chosen this path of discontinuity where it is argued that Paul's exclusive choice of epangelia for the divine promise is driven by its conceptual and linguistic correspondence with the euangelion one of the terms Paul adopted from the early church that forms the core of his ministry This conceptual word study of the divine promise will benefit Pauline scholars interested in Paul's use of the OT as well as his association of the euangelion and epangelia word groups Possessing Your Pleasant Mountains Divas Makoni, 2025-03-12

Possessing Your Pleasant Mountains is a religious motivational book It is based on Joshua 17:14-18 The children of Joseph complained about the piece of land that they received when they got to the Promised Land They knew that God had promised to give them a large land of milk and honey However when they finally received it they discovered that it was too small for them The land was also inhabited by people who had dangerous weapons The leader named Joshua reminded them that the land was good and their portion could be enlarged to accommodate all their people He told them that they had been empowered to possess their mountains regardless of the challenges All they needed was a new mind set I then motivate people today that they can do anything that they put their mind on regardless of their background education race or gender I include inspiring biblical stories as examples of people who achieved greatness such as David Joseph Joshua and others I also include inspirational stories of people who achieved great things against all odds such as Alek Wek Natalie du Toit Rhulani Baloyi Captain Chesley
