Federal Register, 2004-07-07      The Praeger Handbook of Community Mental Health Practice Doreen Maller, Kathy Langsam, Melissa Jerbian Fritchle, 2013-02-20. This expansive three volume set addresses the complexities of interconnectivity, therapeutic capacity, and the competencies needed in order to provide sophisticated and integrated community mental health care both in the United States and within a global community. The Praeger Handbook of Community Mental Health Practice provides an essential framework that will serve university educators, students, new practitioners, and experienced therapists alike as they adapt to new approaches to community mental health and respond to changing laws governing mental health provision across state, national, and global levels. Volume one considers the structures, challenges, and expectations of community mental health, familiarizing readers with key issues such as service delivery, funding, and key models of intervention and care. Volume two provides an in depth exploration of the specific issues of working with populations that participate in and benefit from community mental health services, including addiction, school based services, juvenile and adult justice, and veteran's services. In Volume three, the contributors address specific needs, considerations, and concerns relevant to working in the global community, including disaster services, trauma, working with children, and providing training in international settings.

Social work in the 21st century (Prof.) Mogomme A. Masoga, Allucia L. Shokane, Annaline Keet, Varoshini Nadesan, 2024-12-30. This scholarly book, Social work in the 21st century: Scholarship and praxis reimagined towards vulnerability, is the third volume in the Knowledge Pathing Multi-Inter and Trans-Disciplining in Social Sciences book series. Chapters were invited from contributing authors who are involved in social work practice and education and who are dealing with the issues of poverty, inequality, and vulnerability in these fields. The focus of the book emanates from the main conference theme and sub-themes of the ASASWEI Association of South African Social Work Education Institutions conference held in 2021. The theme of the conference, 'Pandemics, poverty, inequality, and disability: Social work in the 21st century', provided an opportunity for deep deliberation, knowledge exchange, and skills development on how vulnerable communities already on the economic margins of society due to poverty and inequality are further marginalised during significant societal disruptions such as the coronavirus 2019 COVID-19 pandemic. It is these deliberations which culminated in this book. Drawing on the papers presented, the chapters promote knowledge and skills around vulnerabilities in our social context and how the social work profession is challenged to interrogate its role in addressing the persistent challenges of poverty and inequality that keep people on the peripheries of human development The target audience for this book is primarily academics engaged in the field of social work and related fields
