Walking This Path Together, 3rd Edition Gwendolyn Gosek, 2025-04-29T00:00:00Z Canadian child welfare policies and practices have been central to maintaining a settler colonial nation by controlling and managing the childhoods and future lives of children While ostensibly grounded in the best interests of the child child welfare policies and practices far too often make the lives of young people more precarious because they are stratified along race and class lines rather than caring for their wellbeing There have been

dire consequences for Indigenous communities but also for Black newcomer non citizen and poor people who are also disproportionately the primary focus of child welfare The contributors to this book reveal these unjust conditions so that workers can contribute to the ongoing transformation of child welfare to facilitate child wellbeing The third edition of Walking This Path Together continues the transformative vision of the first two editions and charts a new way forward There are several new chapters and authors who focus on M tis kinship protocols family group conferencing decolonizing child welfare and the criminalization of newcomers refugee children and Indigenous youth in care They demonstrate how to bring forward transformative practices to moving child welfare into a truly new decolonial era This transformative vision is the path that we are walking

Empowering People through Encounter Erin Brignam, Maureen H. O'Connell, 2025-09-15 A useful and enriching resource for empowering organizers rooted in Catholic Social Thought to engage the church on all levels and mobilize Catholics and other people of faith to enact social change Empowering People through Encounter presents the Catholic Social Tradition as an embodied practical and inspiring way to connect faith and action It highlights the dispositions skills and methods of faith based community organizing through a combination of interviews with Catholic organizers in the field and case studies of campaigns from a variety of national contexts Focusing on the relational praxis of organizing provides an opportunity for readers to encounter Catholic Social Thought as an integrated vision that gets lived on the ground by those closest to the pain of injustices rather than a set of abstract principles invoked by those at a distance Students and practitioners of Catholic Social Thought in a variety of contexts from the classroom and the pulpit to the one to one meeting and the public action will appreciate the introduction to the concrete skills of community organizing to encounter the Catholic Social Tradition with particular emphasis on the social teachings and synodal vision of Pope Francis For those who use this resource within the context of a university classroom or parish Empowering People through Encounter will nourish faith formation and vocation development by presenting community organizing as an expression of Catholic Social Thought and a way people of faith have been architects of Catholicism

Turning Point Fredric John Muir, 2016-01-22 Outlining a bold vision for the future of Unitarian Universalism 20 leaders issue a clarion call for change In inspiring fresh essays they implore us to collectively liberate ourselves from patterns that prevent us from becoming a robust faith for a new age Emerging from a history marred by the errors of individualism exceptionalism and anti authoritarianism Unitarian Universalism faces a crossroads Turning Point shows a way forward by embracing promises shaped from our theology generosity pluralism and imagination With essays that include the stories of creative new types of Unitarian Universalist communities across the country this essential new collection outlines a liberal faith for the twenty first century It offers a vision of an inclusive multicultural Beloved Community and inspires trust that Unitarian Universalism can deepen and grow once again meeting the aching needs of a new generation

Reading, Praying, Living The US Bishops' Open Wide Our Hearts Alison M. Benders, 2020-02-27 In 2018 for the first time in nearly forty years the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops published a pastoral letter against racism Open Wide Our Hearts is a call to a humble and expansive love that respects human dignity and unites us all in Christ Now in Reading Praying Living The US Bishops Open Wide Our Hearts Alison Benders offers a resource designed to help parishes RCIA programs campus ministries and Catholic readers unpack and grapple with this important document Benders provides background on the social doctrine that grounds the document describes why it is so timely and offers a plan for studying the letter personally or as a group In an engaging and accessible way she walks readers through the scriptural theological and moral guidance needed to form our consciences and convert our hearts And because the work of racial healing is a journey not an event each section of the guide also includes questions for personal reflection and attentive discussion and prayers for spiritual renewal or reconciliation Fragile Resurrection

Ashley E. Theuring, 2021-09-14 How do we practice hope after trauma What shape does hope take after abuse In grappling with these questions Ashley E Theuring implicates the entire church and advocates changing our theologies of hope and our understanding of resurrection Reimagining the Empty Tomb narrative from the Gospel of Mark in light of the experiences of domestic violence survivors Fragile Resurrection reveals the possibility for everyday practices and relationships to mediate hope and resurrection Theuring constructs an embodied imaginative hope found in the wake of trauma which can speak to our current context of trauma and uncertainty

The Theory of Practice Architectures Peter Grootenboer, Christine Edwards-Groves, 2024-01-01 This book provides an overview of the Theory of Practice Architectures TPA and the associated Theory of Ecology of Practices in a manner accessible for a broader audience The authors are part of the authorial team that developed the Theory of Practice Architectures from a strong empirical base with its initial publication in Changing Practices Changing Education Kemmis et al Springer 2014 This book follows on from that publication with a singular focus on the Theory of Practice Architectures and shows how it can be used as a theoretical framework for a range of empirical research projects It first outlines and describes both the Theory of Practice Architectures and the Theory of Ecology of Practices illustrating them with a range of relevant practical examples Then it focuses explicitly on designing and undertaking empirical research analyzing data and reporting findings using the Theory of Practice Architectures In this way this book shows specifically and overtly explicate ways that research can be designed and how data can be collected and analyzed drawing on the Theory of Practice Architectures as a foundational framework It also showcases a range of specific examples to allow readers to see the ideas as they have been employed in practice
