related to food production are essential ingredients for sustainable livelihoods among farmers Walsh argues that the well intentioned organizations working in Jalq a communities paid insufficient attention to longstanding knowledge that has supported human survival in regions where the natural world has the upper hand Walsh goes beyond a critical review of misguided aid to offer reflections on the relationship between indigenous knowledge and resilience theory the hopeful future of development assistance and the contradictions in her own hybrid role as researcher and development practitioner In light of growing global concern over the worsening food crisis and interconnected climate extremes Trojan Horse Aid offers an important critique of development practices that undermine peasant strategies as well as suggestions for more effective approaches for the future

Anthropological Practice Judith Okely,2020-05-15 Anthropologists are increasingly pressurised to formulate field methods for teaching Unlike many hypothesis driven ethnographic texts this book is designed with the specific needs of the anthropology student and field researcher in mind with particular emphasis on the core anthropological method long term participant observation Anthropological Practice explores fieldwork experiences unique to anthropology and provides the context by which to explain and develop practice based and open ended methodology It draws on dialogues with over twenty established and younger anthropologists whose fieldwork spans the late 1960s to the present day taking place in locations as diverse as Europe India Malaysia Indonesia Africa Iran Afghanistan North and South America Revealing first hand and hitherto unrecorded aspects of fieldwork Anthropological Practice provides critical systematic ways to enhance anthropological and alternative knowledge It is an essential text for anthropology students and researchers and for all disciplines concerned with ethnography Interviewees include Paul Clough Roy Gigengack Louise de la Gorgendi re Suzette Heald Michael Herzfeld Signe Howell Felicia Hughes Freeland Ignacy Marek Kaminski Margaret Kenna Raquel Alonso Lopez Malcolm Mcleod Brian Morris H l ne Neveu Kringelbach Akira Okazaki Joanna Overing Jonathan Parry Carol Silverman Mohammad Talib Nancy Lindisfarne Tapper Sue Wright Helena Wulff Joseba Zulaika

Organizing Innovation Marcel Veenswijk,2006 New Public Management as an administrative reform ideology as well as conceptual innovation has changed the outlook of public administration during the last ten years Public administration and public administration reform should not only be concerned with the improvement of the efficiency and coherence which play an important role in public administration but also political values like liberty equity and security as well as legal values like the rule of the law The modernization agenda of public administration has a rather internal focus while the ultimate test for the modernization of public administration is the way in which governments are able to respond to changing social cultural and economic conditions and the wicked policy problems which result from them This publication contains interesting contributions to the science and practice of public administration
