Prakrit Languages Their Contribution:

The Gitagovinda of Jayadeva Barbara Stoler Miller, 2016-01-01 Jayadeva's dramatic lyrical poem Gitagovinda is a unique work in Indian literature and a source of inspiration in both medieval and contemporary Vaisnavism. It concentrates on Kṛṣṇa's love with the Cowherdess Rādhā. Intense earthly passion is the example Jayadeva uses to express the complexities of divine and human love. It describes the loves of Kṛṣṇa and Rādhā in twelve cantos containing twenty-four songs. The songs are sung by Kṛṣṇa or Rādhā or Rādhā's maid and are connected by a brief narrative of descriptive passages. The appropriate musical mode and rhythm for each song are noted in the text. This poem is really a kind of drama of the ragakāvya type since it is usually acted. Critical acclaim of the poem has been high but its frank eroticism has led many Indian commentators to interpret the love between Rādhā and Kṛṣṇa as an allegory of the human soul's love for God. Learned and popular audiences in India and elsewhere have continued to appreciate the emotional lyricism the poem expresses in its variations on the theme of separated lover's passion. Linguistics in South Asia Murray B. Polomé, Werner Winter, 2011-06-24 TRENDS IN LINGUISTICS is a series of books that open new perspectives in our understanding of language. The series publishes state-of-the-art work on core areas of linguistics across theoretical frameworks as well as studies that provide new insights by building bridges to neighbouring fields such as neuroscience and cognitive science. TRENDS IN LINGUISTICS considers itself a forum for cutting-edge research based on solid empirical data on language in its various manifestations including sign languages. It regards linguistic variation in its synchronic and diachronic dimensions as well as in its social contexts as important sources of insight for a better understanding of the design of linguistic systems and the ecology and evolution of language. TRENDS IN LINGUISTICS publishes monographs and outstanding dissertations as well as edited volumes which provide the opportunity to address controversial topics from different empirical and theoretical viewpoints. High quality standards are ensured through anonymous reviewing. A Historical Syntax of Late Middle Indo-Aryan (Apabhraṃśa) Vit Bubenik, 1998-10-15 This monograph aims to close the gap in our knowledge of the nature and pace of grammatical change during the formative period of today's Indo-Aryan languages. During the 6th-12th c. the gradual erosion of the synthetic morphology of Old Indo-Aryan resulted ultimately in the remodelling of its syntax in the direction of the New Indo-Aryan analytic type. This study concentrates on the emergence and development of the ergative construction in terms of the passive to ergative reanalysis and the co-existence of the ergative construction with the old and new analytic passive constructions. Special attention is paid to the actuation problem seen as the tug-of-war between conservative and eliminative forces during their development. Other chapters deal with the evolution of grammatical and lexical aspect, causativization, modality, absolute constructions and subordination. This study is based on a wealth of new data gleaned from original poetic works in Apabhraṃśa by Svayambhūdeva, Puṣpadanta, Haribhadra, Somaprabha et al. It contains sections dealing with descriptive techniques of Medieval Indian grammarians esp Hemacandra All the Sanskrit Prakrit and Apabhramsa examples are consistently parsed and translated The opus is cast in the theoretical framework of Functional Grammar of the Prague and Amsterdam Schools It should be of particular interest to scholars and students of Indo Aryan and general historical linguistics especially those interested in the issues of morphosyntactic change and typology in their sociohistorical setting The Languages and Linguistics of South Asia Hans Henrich Hock, Elena Bashir, 2016-05-24
