Ultimate Guide to Heaven and Hell E. Ray Clendenen, 2024-04-15 What happens after we die The Ultimate Guide to Heaven and Hell is a summary guide to the afterlife that seeks to provide answers based on biblical teaching Throughout readers will encounter questions like What is heaven and how can I be sure I will get there Is it different from the new heavens and the new earth Will my body be there or just my spirit soul What is hell and how can I be sure to avoid it CHAPTERS INCLUDE Is it Just Hype How Can I Know Geography of Heaven and Earth Heaven the Celestial Fire Heaven Avoiding the Fire Is Heaven Our Home The New Creation The Necessity and Power of Jesus's Resurrection How Can I Know Jesus Was Raised What Is a Person Intermediate State Old Testament Evidence Intermediate State New Testament Evidence What Do We Know about Hades Did Christ Descend to Hades Gehenna the Lake of Fire Tartarus and the Abyss Death and Dying Human mortality can be quite paralyzing to some people but the truth remains our individual bodily lives will one day come to an end What happens after The Bible has much to say in response to that question and ultimately provides hope on this topic as we look to Jesus the one who has conquered death Biblical Theology of prayer in the New Testament Francois P. Viljoen, Albert J. Coetsee, 2023-08-31 This publication deals with a biblical theology of prayer based on the New Testament It forms the second of a two volume publication on a biblical theology of prayer dealing with the concept of prayer in the Old and New Testament respectively This New Testament volume begins with an introduction on prayer and worship in early Jewish tradition followed by eleven chapters dealing with New Testament corpora It concludes with a final chapter synthesising the findings of the respective investigations of the Old and New Testament corpora to provide a summative theological perspective of the development of the concept of prayer through scripture Prayer forms a major and continuous

theme throughout the biblical text Prayer was an integral part of the religious existence of God's people in both the Old and New Testament It underwent its greatest developments during after and as a result of the Exile and was deepened and transformed in the New Testament In both the Old and the New Testament God is the sole addressee of his people's prayer This conviction continued into the New Testament but was broadened with Trinitarian elements of worship adoration and intercession A biblical theological investigation is chosen as methodology Since all the biblical books form part of one canonical text the assumption is that the various theologies about prayer being displayed in these books can be synthesised into a developing meta theology about prayer As the Old and New Testament form part of the canonical text the results about prayer in the Old Testament can be brought into play with the results about prayer in the New Testament This eventually leads toward an overarching biblical theology of prayer

Called by the Gospel Michael Paul Middendorf, Mark Schuler, 2007-07-15 Called by the Gospel is the title for a series of introductory theological textbooks written from a distinctly Lutheran perspective In keeping with the predominant place of the gospel in Lutheran theology this introductory volume on the New Testament carries the same title as the series Called by the Gospel Readers will find within its pages a high view of the Christian Scriptures explanation of key texts with careful attention to the historical and cultural contexts particular focus on the presentation of Jesus by the various texts and a conversational style that seeks to convey the message of the text for contemporary times Although the book was written with university students in mind any Christians who seek to deepen their grasp of the New Testament will find within its pages helpful and challenging insights This book builds on material presented in the first volume of the series Called to be God's People and supplements its contents with maps photos suggested readings discussion questions and a glossary Together these two volumes prepare the university student for an in depth consideration of Christian doctrine in Called to Believe Teach and Confess

Jesus' Blood and Righteousness Brian Vickers, 2010-10-26 The question of whether Paul teaches that Christ's righteousness is imputed to the believer has been debated for roughly four hundred years Some of the questions that arise are What is the connection between Adam and the rest of the human race How did Christ fulfill the role of the second or new Adam How can the ungodly stand before a righteous God In Jesus Blood and Righteousness Brian Vickers investigates the key Pauline texts linked historically to the topic of imputation Though Vickers spends a good deal of time on the particulars of each text he keeps one eye on the broader biblical horizon like any doctrine imputation must be investigated exegetically and synthetically This book and its conclusion that the imputation of Christ's righteousness is a legitimate and necessary synthesis of Paul's teaching is a valuable contribution to the ongoing debate on imputation     The Fear of God in 2 Corinthians 7:1 Euichang Kim, 2019-02-21 Euichang Kim focuses upon the phrase the fear of God drawn from 2 Corinthians exhortation to reconcile with God. As opposed to these words appearing from no particular source, Kim points to the wider contexts of Old Testament passages quoted by Paul and demonstrates that God's eschatological promises, in particular his coming judgment, his promise to redeem his people, and the prospect of a new covenant, are intertwined with this motif of fear. Beginning with an analysis of the meaning of fear in both the Old Testament and the New, Kim proceeds to the context of fear within 2 Corinthians. Scripture, the writings of Second Temple Judaism, and the very eschatology of Paul suggest that it stems from an awareness of God's judgment to come and serves to motivate righteous behavior. Kim finally argues that in the context of 2 Corinthians, the fear of God functions as the proper response to God's saving acts in Christ and provides motivation for believers to pursue a holy life in anticipation of the eschatological judgment to come.
