Second Decade Voyages:

Collection of the Early Voyages, Travels, and Discoveries, of the English Nation Richard Hakluyt, 1812

Maritime Exploration in the Age of Discovery, 1415-1800 Ronald S. Love, 2006-09-30 Despite earlier naval expeditions undertaken for reasons of diplomacy or trade it wasn't until the early 1400s that European maritime explorers established sea routes through most of the globe's inhabited regions uniting a divided earth into a single system of navigation. From the early Portuguese and Spanish quests for gold and glory to later scientific explorations of land and culture this new understanding of the world's geography created global trade built empires defined taste and alliances of power and began the journey toward the cultural political and economic globalization in which we live today. Ronald Love's engaging narrative chapters guide the reader from Marco Polo's exploration of the Mongol empire to Ferdinand Magellan's circumnavigation of the globe the search for a Northern Passage Henry Hudson's voyage to Greenland the discovery of Tahiti the perils of scurvy mutiny and warring empires and the eventual extension of Western influence into almost every corner of the globe.

Biographies and primary documents round out the work. Empire And Others Professor M. Daunt, Rick Halpern, 2020-09-10 Much has been written about the forging of a British identity in the 17th and 18th centuries from the multiple kingdoms of England Scotland and Ireland. But the process also ran across the Irish sea and was played out in North America and the Caribbean. In the process the indigenous peoples of North America the Caribbean the Cape Australia and New Zealand were forced to redefine their identities. This text integrates the history of these areas with British and imperial history. With contributions from both sides of the Atlantic each chapter deals with a different aspect of British encounters with indigenous peoples in Colonial America and includes for example sections on Native Americans and Early Modern Concepts of Race and Hunting and the Politics of Masculinity in Cherokee treaty making 1763-1775. This book should be of particular interest to postgraduate students of Colonial American history and early modern British history.

A Catalogue of Geography, Voyages, Travels, History of America, Africa, Australasia and Asia Bernard Quaritch, Quaritch (London), 1899. A Selection of Curious, Rare and Early Voyages ... Richard Hakluyt, 1812. Richard Hakluyt and the

English Voyages George Bruner Parks, 1928. A Selection of Curious, Rare and Early Voyages ..., 1812. Voyages

Out, Voyages Home Jane de Gay, Marion Dell, 2018-09-15 The Eleventh Annual Conference on Virginia Woolf was the first to be held outside the United States. This voyage across the Atlantic was the stimulus for an exploration of themes of voyaging in Woolf's works from her interests in travel and cross cultural encounters to her imaginative voyages between texts and genres and the subsequent voyages her texts have made into the work of others. Published nine years after the conference this selection of papers by international scholars fills a gap in the chronicles of the Woolf conference. For this reason several papers feature an Afterword outlining developments in research since 2001 and the book also includes a Bibliography of Publications Arising from the Conference facilitating access to research presented at Bangor but published elsewhere.

Another special feature of the volume is the tribute to one of the keynote speakers Julia Briggs who died in 2007 in which Beth Rigel Daugherty communicates the gratitude of the scholarly community for Julia's many contributions to Woolf studies. This welcome publication is a fitting record of our collective voyage as Woolf scholars. How to Raise an American Myrna Blyth, Chriss Winston, 2008-06-24 Offering a real world resource parents can use to teach their kids about the greatness of America's past and the important role each individual plays in this democracy this practical guide offers information parents can use to make patriotism part of their family's daily life. Asia in the Making of Europe Donald F. Lach, 1993. Asia in the Making of Europe, Volume III: A Century of Advance. Book 1 Donald F. Lach, Edwin J. Van Kley, 2022-07-01 This monumental series acclaimed as a masterpiece of comprehensive scholarship in the New York Times Book Review reveals the impact of Asia's high civilizations on the development of modern Western society. The authors examine the ways in which European encounters with Asia have altered the development of Western society in art, literature, science, and religion since the Renaissance. In Volume III, A Century of Advance, the authors have researched seventeenth century European writings on Asia in an effort to understand how contemporaries saw Asian societies and peoples.

Voyages on the Northern Sea Route Tadeusz Pastusiak, 2019-09-04 This book explains vessels' ability to overcome ice on the Northern Sea Route as well as the criteria of safe speed and maneuvering of vessels on ice. It provides a successful long term forecast of ice navigation and reveals the dangers of sailing on the Northern Sea Route. It includes tips on how to plan and schedule voyages in the Russian Arctic. The book develops a set of suggested routes for the period of opening and closing of the transit ice free zone through the NSR based on the last eleven navigation seasons. It presents a method for determining the date for beginning a voyage of a vessel without ice strengthening through the NSR. It also develops a model of initial long term and operational decision making support system for vessel voyage planning and scheduling. The main audience for the book are officers at operational and management level of competency, people planning voyages on the Northern Sea Route in the office of ship operator and in chartering department or consulting company and participants of Ice Navigator IMO Model Courses at basic and advanced level of competency. My Voyage Robert G. Finney, 2021-01-13 Take an excursion with the author as he navigates the choices he made while sailing through three careers: jazz musician, Naval officer, and award winning educator amidst marriage, fatherhood, divorce, and remarriage against the backdrop of World War II, the Civil Rights Movement, and the 2020 pandemic. His story, though uniquely his, is shared by many who have had to make similar choices as they mature from boyhood to manhood. Voyage Drama and Gender Politics, 1589-1642 Claire Jowitt, 2003 The interest in aesthetics in Philosophy, Literary and Cultural Studies is growing rapidly. The new aestheticism contains exemplary essays by key practitioners in these fields which demonstrate the importance of this area of enquiry.
