Curriculum Making in Secondary Schools John Addison Clement, 1923 Reconstruction of the Secondary-school Curriculum Walter Scott Monroe, Marion Eugene Herriott, 1928 The Senior High School Curriculum George Sylvester Counts, 1926 European Dimensions and the Secondary School Curriculum Ivor Goodson, Veronica McGivney, 2018-10-03 Originally published in 1985 Europe and the EEC seemed to be virtually synonymous for the majority of our population and the ambivalent feelings many people have about the Community together with the consistently bad press it received in the UK seemed to engender a hostility in educational circles towards teaching about Europe as a whole However if one of the aims of education is to increase children s awareness tolerance and understanding of the world about them to widen their experience and horizons then teaching about the wider world must have a place in the curriculum This book argues for education about Europe not necessarily in favour of Europe breaking down the national insularity of the UK curriculum and using Europe as one convenient window on the wider world Our Evolving High School Curriculum Calvin Olin Davis, 1927 Curriculum-adjustment in the Secondary School Philip Wescott Lawrence Cox, 1925 The development of the high-school curriculum American Association of School Administrators, 1928 Secondary Education Carl Arthur Jessen, 1929 The American Secondary School Leslie Owen Taylor, 1960 Yearbook of the National Association of Secondary School Principals National Association of Secondary School Principals (U.S.), 1917 Encyclopedia of Curriculum Studies Craig Kridel, 2010-02-16 The Encyclopedia of Curriculum Studies provides a comprehensive introduction to the academic field of curriculum studies for the scholar student teacher and administrator The study of curriculum beginning in the early 20th century served primarily the areas of school administration and teaching and was seen as a method to design and develop programs of study The field subsequently expanded to draw upon disciplines from the arts humanities and social sciences and to examine larger educational forces and their effects upon the individual society and conceptions of knowledge Curriculum studies has now emerged to embrace an expansive and contested conception of academic scholarship while focusing upon a diverse and complex dynamic among educational experiences practices settings actions and theories in relation to personal and institutional needs and interests The Encyclopedia of Curriculum Studies serves to inform and to introduce terms events documents biographies and concepts to assist the reader in understanding aspects of this rapidly changing field of study Representative topics include Origins definitions dimensions and variations on Curriculum Studies Curriculum development and design for schools Curricular purpose implementation and evaluation Contemporary issues e g standards tests and accountability Curricular dimensions of teaching and teacher education Interdisciplinary perspectives on institutionalized curriculum Informal curricula of homes mass media workplaces organizations and relationships Impact of race class gender health belief appearance place ethnicity language Relationships of curriculum and poverty wealth and related factors Modes of curriculum inquiry and research Curriculum as cultural studies exploring the formation of identities and possibilities Corporate state church and military influence as curriculum Global and international perspectives on curriculum Curriculum organizations journals and resources Summaries of books and articles on curriculum studies Biographic vignettes of key persons in curriculum studies Relevant photographs
