Hierophantic Landscapes Richard Leviton, 2011-09-26 The Earth is poised to make a great disclosure Its a hierophant But whats a hierophant A person who reveals the holy light But it can also be a landscape or a planet And whats the holy light It is the structure of reality and consciousness a map of the heavenly realms the engineering blueprint of Creation Some people call this imminent disclosure the Apocalypse and run for cover But that is mistaken Apocalypse means the revelation of the divine revelation It means the end of our picture of the world as we know it The world itself will be fine even better than fine Splendid Illumined The Architect of reality lays down His cards face up and you see the whole deck Here is the truth of yourself and the Earth How will this disclosure work What we call sacred sites and holy landscapes will start revealing themselves in full to us in all their geomantic and visionary richness Thats the inner patterning of their design their arrays of Light temples and subtle palaces primed for our visionary adventures and edification The Earth needs us to have these adventures and visions because thats how we keep the planet healthy Hierophantic Landscapes visits five landscapes from Norway and England to California and Mexico providing firsthand reports on the visions and adventures of a small band of geomancers as they seek to unravel the mysteries of the Earth Maybe not such a small band because along the way we encounter angels landscape devas Nature Spirits and otherworldly mentors and revel in vistas of the ancient past of the Earth when that revelation was as fresh as a sunrise as it will soon be again

Automobile Association (Great Britain),2000-03 This is the perfect companion for exploring the hidden tranquil corners that form the rural heart of France      Places of Enchantment Graham Usher,2012-10-18 There is a great and honourable tradition of finding God in landscapes Many who have given up on church appreciate the spiritual benefits they gain from climbing a mountain or walking in nature But how and why do we encounter God in land forest river mountain desert garden sea and sky That is what Graham Usher explores in this captivating volume which takes us from the giant Redwoods of the Californian Sierra Nevada to the jagged New York skyline from the wilds of the ancient Scottish Highlands to the rolling pastures of English Shropshire Drawing on material from biblical and church history traditions as well as scientific research and contemporary art he seeks to ascertain how such encounters support our Christian pilgrimage and challenge our assumptions      The People, Place, and Space Reader Jen Jack Gieseeking,William Mangold,Cindi Katz,Setha Low,Susan Saegert,2014-04-16 The People Place and Space Reader brings together the writings of scholars designers and activists from a variety of fields to make sense of the makings and meanings of the world we inhabit They help us to understand the relationships between people and the environment at all scales and to consider the active roles individuals groups and social structures play in creating the environments in which people live work and play These readings highlight the ways in which space and place are produced through large and small scale social political and economic practices and offer new ways to think about how people engage the environment in multiple and diverse ways Providing an essential resource for students of urban studies geography sociology and many other areas this book brings together important but till now widely dispersed writings across many inter related disciplines Introductions from the editors precede each section introducing the texts demonstrating their significance and outlining the key issues surrounding the topic A companion website PeoplePlaceSpace.org extends the work even further by providing an on going series of additional reading lists that cover issues ranging from food security to foreclosure psychiatric spaces to the environments of predator animals      Material Culture Kenneth L. Ames,1985      Landscape as Sacred Space Steven Lewis,2005-07-15 Steven Lewis s Landscape as Sacred Space Metaphors for the Spiritual Journey invites new discussions about our spiritual journeys and allows seekers to rethink approaches to Christian spirituality and theology in light of postmodernity Landscape metaphors provide a common and accessible language to articulate one s spiritual journey Spiritual mountains deserts and valleys are dominant landscapes on our journey through life Most people have experienced the joy of a mountaintop spiritual experience the pain of spiritual deserts or perhaps the dreariness too often associated with spiritual valleys There is a tendency however to highlight spiritual mountaintops while avoiding spiritual deserts and ignoring spiritual valleys This leaves many Christians ill equipped either to deal with crises or to integrate God into ordinary life Each landscape offers rich lessons that when combined together lead us toward a maturing faith and into a deeper relationship with God Landscape as Sacred Space is intended to aid those who search for more meaningful ways to articulate their faith journey The book grants permission to struggle with life s landscapes provides safe spaces to reflect on the journey and introduces language that enables exploration and discovery

The Last Wild Places of Kansas George Frazier, 2017-02-16 Since the last wild bison found refuge on the back of a nickel the public image of natural Kansas has progressed from Great American Desert to dust bowl to flyover country that has been landscaped fenced and farmed But look a little harder George Frazier suggests and you can find the last places where tenacious stretches of prairie forest and wetland cheat death and incubate the DNA of lost wild America Documenting three years spent roaming the state in search of these hidden treasures The Last Wild Places of Kansas is Frazier's idiosyncratic and eye opening travelogue of nature's secret holdouts in the Sunflower State These are places where extirpated mammalian species are making comebacks where flying squirrels leap between centuries old trees lit by the unearthly green glow of foxfire where cold springs feed ancient watercress pools where the ice moon paints the Smoky Hills with memories of the buffalo wolf and the lonesome rattle of false indigo where the blue lid of the sky forms a vacuum seal over treeless pastel hills orange in winter where bluestem rises Some are impossible to find on maps Most are magnificently bereft of anything beneficial to 99.9 percent of modern America True wildernesses they may not be but at the correct angle of light when the wind blows pollen carrying biological memories of the glaciers these places are a crack between the worlds portals to the lost buffalo wilderness En route Frazier takes us from the unexpected wilds of the Kansas City suburbs to the Cimarron National Grassland in the far southwestern corner of the state He visits ancient springs shares a beer with prairie dog hunters and fails in his mission to canoe the upper Marais des Cygnes a trip that requires permission from every landowner on the route Along the way we encounter a host of curious characters ranchers farmers Native Americans explorers wildlife experts and outdoor enthusiasts all fellow travelers in a quest to know preserve and share the last wild places of Kansas
