It's only because they like me I was in the right place at the right time. I just work harder than the others. I don't deserve this. It's just a matter of time before I am found out. Someone must have made a terrible mistake. If you are a working woman, chances are this internal monologue sounds all too familiar. And you're not alone. From the high-achieving Ph.D. candidate convinced she's only been admitted to the program because of a clerical error to the senior executive who worries others will find out she's in way over her head, a shocking number of accomplished women in all career paths and at every level feel as though they are faking it, impostors in their own lives and careers. While the impostor syndrome is not unique to women women are more apt to agonize over tiny mistakes see even constructive criticism as evidence of their shortcomings and chalk up their accomplishments to luck rather than skill They often unconsciously overcompensate with crippling perfectionism overpreparation maintaining a lower profile withholding their talents and opinions or never finishing important projects When they do succeed they think Phew I fooled em again An internationally known speaker Valerie Young has devoted her career to understanding women's most deeply held beliefs about themselves and their success In her decades of in the trenches research she has uncovered the often surprising reasons why so many accomplished women experience this crushing self doubt In The Secret Thoughts of Successful Women Young gives these women the solution they have been seeking Combining insightful analysis with effective advice and anecdotes she explains what the impostor syndrome is why fraud fears are more common in women and how you can recognize the way it manifests in your life

The Secret Discipline of Prosperity Frederick Guttman, Do you consider yourself financially free Do you consider that you have the life you want you achieve what you have dreamed of you have acquired what you have wanted you have gone where you liked and you have fulfilled the expectations and projects that have come to your mind and your heart If not then you are not FINANCIALLY FREE and why aren't you There is what is correctly called Poverty Mentality or Scarcity Mentality and also the Financial Thermostat or bar that your mind is not able to exceed and it is the reason for the lack of abundance manifested in material life Don't look at this as an idea of greed as that is not what this book is about These strategies and Disciplines constitute the Construct of Thought that is ignored in the lower and middle class but those who have dominated the world have known it for a long time and it comes from knowledge of millennia ago Their Secrets were kept hidden only accessible to pharaohs kings emperors and later to billionaires bankers and other masters of the planet
