Aurorae D.J. Hoffman,2012-09-17 I never thought that I would spend my retirement writing novels Then again I never planned on hearing a voice not my own inside my head At my age many of my friends think I am going senile but they are wrong So this sixty something year old is in front of an old typewriter and waiting Waiting to hear the rest of this story but it has been months of silence I am beginning to believe that it is over and the voice is truly gone Therefore will not be telling their life story and perhaps that is for the best Everyone knows that I can t type well and my grammar is terrible That doesn t matter and what does is letting you know this biography Perhaps I should just put this old typewriter back in its case I will spend last of my years wondering before I also get put in a case I hope my porcelain farm animals find a good home when I m gone WHAT Okay The voice is back but not as loud and different than before But I am pleased to hear it again and hope my arthritis doesn t act up I will manage the pain of typing many pages and finally get use to it I should buy one of those computers everyone is using these days I understand it could even help with my grammar but I don t know What You are right and I am ranting on But how should I begin this novel and it can t be at the beginning What Of course and why wouldn t it It will start where I left off from my writings of Devan This novel is named Aurorae and I beg forgiveness for my mistakes
