author of The Kite Runner A mesmerizing debut set in Syria on the cusp of the unrest A Word for Love is the spare and exquisitely told story of a young American woman transformed by language risk war and a startling new understanding of love It is said there are ninety nine Arabic words for love Bea an American exchange student has learned them all in search of deep feeling she travels to a Middle Eastern country known to hold the The Astonishing Text an ancient original manuscript of a famous Arabic love story that is said to move its best readers to tears But once in this foreign country Bea finds that instead of intensely reading Arabic she is entwined in her host family s complicated lives as they lock the doors and whisper anxiously about impending revolution And suddenly instead of the ancient love story she sought it is her daily witness of a contemporary Romeo and Juliet like romance between a housemaid and policeman of different cultural and political backgrounds that astonishes her changes her and makes her weep But as the country drifts toward explosive unrest Bea wonders how many secrets she can keep and how long she can fight for a romance that does not belong to her Ultimately in a striking twist Bea s own story begins to mirror that of The Astonishing Text that drew her there in the first place not in the role of one of the lovers as she might once have imagined but as the character who lives to tell the story long after the lovers have gone With melodic meditation on culture language and familial devotion Robbins delivers a powerful novel that questions what it means to love from afar to be an outsider within a love story and to take someone else s passion and cradle it until it becomes your own
