Slavery and Freedom in Savannah Leslie M. Harris,Daina Ramey Berry,2014-02-15 Slavery and Freedom in Savannah is a richly illustrated accessibly written book modeled on the very successful Slavery in New York a volume Leslie M Harris coedited with Ira Berlin Here Harris and Daina Ramey Berry have collected a variety of perspectives on slavery emancipation and black life in Savannah from the city s founding to the early twentieth century Written by leading historians of Savannah Georgia and the South the volume includes a mix of longer thematic essays and shorter sidebars focusing on individual people events and places The story of slavery in Savannah may seem to be an outlier given how strongly most people associate slavery with rural plantations But as Harris Berry and the other contributors point out urban slavery was instrumental to the slave based economy of North America Ports like Savannah served as both an entry point for slaves and as a point of departure for goods produced by slave labor in the hinterlands Moreover Savannah s connection to slavery was not simply abstract The system of slavery as experienced by African Americans and enforced by whites influenced the very

shape of the city including the building of its infrastructure the legal system created to support it and the economic life of the city and its rural surroundings Slavery and Freedom in Savannah restores the urban African American population and the urban context of slavery Civil War and emancipation to its rightful place and it deepens our understanding of the economic social and political fabric of the U S South This project is made possible by a grant from the U S Institute of Museum and Library Services This volume is published in cooperation with Savannah s Telfair Museum and draws upon its expertise and collections including Telfair s Owens Thomas House As part of their ongoing efforts to document the lives and labors of the African Americans enslaved and free who built and worked at the house this volume also explores the Owens Thomas and Telfair families and the ways in which their ownership of slaves was foundational to their wealth and worldview The Treasure of Ulysses Davis Susan Mitchell Crawley,2008 The first in depth catalog of work by one of the South s finest African American wood carvers Telfair Museum of Art Telfair Museum of Art,2005-01-01 The fascinating history of the Telfair featuring 114 representative pieces of fine and decorative art from its vast collection all superbly reproduced and thoroughly annotated Scenic Impressions Estill Curtis Pennington,Martha R. Severens,2015-12-16 The radical changes wrought by the rise of the salon system in nineteenth century Europe provoked an interesting response from painters in the American South Painterly trends emanating from Barbizon and Giverny emphasized the subtle textures of nature through warm color and broken brush stroke Artists subject matter tended to represent a prosperous middle class at play with the subtle suggestion that painting was indeed art for art s sake and not an evocation of the heroic manner Many painters in the South took up the stylistics of Tonalism Impressionism and naturalism to create works of a very evocative nature works which celebrated the Southern scene as an exotic other a locale offering refuge from an increasingly mechanized urban environment Scenic Impressions offers an insight into a particular period of American art history as borne out in seminal paintings from the holdings of the Johnson Collection of Spartanburg South Carolina By consolidating academic information on a disparate group of objects under a common theme and important global artistic umbrella Scenic Impressions will underscore the Johnsons commitment to illuminating the rich cultural history of the American South and advancing scholarship in the field specifically examining some forty paintings created between 1880 and 1940 including landscapes and genre scenes A foreword written by Kevin Sharp director of the Dixon Gallery and Gardens in Memphis Tennessee introduces the topic Two lead essays written by noted art historians Estill Curtis Pennington and Martha R Severens discuss the history and import of the Impressionist movement abroad and domestically and specifically address the school s influence on art created in and about the American South The featured works of art are presented in full color plates and delineated in complementary entries written by Pennington and Severens Also included are detailed artist biographies illustrated by photographs of the artists extensive documentation and indices Featured artists include Wayman Adams Colin Campbell Cooper Elliott Daingerfield G Ruger Donoho Harvey Joiner John Ross Key Blondelle Malone Lawrence Mazzanovich Paul
