Beilby, Paul Rhodes Eddy, 2011-11-10 Therefore since we have been justified by faith we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ Rom 5 1 When Paul wrote these words he seemed confident he had made himself clear But for centuries the Pauline doctrine of justification has been a classic point of interpretation and debate in Christian exegesis and theology And while in recent decades there have been moments of hopeful convergence among the various traditions of the Western church the fine print often reveals more facets and distinctions than ever before This volume focuses on five views of justification and calls on representative proponents to set forth their case and then respond to each other The five views are Traditional Reformed Michael S Horton Progressive Reformed Michael F Bird New Perspective James D G Dunn Deification or Theosis Veli Matti K rkk inen Roman Catholic Gerald O Collins and Oliver Rafferty In addition editors James Beilby Paul R Eddy and Steven E Enderlein provide an extensive introduction to the issues informing this important debate This distinguished forum of biblical interpreters and theologians offers a lively and informative engagement with the biblical historical and contemporary understandings of justification Justification Five Views is not only a fascinating probe into Paul s meaning it is also a case book in theological method

Ash,2015-07-14 How God reveals himself is an important matter for Christians especially evangelicals For too long Carisa Ash contends evangelicals have rightly affirmed that God reveals through the created world but then they functionally neglect such revelation In this monograph Ash offers a corrective to this practice by presenting a theology of revelation that explores the commonalities between various forms of revelation world written and spoken word and Incarnate Word Particularly aimed at theologians interested in theological method Ash's study will also benefit people interested in faith and learning or interdisciplinary integration Ash argues that evangelicals must strive to align more closely their affirmations and their practice Her critique of current practices in theological method and integration along with the proposed theology of revelation are designed to help move the conversation forward

Missiological Hermeneutics Shawn B. Redford,2012-10-18 The first is a historical case considering the missional and theological hermeneutics employed when addressing African polygamy For the most part authors addressing polygamy have failed to consider God's missional response to polygamists in order to buttress their own convictions regarding African polygamy As such authors have not typically utilized a missional hermeneutic when trying to address polygamy Instead they have based their arguments on the false assumption that a given theological stance is the starting point for addressing the practice The second case study considers the role of mission praxis in an Islamic context related to missiological hermeneutics The case study demonstrates the impact of modern day mission practice especially when it correlates closely with the missionary dynamics in a given portion of Scripture Marketing Information Guide ,1971 Current

Biblical Foundations for Manhood and Womanhood Wayne Grudem, 2002-10-04 For years a debate has raged over how to define true masculinity and true femininity While there is agreement that men and women share equally in the privilege of being made in God's image some views of manhood and womanhood blur God-given gender distinctions Wayne Grudem assembled a team of distinguished writers to show how egalitarian views destroy God's ideal for your relationships marriage and life purposes The contributors to this book include John Piper Pastor of Bethlehem Baptist Church Minneapolis Minnesota Bruce A Ware Senior Associate Dean of the School of Theology and Professor of Christian Theology at The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary Richard W Hove Director of Campus Crusade for Christ at Duke University Daniel Doriani Dean of the Faculty and Professor of New Testament at Covenant Theological Seminary Daniel R Heimbach Professor of Christian Ethics at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary Peter Jones Professor of New Testament at Westminster Theological Seminary in California These writers explore key issues including the interchangeability of male female roles the meaning of submission and the historical novelty of egalitarian interpretations of Scripture This book will demonstrate how some views of manhood and womanhood tamper with our understanding of God's character and why the extremes of male domination and feminism destroy the beauty of our sexual differences differences that celebrate the excellence of men and women as God created us
