Looking Out From Death From The Cultural Revolution To Tiananmen Square:

Looking Out from Death Duoduo, Gregory Lee, John Cayley, 1989 Out of the Howling Storm Beidao, 1993 Jervey Tervalon's novel about young people in South Central Los Angeles grows out of his experience teaching in a high school there and his pain at the death of one of his favorite students Troubadours, Trumpeters, Troubled Makers Gregory B. Lee, 1996 Whether examining the globalized consumption of satellite broadcast pop music or the heroic efforts of little known poets on the margins of the Chinese diaspora he finds a questioning and contesting of both the Orientalist construction of a mythic monolithic China invented by the West and the Chinese obsession with ideas of authenticity and purity of nationhood

Chinese Poetry in Times of Mind, Mayhem and Money Maghiel van Crevel, 2008-10-02 Chinese Poetry in Times of Mind Mayhem and Money is a groundbreaking study covering a range of contemporary authors and issues from Haizi to Yin Lichuan and from poetic rhythm to exile bashing Its rigorous scholarship literary sensitivity and lively style make it eminently fit for classroom use Subjective Writing in Contemporary Chinese Literature Jin Siyan, 2020-09-15 Translated from the original French publication this book provides a comprehensive analysis of 20th century Chinese literature and examines the relationship between Chinese literary theory and modernity The author surveys the work of leading writers including Zhang Ailing Beidao and Mu Dan The author seeks to answer some fundamental questions in the study of Chinese literary history such as How does contemporary Chinese literature go from historical narrative to the narrative of the I where rhythm and epic merge into writing and where the instinctive load of the rhythm substantiates the epic What are the steps and the forms of mediation that allow such a transition Is the subject the only agent of the transition What is its status What is the role of poetic language that led to the birth of the subject and which separates it from empiricism What are the difficulties faced by Chinese writers today Young Chinese writers set off in search of a totally new writing to rediscover subjectivity which is in no way limited to literature it also covers areas such as the law and the expression of the I confronted to an overpowering we The Anchor Book of Chinese Poetry Tony Barnstone, Chou Ping, 2010-03-03 Unmatched in scope and literary quality this landmark anthology spans three thousand years bringing together more than six hundred poems by more than one hundred thirty poets in translations many new and exclusive to the book by an array of distinguished translators Here is the grand sweep of Chinese poetry from the Book of Songs ancient folk songs said to have been collected by Confucius himself and Laozi's Dao De Jing to the vividly pictorial verse of Wang Wei the romanticism of Li Po the technical brilliance of Tu Fu and all the way up to the twentieth century poetry of Mao Zedong and the post Cultural Revolution verse of the Misty poets Encompassing the spiritual philosophical political mystical and erotic strains that have emerged over millennia this broadly representative selection also includes a preface on the art of translation a general introduction to Chinese poetic form biographical headnotes for each of the poets and concise essays on the dynasties that structure the book The Anchor Book of Chinese Poetry captures with impressive range and depth the essence of China's illustrious poetic tradition Baudelaire in China Gloria Bien, 2012-12-14 Baudelaire's work entered China in the twentieth century amidst political and social upheavals accompanied by a literary revolution that called for classical models and modes of expression to be replaced by vernacular language and contemporary content. Chinese writers welcomed their meeting with the West and openly embraced Western literature as providing models in developing their new literature. Baudelaire's reception in China provides a representative study of this meeting of East and West. His work, which has been declared to stand between tradition and modernity, also lies at the intersection between classical and modern literature in China. Many of the best known and most highly regarded writers in twentieth century China were drawn to Baudelaire's work and some addressed it directly in their own writings. Bien draws upon H. R. Jauss's theory of the shifting and expanding horizons of expectation in the reading and interpretation of a literary work and upon James J. Y. Lin's notion of worlds received and created by both author and reader to show how poetic lines, images and ideas, as well as Chinese critics' comments, eventually weave into a rich picture of Baudelaire's reception in China. The Cambridge History of Chinese Literature: From 1375 Kang-i Sun Chang, Stephen Owen, 2010 Stephen Owen is James Bryant Conant Professor of Chinese at Harvard University. Book Jacket Constructing a System of Irregularities Chee Lay Tan, 2015-11-25 This book investigates the poetics of three of the most internationally renowned contemporary Chinese poets: Bei Dao, Yang Lian, and Duoduo, who were all exiled from China after the 1989 Tiananmen student movement. Their poetry was later to be labelled 'Misty poetry'. Menglongshi, emphasising polyvalent imagery and irregular syntax, 'Misty poetry' engenders a multiplicity of meanings, often leading to interpretational indeterminacy. This book examines three aspects of the 'Mistiness' of the poets' oeuvre: the socio-historic background where 'Misty' poets live and write; imagery and linguistic elements. After first identifying the roots of 'Mistiness', this book identifies imagistic and linguistic clues in order to construct a hermeneutical system that examines the irregularities of the 'Misty' poetics and appreciates the polysemy of the poets' works. Stylometry is used to analyse image frequency and its significance in a stylistic manner, and a semiotic approach is then systematically applied to analyse the poets' highly irregular images, syntax, and the different effects of their poems' obscurity. Through these approaches that unveil the poems' evocativeness, the irregularity of the poetry's 'Mistiness' is established as its most powerful linguistic and imagistic aspect. The book then places the three poets' different 'misty' characteristics into contrast: Bei Dao's twisted imagery and elliptical syntax; Yang's imagery in a classically inspired syntax; and Duoduo's integration of images into a rhythmic syntax. While the poets' progressions from pre to post-exile poetics suggest the potential of a non-nationally specific or borderless poetics, their seemingly irregular poetic 'Mistiness' is the most powerful trait of 'Misty poetry' for evoking its system of multifaceted significations and alternative aesthetics.
