Prophecy in the New Millennium Suzanne Newcombe, Sarah Harvey, 2016-04-15 Secular and spiritual prophets of doom abound in the information rich twenty first century as they have for millennia But there has yet to be worldwide floods meteor impact global computer failure obvious alien contact or direct intervention from God to end the world as we know it Considering the frequency with which prophecy apparently fails why do prophecies continue to be made and what social functions do they serve This volume gives a concise but comprehensive overview of the rich diversity of prophecy its role in major world religions as well as in new religions and alternative spiritualities its social dynamics and its impact on individuals lives Academic analyses are complimented with contextualized primary source testimonies of those who live and have lived within a prophetic framework The book argues that the key to understanding the more dramatic apocalyptic and millenarian aspects of prophecy is in appreciating prophecy s more mundane manifestations and its role in providing meaning and motivation in everyday life

Journey to Aztlantica Richard S. Flores, 2013-11 THE JOURNEY TO ATLANTICA Aztlantica is the spiritual homeland of the Quetzalc atl Prophecy The Journey brings forth new insights hidden history and a future in peril The Journey to Aztlantica is a call for renewal and transformation to a new world The Journey expresses concern about the degenerating trajectory of capitalistic systems and their influence on the future stabilities of world societies and governments

The old world economic worldview is set to regression and is conducive to social disintegration. This book alludes to the need for individuals to prepare themselves to confront and survive the extreme calamities of a future in peril. The Journey calls for the building of an alternative economic system as a way to change the human character and behavior. Aztlantica is calling for new social, cultural, and spiritual models. It calls for establishing a respectful and balanced relationship with the natural environment. The Journey proposes a new spiritual movement for the new world, a religion that would be compatible with the new worldview. Aztlantica calls for the refinement and rejuvenation of all cultures in order to promote respect, peace, balance, and harmony around the world. The Journey stresses the need to cross over to a new worldview reality. It calls for the adoption of the circular worldview of reality. In order for humanity to survive adequately into the future and create a sustainable world in which humanity can live prosper and advance, individuals must first transform themselves before they can transform the future.

Dancing for the Fat Lady Ray Drake, 2013-11-07. This is the story of my journey from a university psychology department to public mental health and private practice and on to being a psychologist in Indian land. It includes, of course, the many interesting people, novel experiences, and challenging ideas I encountered along the way. It is a story of expanding spiritual awareness and growth as a human being and the part played in that by the Chippewa Ojibwa Indians whose own practice of faith clearly embodies Jesus' teachings on how to live with reverence, gratitude, humility, and grace. The discovery of their faith was an immense surprise and an unexpected joy. Eventually, I was called in dreams to Sundance in Canada, a calling that also included dancing in other ceremonies which like the Sundance required four days of fasting and prayer. I attempt to convey to the reader some of the learning and growth that are inevitable when one dances in a sacred arbor filled with kind souls and the Creator's unconditional love, and yet I know full well that words merely hint at what can be learned only through experience. When I answered the call to Sundance, who could have known that as a dancer, helper, and eventual leader, I would spend the next eighteen years of my life in those sacred arbors. I was fifty-two when I first danced and a couple of weeks shy of seventy when last I dragged the buffalo skulls. My dear wife pursued her own calling to teach children and wound up teaching many years in a nearby Indian school. She made this journey ours by her loving constancy, faith, courage, and support. She was the first and best of the joy-filled surprises the Creator had for me when He moved me out of the university world.
