Losing A Child

Claire Aagaard

Losing A Child:

Losing a Child Elaine Storkey, 2012-09-12 The loss of a child may happen in many different ways But each lost child is precious And behind each loss there is grief How can we cope with the shock and the pain Where can we turn for help Who will answer the whys and if onlys This is a helpful positive book It faces the pain but also offers encouragement and hope It includes material on losing a baby during pregnancy

Surviving the Loss of a Child Elizabeth B. Brown, 2010-03 Revised and updated this tender book offers encouragement and hope to those who may think they will never be able to get on with life after losing a child

The Unspeakable Loss Nisha Zenoff, 2017-11-07 A guide to hope and healing after the death of a child from a grief counselor and psychotherapist who has been there Nisha Zenoff lost her son in a tragic accident when he was just seventeen years old Now with decades of experience as a grief counselor and psychotherapist she offers support and guidance from her own journey and from others who have experienced the death of a child The Unspeakable Loss helps those who mourn to face the urgent questions that accompany loss Will my tears ever stop Who am I now without my child How can I help my other children cope I lost my only child how do I live Will my marriage survive Will life ever feel worth living again No matter where you are in your grieving process The Unspeakable Loss provides a space to mourn in your own way and helps you understand how the death of a child affects siblings other family members and friends recognizing that we each grieve differently And while there is no one prescription for healing Zenoff provides tools to practice the important aspects of grieving that are easily forgotten self compassion and self care The Unspeakable Loss doesn't flinch from the reality or pain caused by the death of a child yet ultimately it is a book about the choice to embrace life love and joy again As Zenoff writes in the Preface Our relationships with our children do not end with their deaths Our relationships change they are transformed but our children will always be with us

Wiersbe, 1992-08 Uses the Bible to offer comfort and support to the parent grieving the loss of a child including the process of mourning marital problems questions and acceptance and contains information about additional reading and support groups Finding Life After Losing One Nikki King, Alice Rampton, 2016 The pain of losing a child to death is real Friends family and parents of children of all ages who have passed on will find an empathetic voice in this book full of real life advice from parents who've been there Learn what to do as a parent what not to say as a friend and how to preserve precious memories during times of mourning and moving forward After the Death of a Child Ann K. Finkbeiner, 2012-12-11 For a parent losing a child is the most devastating event that can occur Most books on the subject focus on grieving and recovery but as most parents agree there is no recovery from such a loss This book examines the continued love parents feel for their child and the many poignant and ingenious ways they devise to preserve the bond Through detailed profiles of parents Ann Finkbeiner shows how new activities and changed relationships with their spouse friends and other children can all help parents preserve a bond with the lost child Based on extensive interviews and grief research Finkbeiner explains how parents have changed five to twenty-five years after the deaths of their children The first half of the book discusses the short and long-term effects of the child's death on the parent's relationships with the outside world that is with their spouses other children friends and relatives The second half of the book details the effect on the parents' internal world their continuing sense of guilt their need to place the death in some larger context and their inability sometimes to consistently do so their new set of priorities the nature of their bond with the lost child and the subtle and creative ways they have of continuing that bond Finkbeiner's central point is not so much how parents grieve for their children but how they love them Refusing to fall back on pop jargon about recovery or to offer easy solutions or standardized timelines Finkbeiner's is a genuine and moving search to come to terms with loss Her complex profiles of parents resonate with the honesty and authenticity of uncomfortable emotions expressed and most importantly shared with others experiencing a similar loss Finally each profile exemplifies the many heroic ways parents learn to live with their pain and by so doing honor the lives their children should have lived Life After Losing A Child Antonette Smith, 2021-09-24 Life After Losing a Child is dedicated to my son Antonio Smith Scott May 23 1992 March 5 2013 and in honor of my mother Flora Scott August 25 1949 January 3 2020 who birthed eight children and lost six before her own death Life After Losing a Child is based on my own experiences from a mother's perspective losing a child from a sibling's perspective losing brothers in early childhood how the death of my brothers affected my parents and our family I also share how losing my own son affected my family my four other children and their father Millions of parents lose a child every day and are left struggling trying to not be overtaken with grief for the rest of our lives We suffer from guilt shame hurt pain and sorrows until we allow Jesus to heal us Losing a child from a miscarriage stillbirth sickness deformities abortions accidents or homicides all these losses of a child carries the same hurts pains sorrows and grief The loss of these children leaves a void in all our lives as a family I pray by sharing my loss and grief process you will seek Jesus for healing for yourself and family That you will be empowered to live your best life after the loss of a child or sibling I pray you will live to the fullest capacity God has intended Jesus died to give you with the Holy Spirit guiding you a life of purpose not only for yourself and family but for the child that is gone but not forgotten

Beyond Tears Carol Barkin, Ellen Mitchell, 2005-02 Nine mothers who lost a child and met in a support group give comfort and direction to bereaved parents in a chorus of supportive voices

Surviving the Unthinkable Janice Bell Meisenhelder, 2017-01-21 Few people understand the grief that comes with losing a child unless they have weathered that situation themselves Dr Janice Bell Meisenhelder has suffered through the loss of a child and knows the almost unbearable sorrow a bereaved mother feels She has created this gentle guide to help mothers deal with their emotions and begin to heal Her guide starts by describing the initial reactions to loss She shows you the rhythms of grief and the basic emotions you will feel right after the event She then moves on to handling anger guilt envy and anxiety As time passes Meisenhelder warns about triggers and shows mothers how to handle holidays birthdays and family events She offers advice on how to heal spiritually as well as emotionally Meisenhelder also prepares you for tsunami days when the loss suddenly hits you all over again She guides you through these days and on to the second and third year without your child She encourages you to find ways to honor your child In addition to guidance for mothers Surviving the Unthinkable also contains information for those immediate family and friends who want to understand and support their loved ones during this difficult time
