The Scandinavian Model Robert Erikson,1987 Part I of this book is devoted to the development of Scandanavian societies from agrarian societies to modern industrial economies and welfare states Three of the chapters in Part II analyse particular welfare problems those of inequality poverty and redistribution the final essay deals with women s position in the welfare state The papers included in Part III present theory and methods of welfare research      On Top of the World Bruce O. Solheim,2000-01-30 An examination of the political and social characteristics particular to Scandinavia which have made women s rise to power more rapid than in other regions of the world this study also explores how the resulting election of women has provided valuable evidence of the impact of women leaders and their leadership style Solheim begins with a critical survey of feminist scholarship regarding the equality difference debate and the application of such research on the position of women in international politics He concludes in this respect that leadership style may have less to do with gender than one might initially suspect Archival research and interviews with women in leadership roles provide the reader with a closer look at the Scandinavian system a view that will challenge gender stereotypes around the world On Top of the World explores the Nordic political systems in great detail and analyzes systemic factors such as multi party electoral systems and consensus seeking cultural institutions which contribute to the rise of so many women leaders Solheim compares and contrasts the political rise of two Nordic women leaders to power and influence and for the purpose of cross cultural comparison one woman leader from the developing world A final chapter ties together the theoretical framework and the case studies to suggest a direction for future research      Northern Europe Trudy Ring,Noelle Watson,Paul Schellinger,2013-10-28 First published in 1996 Volume 2 of the International Dictionary of Historical Places covers Northern Europe British Isles to Russia out of a set of five The dictionary spans from Aachen to Ypres and includes an index by country This five volume set presents some 1 000 comprehensive and fully illustrated histories of the most famous sites in the world Entries include location description and site details and a 3 000 to 4 000 word essay that provides a full history of the site and its condition today An annotated further reading list of books and articles about the site completes each entry      Europe Andrew John Herbertson,1919      The New Century for Woman ,1876      Descriptive geographies from original sources, selected by F.D. literary messenger ,1850      Animalities Michael Lundblad,2017-05-24 New and cutting edge work in animality studies human animal studies and posthumanism Representations of animality continue to proliferate in various kinds of literary and cultural texts This pioneering volume explores the critical interface between animal and animality studies marking out the terrain in relation to twentieth century literature and film The range of texts considered here is intentionally broad answering questions like how do contemporary writers such as Amitav Ghosh Terry Tempest Williams and Indra Sinha help us to think about not only animals but also humans as animals What kinds of creatures are being constructed by contemporary artists such as Patricia Piccinini Alexis Rockman and Michael Pestel How do animalities animate such diverse texts as the poetry of two women publishing under the name of a Michael Field or an early film by Thomas Edison depicting the electrocution of a circus elephant named Topsy Connecting these issues to fields as diverse as environmental studies and ecocriticism queer theory gender studies feminist theory illness and disability studies postcolonial theory and biopolitics the volume also raises further questions about disciplinarity itself while hoping to inspire further work beyond the human in future interdisciplinary scholarship Key Features 10 provocative case studies focused on representations and discourses of animals and animality in twentieth and twenty first century literature art and film in English New work from both internationally renowned and emerging figures in the burgeoning fields of animality studies human animal studies and posthumanism suggesting innovative and significant new directions to explore Broad introduction to the kinds of questions scholars in the humanities have considered in relation to animals and animality      Industrial & Engineering Chemistry ,1924

Europe in Search of Political Order Johan P. Olsen,2007-02-01 This book deals with ongoing processes of European cooperation and integration processes that may have a potential to change the political organization of Europe Based on ideas from the new institutionalism the book offers a systematic perspective on institutional change and in particular the role of institutions in relation to four central and durable issues in the study of political life These are 1 the mediation between unity and diversity what ties a society together and what keeps it apart 2 The relations between citizens and their helpers why the democratic deficit in the European Union can not be eliminated solely by making mechanisms of direct citizens participation and representation more efficient Needed are also institutions that make direct participation redundant because they routinely work with integrity generating expected and desired outcomes 3 The relation between democratic design and historical drift To what degree democracies are able to design and reform key institutions of governance so that their structures reflect popular will understanding and control 4 The co existence of old and new political orders How elements of a new order may supplement rather than replace elements of the old order generating a mixed order based on partly inconsistent principles and rules      Southern Literary Messenger ,1850      The Athenaeum ,1836
