Shetty,2007 Choosing Love Dawne Moon,Theresa W. Tobin,2025-05-05 What does the battle between conservative Christians and LGBTQ people look like from the vantage point of those who are both If a culture war is happening LGBTQ conservative Christians are on the front lines While many people assume LGBTQ people have to say goodbye to the religions they grew up with and many do others occupy the intersection of LGBTQ existence and conservative Protestantism Choosing Love shows what happens when two identities that seem diametrically opposed conservative Christian and LGBTQ are joined together within one person Drawing on participant observation conducted within organizations for LGBTQ Christians and on more than 100 interviews with LGBTQ Christians former Christians and allies especially Black people Indigenous people and other people of color Dawne Moon and Theresa W Tobin show how a number of LGBTQ Christians and their heterosexual cisgender allies are working to make their families churches and communities more inclusive loving and just In telling their stories Choosing Love shares lessons about what it means to be human relational beings who need mutual connection to thrive These stories expose the brutality of treating shame as a special sacrament for LGBTQ people and the toxicity of treating a particular construction of gender as sacred They teach us the difference between arrogance and relational pride and that humility is the core of true allyship Finally they offer contemporary examples of the radical potential of love in movements for social justice Written in an approachable style and drawing from such diverse sources as Martin Buber Martin Luther King Black Third World feminism and queer thinkers of color Choosing Love is for anyone interested in the centrality

The subtitle clarifies this paradox first there are many signs of God's reality and activity in the world and the first section of the book examines ways in which people are aware of God as both a creative and immanent presence in life. The signs of God are not philosophical proofs but empirical realities accessible to all people. In the second section the biblical responses to suffering in the world are explored through both Old and New Testaments. In the third section the writings of two modern apologists C S Lewis and Philip Yancey are assessed and then finally there is a chapter of interviews with people who have known suffering in their lives Bailey & Love's Short Practice of Surgery 26E Norman Williams, P Ronan O'Connell, 2013-02-18 Highly Commended BMA Medical Book Awards 2014 Bailey Love's Short Practice of Surgery remains one of the world's pre eminent medical textbooks beloved by generations of surgeons with lifetime sales in excess of one million copies.
