The Treasure of the Golden God A. Hyatt Verrill, 2012-01-01

Thornton and Belmont embark on an adventure to find the lost city of El Dorado excerpt What do you make of those Thornton asked as he tossed two bits of shining yellow metal upon the table Belmont the mining engineer picked up the objects and examined them curiously They were obviously gold thin crescent shaped perhaps two inches in length by an inch in width and with small eyes or rings at the points of the crescents They re gold of course he replied Indian ornaments of some sort I should say Yes you re right both times laughed Thornton But do you realize that you are holding something which no white man since Raleigh s day has ever seen Those things Frank are the gold moons that Sir Walter Raleigh reported having seen in the noses of Guiana Indians Jove

is that so exclaimed the other Discovered a lost tribe eh Bully for you What were they freaks cannibals or Amazons Neither declared the explorer who had recently returned from months in the interior of Guiana and Brazil and who was dining with his old college chum The people who wore these he continued are quite ordinary in as far as appearances go But they prove that Raleigh was right and this is what may interest you the tribe that uses the moons has a secret unlimited supply of gold What cried the engineer instantly interested I suppose you mean that they have a rich placer mine Now you re talking business old man I thought that would wake you up laughed the explorer I can t say as to the placer Did you ever hear of El Dorado and the City of Manoa The Treasure of Nugget Mountain Karl May,2006 WINNETOU s hour of mourning was past Before and during the burial of the father and sister who were so dear to him he gave himself up to the pain of their loss but that over he was no longer the son and brother but the leader of his warriors the avenger of their murder and turned all his attention to the expected coming of the Kiowas He was ready with a plan and as soon as the last stone was placed over his dead he bade the Apaches bring the horses The Christian treasury (and missionary review). ,1857
