Target Audience

Clinical nurse preceptors and clinical educators interested in advancing their preceptor skills and in advancing their preceptor role.

Description

The North Carolina Area Health Education Center (NCAHEC) is offering a live webinar that will build upon the 2023 webinar, Teaching Strategies for the Experienced Preceptor. This year we will take a deep dive into generational differences and strategies to foster communication, techniques/strategies to utilize when precepting someone from a different generation and/or someone with more experience and explain how to address the experience-complexity gap in nursing. Learn from a panel of experienced preceptors how to handle challenges and how to advance preceptor skills in today's healthcare environment.

Outcome

80% of participants will be able to list one precepting strategy they learned from the webinar.

Nurturing The Nurse On The Path To Success:

Nurturing the Nurse on the Path to Success Carolyn Travis Laskey, 1994-01 The Path to Building a Successful Nursing Career Jennifer M. Manning, 2020-12-14 This textbook provides a one stop reference resource and guide for nurses interested in advancing their careers It addresses self assessment goal setting and self discipline as well as academic paths and non academic career paths and includes two chapters on strategic path development covering internal motivation risk taking work life balance work environment networking professional membership and mentorship Lastly the book discusses professional growth topics such as civility burnout professional development and keeping informed and explores specific professionalism topics like professional behavior ethics social media and executive presence Intended for nurses at any level this textbook examines topics relevant to today s nursing professionals and offers guidance on building a successful nursing career It also helps student nurses create a path for their career and professional growth both during their training program and beyond Leadership Within Us Master 3 arts • Embrace 2 values • Nurture 6 skills Dr. Arun Seshachalam, There is a Leader within every individual Its emergence depends on the nature of the individual and the nurture by the surroundings In my professional life I was fortunate to get associated with exceptional leaders I have worked under a few and collaborated with many As a clinician with formal training in healthcare management I was able to identify the key attributes important skill sets and core values that separated them from the rest In this book I have shared everything I have heard learned and observed regarding effective leadership I am confident that the lessons I have gained can be incorporated into your practice propelling you to great heights My initial plan was to distribute handouts to medical college students and postgraduates after my lecture on leadership on healthcare However due to the positive feedback I have decided to expand my efforts Every day I encounter numerous leaders from various fields ranging from nursing to executive positions I am confident that you will witness a more personalized and higher quality version with each subsequent edition I am sure this book will unleash the leader inside you and bring it to the center stage Dr Arun Seshachalam Stress Clarke M. Ivanich, 2002 Stress seems to be an affliction common to almost everyone living in the 21st century except perhaps a few inhabitants of some far off islands untouched by modern society But what is it And more importantly what is there we can do about it Some research says we need it but this seems hard to believe Other research no less believable says we don t need it but we can manage it About the only thing about stress that seems certain is that there is a lot of it around and that the less of it that lands on a person the better This book gathers new and important citations from both the journal and the book literature and provides access through author subject and title indexes The Cumulative Book Index , 1995 A world list of books in the English language Leadership Roles and Management Functions in Nursing Bessie L. Marquis, Carol Jorgensen Huston, 2000 This hands on nursing management text offers preparation for tomorrow s nursing leaders With its strong emphasis on critical thinking and problem solving the book s practical guidance seeks to help today s students become tomorrow s decision makers Case studies bring basic theories of nursing management to life through applications in real world scenarios Tips on collaborative care personnel management and documentation help define roles and responsibilities for nursing There are also tables offering information at a glance

The Nurture Assumption Judith Rich Harris,2011-10-25 A NEW YORK TIMES NOTABLE BOOK How much credit do parents deserve when their children turn out well How much blame when they turn out badly Judith Rich Harris has a message that will change parents lives The nurture assumption the belief that what makes children turn out the way they do aside from their genes is the way their parents bring them up is nothing more than a cultural myth This electrifying book explodes some of our unquestioned beliefs about children and parents and gives us a radically new view of childhood Harris looks with a fresh eye at the real lives of real children to show that it is what they experience outside the home in the company of their peers that matters most Parents don't socialize children children socialize children With eloquence and humor Judith Harris explains why parents have little power to determine the sort of people their children will become The Nurture Assumption is an important and entertaining work that brings together insights from psychology sociology anthropology primatology and evolutionary biology to offer a startling new view of who we are and how we got that way

Mentoring in Nursing through Narrative Stories Across the World Nancy Rollins Gantz,Thóra B. Hafsteinsdóttir,2023-07-15 The book explores how mentoring theoretical background of mentoring and how mentoring is used by nurses in all arenas where they work in health care education research policy politics and academia in supporting nurses with their professional and career development Over 300 mentors and mentees from a wide range of countries across all continents share their stories of mentoring reflecting on their development in leadership clinical practice education research and politics The book describes various types of mentoring including more traditional types of mentoring as well as virtual online and peer mentoring During the mentorship trajectories the nurses address an inclusive collection of issues that they are faced with and share supporting strategies The book highlights the importance of mentoring for nurses to support their personal and professional leadership development Also it emphasizes the importance of mentoring for when nurses engaged in variety of projects that could entail or encompass evidence based clinical practice development within education research in the clinical arena policy formation political affairs or cultural inclusion that present significant impact in patient care and healthcare outcomes within and across countries With The Future of Nursing 2020 2030 Charting a Path to Achieve Health Equity report from the National Academies of Sciences published in 2021 the role of nursing will become ever more dynamic and therefore the profession of nursing must be visible in improving and securing the future for patients families and communities across the globe Mentoring practices to build the profession's leaders are forever essential acute and imperative This book shows how mentoring can support nurses in further developing nursing as a profession and scientific discipline across countries to support clinical application of evidence based practice and nursing education and research dissemination Accordingly this book shares essential diverse and pioneering expertise through wide range of
