Nutrition Policy Implementation Nevin S. Scrimshaw, Mitchel B. Wallerstein, 2012-12-06 The MIT International Nutrition Planning Program INP was initiated in the fall of 1972 with a grant from the Rockefeller Foundation later supplemented by funds from USAID under the 2110 Program conceived as a multidisciplinary undertaking the INP was a joint effort of the Department of Nutrition and Food Science and the Center for International Studies at MIT that also included representatives of the Departments of Economics Political Science Urban Studies Humanities Anthropology and Civil Engineering It has been successful in attracting graduate students and conducting research on various international food and nutrition problems including the design of intervention programs A condition of the original grant from the Rockefeller Foundation was the organization of a meeting to summarize and evaluate the progress of the program It was ultimately decided that the best approach would be a workshop that would attempt to assess what had been learned about the implementation of food and nutrition policies since the start of the INP Out of concern for food and nutrition policy issues the World Hunger Programme of The United Nations University UNU and the Ford Foundation also agreed to cosponsor the workshop

Nutrition Policy Implementation Nevin S. Scrimshaw, Mitchel B. The political economy of food and nutrition policies Per Pinstrup-Andersen, 1993-01-01 Few nutritionists and economists fully appreciate how the political environment shapes policy and subsequently affects the relevance of their policy recommendations When governments fail to follow the recommendations of nutritionists and economists and are unable to design and implement cost effective nutrition programs and policies it is often attributed to politics or to lack of political will on the part of decisionmakers Past nutrition planning efforts frequently failed to understand the goals and behavior of the various agents and institutions inside and outside the government that in the final analysis determine whether the planning effort is successful In The Political Economy of Food and Nutrition Policies Per Pinstrup Andersen brings together a group of distinguished authorities to improve the understanding of how nutrition policies are formulated within larger political and economic contexts and how public sector agencies behave with regard to food and nutrition

Handbook of Nutrition and Ophthalmology Richard David Semba, 2007-12-06 The Nutrition and Health series of books have as an overriding mission to provide health professionals with texts that are considered essential because each includes 1 a synthesis of the state of the science 2 timely in depth reviews by the leading researchers in their respective fields 3 extensive up to date fully annotated reference lists 4 a detailed index 5 relevant tables and figures 6 identification of paradigm shifts and the consequences 7 virtually no overlap of information between chapters but targeted inter chapter referrals 8 suggestions of areas for future research and 9 balanced data driven answers to patient health professionals questions which are based upon the totality of evidence rather than the findings of any single study The series volumes are not the outcome of a symposium Rather each editor has the potential to examine a chosen area with a broad perspective both in subject matter as well as in the organization of their volume The international perspective especially with regard to public health initiatives is emphasized where appropriate The editors whose trainings are both research and practice oriented have the opportunity to develop a primary objective for their book define the scope and focus and then may invite the leading authorities from around the world to be part of their initiative The editor authors are encouraged to provide an overview of the field discuss their own research and relate the research findings to potential human health consequences

Completing the Food Chain Smithsonian Institution, 1989 Sociologies of Food and Nutrition Wm. Alex McIntosh, 2013-11-21 Here Wm Alex McIntosh analyzes the relationship between food and nutrition and social factors using a wide array of sociological theories The author applies theories of social organization culture social stratification social change rural sociology the sociology of the body and social problems to empirical problems in food and nutrition By doing so he sheds light on issues such as the rise of the state population growth famine obesity eating disorders the maldistribution of food across class gender and ethnic boundaries and the changing nature of the food industry An Anthology Regarding Merit Goods Wilfried Ver Eecke, 2007 Merit Goods are those goods and services that the government feels that people will under consume and which therefore ought to be subsidized or provided free at the point of use The consumption of merit goods is thought to generate positive externality effects where the social benefit from consumption exceeds the private benefit Examples of merit goods are health services education public libraries and inoculations against certain diseases Van Eecke has assembled a collection of articles and papers that covers the issue of merit goods from a variety of perspectives and has provided a single source for researchers and economist interested in the issue The work begins with a thorough look at Musgrave's notion of merit goods The subsequent sections expand the definition of merit goods and provide information on the application of merit goods theory in economic philosophical social and religious terms The reference also has an extensive bibliography The Political Economy of Hunger: Volume 1: Entitlement and Well-being Jean Dreze (ed), Amartya

Sen,1990 Part of a major report on world hunger instigated by the World Institute for Development Economics Research this volume deals with possible solutions to the problem of regular outbreaks of famine in various parts of the world

Intervention In Child Nutrition Jan Hoorweg,Rudio Niemeijer,2013-10-28 First published in 1989 The studies that form the basis for this monograph were carried out between 1976 and 1979 The African Studies Centre in Leiden has a standing interest in child nutrition and provided the funds and resources for what was ambitiously termed the Nutrition Intervention Research Project Bibliography of Agriculture with Subject Index ,1988-10 Nutrition and Behavior J.R.

Galler,2013-06-29 After the appearance of the four book series Human Nutrition A Comprehensive Treatise it became apparent to the editors that an important area of nutrition had been overlooked namely behavioral aspects of nutrition There are two areas in which nutrition and behavior interact On the one hand mal nutrition may play a major role in determining behavior alternatively often aspects of behavior influence the eating habits of populations and individuals and thus affect their nutritional status Volume 5 of this series speaks eloquently to both features of this important topic Various aspects of the influence of behavior modification and nutrition have been explored by a number of qualified investigators It is hoped that this volume will prove a valuable addition to the subjects covered in the other volumes Roslyn B Alfin Slater David Kritchevsky Los Angeles and Philadelphia ix Contents Introduction The Challenge of Nutrition and Environment as Determinants of Behavioral Development Janina R Galler References 5 Part I Nutritional Deficiencies or Excesses Modifying Behavioral Outcome Chapter 1 Methodological Requirements for Conceptually Valid Research Studies on the Behavioral Effects of Malnutrition David E Barrett 1 Introduction 9 2 Statistical Conclusion Validity 11 3 Internal Validity 14 4 External Validity 16 5 Construct Validity of Putative Causes and Effects 19 6 Conclusions and Recommendations 28 An Inquiry Into

Well-being and Destitution Partha Dasgupta,1995 An interdisciplinary book by one of the most respected scholars in what is broadly development economics but encompasses the most recent insights from philosophical research and empirical work on resource allocation nutrition science and anthropology It has been widely recognized as a seminal work presenting a wide ranging description of the causes and remedies of poverty and undernourishment and addressing the current debate over methods of estimating their incidence

Toward a Comparative Institutional Analysis Masahiko Aoki,2023-12-26 A conceptual and analytical framework for understanding economic institutions and institutional change Markets are one of the most salient institutions produced by humans and economists have traditionally analyzed the workings of the market mechanism Recently however economists and others have begun to appreciate the many institution related events and phenomena that have a significant impact on economic performance Examples include the demise of the communist states the emergence of Silicon Valley and e commerce the European currency unification and the East Asian financial crises In this book Masahiko Aoki uses modern game theory to develop a conceptual and analytical framework for understanding issues related to economic institutions The wide ranging discussion considers how institutions evolve why their overall

arrangements are robust and diverse across economies and why they do or do not change in response to environmental factors such as technological progress global market integration and demographic change European Food and Nutrition Policies in Action Nancy Milio, Elisabet Helsing, 1998 This publication presents a vast array of experience insight and points of view on current issues in food and nutrition policy making across Europe National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), Genetic Factors In Nutrition Hector Bourges, 2012-12-02 Genetic Factors in Nutrition presents the proceedings of the International Workshop on Genetic Factors in Nutrition held in Teotihuacan Mexico on August 4-8 1982 The papers explore the link between genetics and nutrition in the context of biological evolution They provide examples of successful interaction between the two disciplines and consider some aspects of nutrient requirements as well as utilization and consideration of methodological approaches to evaluate nutritional status with an emphasis on malnutrition Divided into six parts encompassing 29 chapters this volume begins with an overview of genetics and nutrition from an evolutionary perspective citing findings among Amerindians It proceeds with a discussion of the potential application of genetic epidemiology in nutritional research nutrient requirements and metabolism the association between obesity and energy balance and assessment of nutritional status It also presents case studies of the correlation between genetics and nutrition before introducing the reader to genetic inheritance and growth in human groups suffering from chronic under nutrition Some data derived from nutrition longitudinal studies are analyzed to interpret the nutrition genetics interaction This book will be a valuable source of information for scientists and students in genetics and nutrition Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), Future Survey Annual 1983 Michael Marien, 1984-01-01 National Nutrition Policy: National Nutrition Policy Experiences, 1974 The 8 US nutritional policy articles include the development of nutrition services in comprehensive health care a US nutritional policy and program multidisciplinary personnel in nutritional health care services the current status and future trends in food and nutrition policy nutritional problems associated with changes in food consumption patterns the potential need for revision in US nutrition policy a model for national nutrition policy and the preliminary findings of the first US Health and Nutrition Examination Survey conducted in 1971-72 Summary data and illustrations are presented throughout the articles Data Needs for Food Policy in Developing Countries Joachim Von Braun, Detlev Puetz, 1993-01-01 This volume is an effort to enhance both directly and indirectly the benefits of information for poverty alleviation through more informed food policy This volume resulted from a multidisciplinary workshop held at the International Food Policy Research Institute in September 1992 It is divided into three parts food policy issues and new challenges for data strengths and weaknesses of different survey approaches for food policy design and data quality and design of survey modules
