Pioneers And Explorers In North America Their Own Words:

Pioneers and Explorers in North America, Their Own Words Stephen P. Tubbs,2002-05-01 This book is a collection of writings of early English speaking pioneers and explorers in North America Articles were taken from old books or internet copies of old books When possible articles were reproduced from facsimile copies of the original printings They are presented in chronological order oldest first The oldest being originally published in 1588 the newest in 1885 The authors wrote the articles in English With the exception of Audubon all were native born English speakers Of course there were many pioneers and explorers that didn't write or speak English However articles written in other languages are not included because the book's audience is English speaking and the goal of the book is to provide articles in the words of the authors not in the words of translators I have also not included writings that have been extensively edited corrected or rewritten The English of the oldest articles was different from our present English The older English used shapes for letters that we no longer use For example Hariot Bradford and Penn used long s's These long s's look disconcertingly similar to our present day f's Here these have been converted to present day s's It makes reading much easier Most old spellings misspellings and grammar have been left as they were Although it is harder to read the older English reading it will give a better taste of the authors original thoughts Also the reader might enjoy learning to speak and write as was done years ago Sense &

Nonsense in Australian History John Hirst,2015-01-29 Sense and Nonsense in Australian History represents a lifetime's original reflection by Australia's most innovative and penetrating historian Included here are classic essays on the pioneer legend Australian egalitarianism and colonial culture There are celebrated critiques of The Tyranny of Distance multiculturalism and nationalistic history as well as a substantial essay on Aboriginal dispossession and the history wars In Sense and Nonsense in Australian History John Hirst overturns familiar conceptions and deepens our sense of Australia's development from convict society to distinctive democracy John Hirst Chris Feik,2025-07-01 A historian like no other

John Hirst captured what is distinctive about Australia John Hirst was one of Australia's most original and substantial historians Hirst changed views of many aspects of the nation's history including the early days of the British colony the advent of democracy and the forging of Federation He had a sociological imagination of great power and the historian's gift of synthesising vast amounts of material and seeing new patterns and meanings This volume selects the cream of Hirst's historical essays as well as key excerpts from his books It contains three overviews of his work by Frank Bongiorno Robert Manne and Alex McDermott It shows how his writing allows us to understand Australia's past present and future in fresh ways Unthinking Eurocentrism Ella Shohat,Robert Stam,2013-09-27 This excellent book corrects eurocentric criticism from media studies in the past by examining Hollywood movie genres such as the western and the musical from a multicultural perspective

Explorer's Guide Berkshire Hills & Pioneer Valley of Western Massachusetts Christina Tree,William Davis,2011-06-27 This revised and updated guide provides the best lodging dining and activity suggestions for

New England's most inviting region for lovers of the arts Seasoned travel writers Christina Tree and William Davis tell you everything you need to know about this naturally beautiful and culturally rich region As they lead you across the Mohawk Trail and along scenic drives you'll visit must see performing arts festivals museums wineries antiques shops nature preserves and the best places to stay and to eat from 4 star restaurants to classic diners Mt. McKinley, the Pioneer Climbs Terris Moore,1981 In this book Terris Moore presents a dramatic account of man's contest with McKinley from initial explorations on into the 1940s With documented facts and a novelist's skills he tackles the mysteries and controversies surrounding many of the early expeditions There was the daring 1910 ascent of the North Peak by a group of Alaska sourdoughs who carried up a large pole to plant on the top only to discover later that there was another higher summit Perhaps the most widely discussed attempt was that of Arctic Explorer Dr Frederick Cook who tried to support his claim of victory in 1906 with faked photos Global/Local Rob Wilson,Wimal Dissanayake,1996-05-27 This groundbreaking collection focuses on what may be for cultural studies the most intriguing aspect of contemporary globalization the ways in which the postnational restructuring of the world in an era of transnational capitalism has altered how we must think about cultural production Mapping a new world space that is simultaneously more globalized and localized than before these essays examine the dynamic between the movement of capital images and technologies without regard to national borders and the tendency toward fragmentation of the world into increasingly contentious enclaves of difference ethnicity and resistance Ranging across issues involving film literature and theory as well as history politics economics sociology and anthropology these deeply interdisciplinary essays explore the interwoven forces of globalism and localism in a variety of cultural settings with a particular emphasis on the Asia Pacific region Powerful readings of the new image culture transnational film genre and the politics of spectacle are offered as is a critique of globalization as the latest guise of colonization Articles that unravel the complex links between the global and local in terms of the unfolding narrative of capital are joined by work that illuminates phenomena as diverse as yellow cab interracial sex in Japan machinic desire in Robocop movies and the Pacific Rim city An interview with Fredric Jameson by Paik Nak Chung on globalization and Pacific Rim responses is also featured as is a critical afterword by Paul Bov Positioned at the crossroads of an altered global terrain this volume the first of its kind analyzes the evolving transnational imaginary the full scope of contemporary cultural production by which national identities of political allegiance and economic regulation are being undone and in which imagined communities are being reshaped at both the global and local levels of everyday existence Methodists and their Missionary Societies 1760-1900 John Pritchard,2016-04-22 Methodism played an important part in the spread of Christianity from its European heartlands to the Americas Asia Africa and the Pacific From John Wesley's initial reluctance via haphazard ventures and over ambitious targets a well organized and supported Wesleyan Society developed Smaller branches of British Methodism undertook their own foreign missions This book together with a companion volume on the 20th century offers an account of the overseas mission activity of British and Irish Methodists its roots and fruits John Pritchard explores many aspects of mission ranging from Labrador to New Zealand and from Sierra Leone to Sri Lanka from open air preaching to political engagement from the isolation of early pioneers to the creation of self governing churches Tracing the nineteenth century missionary work of the Churches with Wesleyan roots which went on to unite in 1932 Pritchard explores the shifting theologies and attitudes of missionaries who crossed cultural and geographical frontiers as well as those at home who sent and supported them

Necessarily selective in the personalities and events it describes this book offers a comprehensive overview of a world changing movement a story packed with heroism mistakes achievements frustrations arguments personalities rascals and saints 100 Maps John O. E. Clark, 2005 Presents a chronological overview of the history of cartography from the earliest maps of prehistory to the engraved maps of the seventeenth century and beyond Includes illustrations

Pioneer Aviators Frank Hitchens, 2023-11-22 Pioneer Aviators records the various stages of man's journey into the skies taking the reader from the earliest years of experimentation through the early age of ballooning into heavier than air flight our ventures into space and even all the way back around to modern human powered vessels The book introduces the reader to almost three hundred aviation pioneers and the aircraft they flew and is illustrated throughout with photographs mostly from the author's own collection Due to the historical importance of these aircraft and as a tribute to those who flew them many are now housed in museums across the world Without the efforts and sacrifices of the pioneers we would not have the aviation industry of today The empire of nature John M. MacKenzie, 2017-03-01 This study assesses the significance of the hunting cult as a major element of the imperial experience in Africa and Asia Through a study of the game laws and the beginnings of conservation in the 19th and early 20th centuries the author demonstrates the racial inequalities which existed between Europeans and indigenous hunters Africans were denied access to game and the development of game reserves and national parks accelerated this process Indigenous hunters in Africa and India were turned into poachers and only Europeans were permitted to hunt In India the hunting of animals became the chief recreation of military officers and civilian officials a source of display and symbolic dominance of the environment Imperial hunting fed the natural history craze of the day and many hunters collected trophies and specimens for private and public collections as well as contributing to hunting literature Adopting a radical approach to issues of conservation this book links the hunting cult in Africa and India to the development of conservation and consolidates widely scattered material on the importance of hunting to the economics and nutrition of African societies The language of empire Robert Macdonald, 2017-03-01 The debate about the Empire dealt in idealism and morality and both sides employed the language of feeling and frequently argued their case in dramatic terms This book opposes two sides of the Empire first as it was presented to the public in Britain and second as it was experienced or imagined by its subjects abroad British imperialism was nurtured by such upper middle class institutions as the public schools the wardrooms and officers messes and the conservative press The attitudes of 1916 can best be recovered through a reconstruction of a poetics of popular imperialism The case study of Rhodesia demonstrates the almost instant application of myth and sign to a contemporary imperial crisis Rudyard Kipling was acknowledged throughout the English speaking world not only as a wonderful teller of stories but as the singer of Greater Britain or as the Laureate of Empire In the last two decades of the nineteenth century the Empire gained a beachhead in the classroom particularly in the coupling of geography and history The Island Story underlined that stories of heroic soldiers and fights for the flag were easier for teachers to present to children than lessons in morality or abstractions about liberty and responsible government The Education Act of 1870 had created a need for standard readers in schools readers designed to teach boys and girls to be useful citizens The Indian Mutiny was the supreme test of the imperial conscience a measure of the morality of the master nation

Writing the Pioneer Woman Janet Floyd, 2002 Focusing on a series of autobiographical texts published and private well known and obscure Writing the Pioneer Woman examines the writing of domestic life on the nineteenth century North American frontier In an attempt to determine the meanings found in the pioneer woman s everyday writings from records of recipes to descriptions of washing floors Janet Floyd explores domestic details in the autobiographical writing of British and Anglo American female emigrants
