A Place Like This Mark S. King, 2007 Once you've won a car on a game show been an actor owned a phone sex company been infected with HIV slept with a movie icon and developed a drug addiction you've pretty much done the Hollywood thing In this true first person account of the 1980's Los Angeles transforms an all American boy from an actor in commercials plugging fast food to a gay phone line worker pushing fast sex King experiences firsthand nearly every gay social milestone of an astonishing decade drug use the phone sex trade the onset of AIDS Rock Hudson assisted suicide anonymous encounters the early development of AIDS organizations and activism Magic Johnson's announcement and shares his experiences with disarming humor and startling candor AIDS eventually converts King's plunge into sex and drugs to an increasing awareness of mortality and a renewed search for meaning

Place Like This Steven Herrick, 2017-01-03 A special reissue of a bestselling Australian classic from award winning author Steven Herrick Jack and Annabel have been dating for two years With high school over they're about to start university until Jack decides to chuck it all in I think you and Annabel should get out of here as fast as possible Have a year doing anything you want My going away present is enough money to buy a car a cheap old one okay You'll have to work somewhere to buy the petrol and to keep going But go No destination in mind Jack and Annabel leave town and discover themselves in a place they never knew existed An inspiring verse novel about the pursuit of dreams and the realities of life A Place Like This was shortlisted for the CBCA Book of the Year Older Readers and New South Wales Premier's Literary Awards and commended in the Victorian Premier's Literary Award Sheaffer Pen Prize for Young Adult Fiction A story as crisp and fresh as an apple as sweet and sharp as life itself Australian Book Review

No Place Like Home James Bird, 2023-08-08 A middle grade novel by James Bird about homelessness and hope When home is a car life is unpredictable School friends and three meals a day aren't guaranteed Not every town has a shelter where a family can sleep for a night or two and places with parking lots don't welcome overnight stays Opin his brother Emjay and their mother are trying to get to Los Angeles where they hope an uncle and a new life are waiting Emjay has taken to disappearing for days slowing down the family's progress and adding to their worry Then Opin finds a stray dog who needs him as much as he needs her and his longing for a stable home intensifies as his brother's reckless ways hit a new high Opin makes a new friend in the shelter but shelters don't allow dogs Will anything other than a real home ever be enough

A Place Like Mississippi W. Ralph Eubanks, 2021-03-16 This is the book all of us Mississippi writers dead and alive need to read It is indeed a strange but glorious sensation to see your literary and geographic lineage so beautifully and rigorously explored and valued as it's still being created Kiese Laymon author of Heavy An American Memoir The South has produced some of America's most celebrated authors and no state more so than Mississippi Names as diverse as Faulkner Welty and Ward have created a literary legacy spanning decades and stretching across lines of class gender and race One thing binds together these wide ranging perspectives the land itself In A Place Like Mississippi W Ralph

Eubanks explores those ties and the ways in which the Magnolia State has fostered such a bounty of expression The stories haven't always been easy to tell even beautiful landscapes can't obscure a complicated history The state's African American writers have long recounted the fight for equality forming a lineage of powerful Black voices that continue to speak with urgency in our tumultuous times Yet underlying those truths is also a deep affection for Mississippi's places With the love of a native son Eubanks pays tribute to the inspiration that can come from the lay of the land proving that a journey through one state's literary terrain can help us better understand America as a whole No Place Like Home Brian J.

McCabe, 2016-03-18 In the decade following the housing crisis Americans remain enthusiastic about the prospect of owning a home Homeownership is a symbol of status attainment in the United States and for many Americans buying a home is the most important financial investment they will ever make We are deeply committed to an ideology of homeownership that presents homeownership as a tool for building stronger communities and crafting better citizens However in No Place Like Home Brian McCabe argues that such beliefs about the public benefits of homeownership are deeply mischaracterized As owning a home has emerged as the most important way to build wealth in the United States it has also reshaped the way citizens become involved in their communities Rather than engaging as public spirited stewards of civic life McCabe demonstrates that homeowners often engage in their communities as a way to protect their property values This involvement contributes to the politics of exclusion and prevents particular citizens from gaining access to high opportunity neighborhoods thereby reinforcing patterns of residential segregation A thorough analysis of the politics of homeownership No Place Like Home prompts readers to reconsider the power of homeownership to strengthen citizenship and build better communities

No Place Like Home Bohdan S. Kordan, 2025-04-29 No Place Like Home chronicles a little known episode in Canada's national history when internment was first employed during the Great War under the War Measures Act Highlighting the problem of immigrant fit and belonging Bohdan Kordan shows how legal political and cultural frameworks modelled an understanding of the role and place of immigrants originating from enemy lands and how amid the economic social and political uncertainties of war internment as an instrument of security policy and a political choice altered the lives of thousands of innocent people No Place Like Home brings to the fore new perspectives on both Canadian internment and the role and responsibility of government in war Focusing on the status of enemy aliens and the blurring of the military civilian distinction the book also takes a broader social view of the period and offers a critical assessment of the various camp experiences Kordan articulates how internment truly known only to those who endured it can still have deeper meaning as shared history and enlists compelling reasons to comprehend and honour it No Place Like Home David

Staples, 2007-11-21 No Place Like Home examines the emergence of home based women workers as paradigmatic figures of contemporary capitalism neoliberal governmentality and socio political contestation Far from an isolated or contingent situation home based work constitutes today an enormous arena of invisible social and political struggles of subaltern and

ethno racially subordinated women No Place Like Home Todd Stone,2005-03 It s tough to solve a dead cop s murder when there s no hard evidence it s tougher still when the cops don t want to believe the crime ever happened It gets even more difficult when small town politicians fight scorched earth turf wars and when a high priced well connected crime consultant sets you up to take the rap for not only that crime but a half dozen other homicides as well even a former FBI profiler and black Ops agent can find himself backed into a deadly corner When a respected cop is found naked and dead in a sleazy motel emotionally battered FBI profiler turned reluctant PI Jonathan Kraag sets out to clear the dead man s reputation The trail leads Kraag to homicide cases hot and cold and behind wholesome fa ades to the dark seamy underside of suburban life Scorned by infighting local politicians hunted by local law enforcement and with no tangible evidence to support his claims Kraag risks his life and fragile sanity as he pits his deductive skills against a vicious manipulative killer who seems to hold all the trump cards and to have a hold on his heart No Place Like Home Jerri Garretson,2023-08-21 Jerri Garretson lived a total of 33 years in Manhattan Kansas in three periods This book features 55 topics about life in the years she was growing up there plus 13 mini biographies of teachers and neighbors that were important in her life It is illustrated with over 800 photos of people places and events and even everyday objects most of us no longer use To assist readers unfamiliar with Manhattan she has included maps and to anchor local events to the nation and the world there is a timeline The book is thoroughly indexed Though many dates and events are mentioned it is not a history of the city but rather an entertaining account about the way of life in that time and place Please be aware that this is a 298 page heavily illustrated book in the same fixed format as the printed book As such it is a download of about large download of approximately 227 MB and will take much longer to download than a novel in flowing format that has no illustrations No Place Like Murder Janis Thornton,2020-09-29 This engrossing collection of historical Midwest murders reads like a thriller True crime at its best I couldn t put it down Susan Furlong author of the Bone Gap Travellers novels A modern retelling of 20 sensational true crimes No Place Like Murder reveals the inside details behind nefarious acts that shocked the Midwest between 1869 and 1950 The stories chronicle the misdeeds examining the perpetrators mindsets motives lives apprehensions and trials as well as what became of them long after True crime author Janis Thornton profiles notorious murderers such as Frankie Miller who was fed up when her fianc stood her up for another woman As fans of the song Frankie and Johnny already know Frankie met her former lover at the door with a shotgun Thornton s tales reveal the darker side of life in the Midwest including the account of Isabelle Messmer a plucky young woman who dreamed of escaping her quiet farm town life After she nearly took down two tough Pittsburgh policemen in 1933 she was dubbed Gun Girl and went on to make headlines from coast to coast In 1942 however after a murder conviction in Texas she vowed to do her time and go straight Full of intrigue and revelations No Place Like Murder also features such folks as Chirka and Rasico the first two Hoosier men to die in the electric chair after they brutally murdered their wives in 1913 The two didn t meet until their fateful last night An enthralling and chilling collection No Place Like Murder is sure to thrill true crime lovers Thornton wittily describes heretofore unheralded true crime stories from Indiana's small towns Keven McQueen author of Horror in the Heartland No Place Like Home Dee Romito, 2017-09-19 Includes an excerpt from Best Night Ever No Place Like Home Mary Higgins Clark, 2011-11-29 Liza Barclay aged 10 shot her mother while trying to protect her from her violent stepfather ex FBI agent Charley Foster Despite her stepfather's claim that it was a deliberate act the Juvenile Court ruled the death an accident Many people however agreed with Foster and tabloids compared Liza to the infamous murderess Lizzie Borden pointing even to the similarity in name Growing up with adoptive parents who tried to erase every trace of her past her name is changed to Celia Always though the fear hung over her and the family that someday her vengeful stepfather would reappear to harm her Aged 25 a successful interior designer she marries a childless sixty year old widower and they have a son Before their marriage she had confided her earlier life to her husband Two years on on his deathbed he tells her that he would want her to re marry but makes her swear never to reveal her past to anyone so that their son would not carry the burden of this family tragedy a promise that plunges her into a new cycle of violence Three years later happily re married Celia is shocked when her second husband presents her with a gift the house where she killed her mother When the real estate agent who has made the sale recognises her and soon after is murdered Celia is accused of the crime Once again she is home the place where she is stamped as a murderess No Place Like Home Sonja Dechian, Eva Sallis, 2005 Following the success of Dark Dreams Australian refugee stories this extraordinary collection of stories creates a narrative picture of Australians past and present It is also a mosaic of journeys for we are all displaced peoples or the descendants of displaced peoples whether we are from Indigenous settler migrant or refugee families A Place Like Home W. David Wills, 2021-11-07 The late David Wills spent a lifetime in the service of the so called delinquent the misfit the maladjusted He was the first Englishman to train as a psychiatric social worker and was well known for his books The Hawkspur Experiment The Barns Experiment etc Originally published in 1970 this book describes another experiment with a hostel for boys leaving schools for maladjusted children and lacking any settled home from which to enter the community It demonstrates once again David Wills's conviction that the offender wants to be good and will be helped by affection rather than by punishment Yet it is obvious that the work was full of stress and that only people with some of the attributes of archangels could respond to the boys needs and remain in control of the situation The book demonstrates the extent of deprivation suffered by such young people and that no ordinary hostels or lodgings will do if they are to be set upon a less turbulent course of life leading to truly adult independence It added greatly to our understanding of the personalities experience of life and needs of maladjusted boys in their teens at the time although the lessons drawn from it were disturbing in relation both to prevention and treatment The penetration of David Wills's assessment is beyond doubt and as Dame Eileen Young husband concludes in her Foreword his book will give a great deal to those trying in various capacities to help boys and girls who otherwise would grow into adulthood permanently
