Violence against Women in Families and Relationships Eve S. Buzawa, Evan Stark, 2009-06-08 This comprehensive overview of domestic violence against women and children in America covers the services meant to combat it the legal approaches to prosecuting it the public s attitudes toward it and the successes and failures of systems meant to address it The fight to end domestic violence consists of community based services for battered women laws and policies to combat the problem a broad spectrum of frequently innovative programs to protect or otherwise support abused women and children a dramatic shift in media portrayals of violence against women and a growing public critique of unacceptable forms of power and control in relationships These volumes offer another weapon in that battle Violence against Women in Families and Relationships takes stock of all of the ways in which legislation programs and services and even public attitudes have impacted victims offenders and communities over the last few decades Contributors pay special attention to how race class and cultural differences affect the experience of abuse They explore the efficacy of interventions and they provide compelling real life examples to illustrate issues and challenges Our society has made an enormous investment in stopping abuse in families and relationships but numerous questions still remain Many of those questions are answered in these pages as experts uncover the realities of domestic violence and the toll it takes on families individuals communities and society at large

Managing High Risk Sex Offenders in the Community Karen Harrison, 2010-03-01 Sex offenders and in particular paedophiles have been the subject of much political and media attention producing intensive debates about the best way of dealing with them This book explores these issues evaluating the measures in use or being considered including drug treatment MAPPA the use of the Sex Offender Register restorative justice techniques and treatment programmes It is concerned with high risk sex offenders both when they are sentenced to a community order and also when they are released back into the community after a custodial sentence The introductory section opens with a discussion on how terms such as paedophilia are constructed and viewed and then looks at how government policy regarding sex offending has developed over recent years Section two looks at issues concerned with risk management questioning whether enough is being done to monitor the risk that high risk offenders pose when released into society whilst section three on risk reduction covers the main methods of treatment including sex offender treatment programmes pharmacotherapy chemical castration and restorative and reintegration techniques Section Four focuses on specific offender groups including female sexual offenders sexual harm by youth mentally disordered sexual offenders and intellectual disabled offenders These assess in what ways these offenders are different to the norm and look at how we should be dealing and treating these differences The final section looks at social and moral responsibilities including the patterns prevention and protection of cyber sex offences and media constructions of and reactions to paedophilia In the final chapter the concept of dignity is addressed and the balance between community protection and the rights of sex offenders involved is evaluated

Putting Women Up: Gender Equality and Politics in Myanmar Netina Tan, Meredith L Weiss, 2024-02-02 For the duration of Myanmar s experiment with electoral democracy why did some women run for political office and not others What role did gatekeepers such as party leaders play in those decisions and using what criteria in selecting candidates How did experience of domestic violence or harassment affect women s likelihood to participate in politics especially beyond the local level And what implications might these earlier patterns have for a post coup Myanmar should meaningful elections be restored The contributors to Putting Women Up Gender Equality and Politics in Myanmar answer these questions by examining the internal politics of nine political parties in Myanmar and both men s and women s attitudes towards and experiences of political leadership Drawing on extensive interview survey and focus group discussion data collected from across Myanmar in 2017 and 2020 this book offers a mixed methods approach to explain how factors from party rules to formative personal trauma to patriarchal biases to ethno religious context shape women s and men s likelihood to join local and national politics The findings expand on culturalist insights on gender inequality to provide context sensitive evidence backed policy recommendations to promote women s political leadership despite militarization and violence in post coup Myanmar
