Practical Knowledge of the Soul Eugen Rosenstock-Huessy, 2015-11-10 When Thomas Paine exclaimed These are the times that try men s souls Rosenstock Huessy noted Paine did not mean men s bodies or men s minds And we know it In this book devoted to knowledge of that mysterious entity soul which neither philosophers nor psychologists will have anything to do with Rosenstock Huessy gives soul essential practical meaning Without recourse to anything mystical or transcendental or merely poetic he assures us of the reality of the individual soul for healthy human beings and connects it to his larger work on an entirely new grammar that elevates to primacy the imperative and vocative forms of speech Rosenstock Huessy makes us aware as few other writers can do of the limitations inherent in the structure of the natural and social sciences how much is blindly left out for the sake of adhering strictly to materialist and quantitative methods In any lifetime there are profound transformations of one s soul which a correct analysis of grammar true to human experience helps us recognize and appreciate As he states here The grammar of the soul is not an ineffectual luxury The disclosure of the miraculous world of the soul by a grammar based on the primal forms will create an applied study of the soul that should assume its place next to the modern era s technical natural science

Counseling and Community Rod Wilson, 2003-04 Traditionally counseling has focused primarily on the individual overlooking the interaction between the community and the individual Wilson has created a biblically based counseling model that anchors the individual within the community The result is a perspective that encompasses all aspects of a person s life where the community becomes a helper in the counseling process The thesis of this book is tied to the assumption that we need a counseling approach that is community oriented rather than exclusively focused on the individual When this is the case we will be able to appreciate the biblical emphasis on the people of God While he prizes a relationship with individuals God s heart is with a body a fellowship a community Both pastors and private counselors need to reaffirm the priority of community and its power in the healing process Rod Wilson PhD York University is President and Professor of Counselling
