Practicing Gospel Unconventional Thoughts On The Church's Ministry:

Practicing Gospel Edward Farley, 2003-01-01 Practicing Gospel is a collection of four new and eight previously published essays on the subjects of practical theology, homiletics and worship, Christian education and pastoral care. Edward Farley offers a more faithful approach to the tasks of ministry for seminarians and pastors too often tempted to equate pastoral care with popular psychology, good preaching with snappy public speaking or Christian education with flashy curriculum. By holding theology and practice in an inescapable partnership, Farley rightly refocuses the church's life on its proper object and subject: a mysterious transforming God. What Really Matters Jonas Idestrom, Tone Stangeland Kaufman, 2018-06-11

This volume is about ecclesiology and ethnography and what really matters in such academic work. How does material from field studies matter in a theological conversation? How does theology in various forms matter in analysis and interpretation of field work material? How does method matter? The authors draw on their research experiences and engage in conversations concerning reflexivity, normativity and representation in qualitative theological work. The role and responsibility of the researcher is addressed from various perspectives in the first part of the book. In the next section the authors discuss ways in which empirical studies are able to disrupt the implicit and explicit normativity of ecclesial traditions and also how theological traditions and perspectives can inform the interpretation of empirical data. The final part of the book focuses on the process of creating the stuff that represents the ecclesial context under study. What Really Matters is written to serve students and researchers in the field of ecclesiology and ethnography, systematic and practical theology and especially those who work empirically or ethnographically, broadly speaking. The book might be particularly helpful to those who deal with questions of methodology in these academic disciplines. This volume offers perspectives that grow out of the Scandinavian context yet it seeks to participate in and contribute to a scholarly conversation that goes beyond this particular location.

Places of Redemption Mary McClintock Fulkerson, 2010-08-19 The primary aim of this book is to explore the contradiction between widely shared beliefs in the USA about racial inclusiveness and equal opportunity for all and the fact that most churches are racially homogeneous and do not include people with disabilities. To address the problem, Mary McClintock Fulkerson explores the practices of an interracial church, United Methodist, that includes people with disabilities. The analysis focuses on those activities which create opportunities for people to experience those who are different as equal in ways that diminish both obliviousness to the other and fear of the other. In contrast with theology's typical focus on the beliefs of Christians, this project offers a theory of practices and place that foregrounds the instinctual reactions and communications that shape all groups. The effect is to broaden the academic field of theology through the benefits of ethnographic research and postmodern place theory. Living In-Between André Resner, 2015-11-04 The community of faith finds itself located precariously between Jesus' first and second comings, between the promise and fulfillment, between what God has begun in the gospel and what God has yet to complete. It thus finds itself proclaiming a gospel of life, love, hope.

and faith in a world more characterized by death hate despair and fear The gospel insists that Jesus death has shut the door on the age of violence and death even as his resurrection has opened the door on the Age of Shalom and life But in this tense in between time those conflicting ages overlap and the church struggles against powers and experiences that mock its message Drawing on resources from the New Testament's vision of the apocalyptic gospel Andre Resner urges the church and its preachers to engage in the linguistic practices of lament and proclamation as well as the embodied practices of justice making and justice keeping as counter testimony to those powers that have been served notice in Jesus life death and resurrection that their end is near The reflections offered here model the kind of honest speech and risk of life to which the gospel calls its adherents

Urban Ecclesiology Pascal D. Bazzell, 2015-05-21 Pascal D Bazzell brings the marginal ecclesiology of a Filipino ecclesial community facing homelessness FECH into contemporary ecclesiological conversation in order to deepen the ecumenical understanding of today's ecclesial reality He contributes relevant data to support a theory of an ecclesial oriented paradigm that fosters ecclesial communities within homeless populations There is an extensive dialogue occurring between ecclesiologies church planting theories or urban missions and the urban poor Yet the situation with the homeless population is almost entirely overlooked The majority of urban mission textbooks do not acknowledge an ecclesial oriented state of being and suggest that the street level environment is a place where no discipleship can occur and no church should exist By presenting the FECH's case study Bazzell emphasizes that it is possible to live on the streets and to grow in the faith of God as an ecclesial community To be able to describe the FECH's ecclesial narrative Bazzell develops a local ecclesiological methodology that aims to bridge the gap between more traditional systematic and theoretical ideal ecclesiology and practical oriented ecclesiology e.g congregational studies in order to hold together theological and social understandings of the church in its local reality He articulates a theological framework for the FECH to reflect on who they are the essence of identity studies who they are in relationship to God the essence of theological studies and what that means for believers in that community as they relate to God and to each other in ways that are true to who they are and to who God intends them to be the essence of ecclesial studies The research provides a seldom heard empirical tour into the FECH's social world and communal identity The theological findings from the FECH's hermeneutical work on the Gospel of Mark reveal an understanding of church being developed as gathering around Jesus that creates a space for God's presence to be embodied in their ordinary relationships and activities and to invite others to participate in that gathering Moreover it addresses ecclesial issues of the supernatural world honor shame values and further develop the neglected image of the familia Dei in classical ecclesiology that encapsulates well the FECH's nature mission and place

Homiletical Theology in Action David Schnasa Jacobsen,2015-11-17 Homiletics is taking a theological turn But what does the preaching task look like if we think of it not so much as a mastery of technique but an exercise in theological method Homiletical Theology in Action The Unfinished Theological Task of Preaching tries to envision the work of homiletics as theological in root and branch By placing theological questions at the center of the process the authors some of the leading lights of the field of homiletics try to show how their work as preachers and homileticians is a thoroughgoing theological activity By beginning with troublesome texts and problematic doctrines they seek to show how preachers and homileticians engage in theology not as consumers but as producers and in the thick of the kinds of questions that preachers have to ask Practitioners and theological educators alike will catch a glimpse of how they too are residential theologians in their own preaching praxis

Singing and Suffering with the Servant David M. Stark,2022-10-10 The Old Testament is transformed from problem to ally when preachers attend to power at work in ancient and modern contexts by mirroring Second Isaiah s proclamation listening to contemporary servant Israel and learning from African American preaching in context of domination This book analyses the impact of domination on Old Testament proclamation and thus leads to several unique contributions Firstly it reads Second Isaiah as a homiletic model for proclaiming older pre exilic texts in response to exilic domination Secondly it treats the Old Testament as a rich resource for confronting racism and anti-Semitism through teaching and it introduces contemporary Christian Jewish dialogue in Germany as a model for the Church Lastly it highlights preaching traditions within the African American Church as instructive for formulating an effective Old Testament preaching strategy

Preaching and the Mission of God David R. Fields, 2023-03-16 In an age divided and skeptical when the true Christian story is often unknown or deeply misunderstood how do we even begin to share the news of Jesus And how might preaching in a local church both equip God's people for their missional task and speak in a way that a weary world can hear and even rejoice in The answer begins with seeing the Bible as a document developed in a missionary context for a missionary purpose This book starts there It begins by examining the Bible as a document of mission that needs to be interpreted through a missional lens It then moves to offer a mission shaped vision for preaching and the needed tools for contextualizing the gospel in our post Christendom setting You'll find short accessible chapters with personal reflection questions as well as three group discussion sections ideal for either a classroom setting a preaching team in a local church or a preacher's guild

Preaching Prophetic Care Phillis Isabella Sheppard, Dawn Ottoni-Wilhelm, Ronald J. Allen, 2018-06-25 Preachers often think of prophetic preaching in the caricature of the prophet as the lonely outsider confronting the congregation often angrily with the congregation's complicity in social injustice and with a bracing call for repentance The twenty-seven essays and sermons in this book offer a different perspective by viewing prophetic preaching specifically and ministry practical theology and theological education more broadly as pastoral care for the community in prophetic perspective Such preaching does indeed bring a critical theological analysis of justice concerns to the center of the sermon but in such a way as to invite the congregation to consider how the move toward justice is a pastoral move that is a move that seeks to build up community Rather than contributing to the polarization so rampant in today's social world the preacher seeks to help the congregation build bridges along which concern for justice can travel The contributions honor the work of the late Dale Andrews a scholar of preaching and practical theology at the Divinity School Vanderbilt University whose seminal work inspires the notions of prophetic care and building bridges to justice With contributions from Donna Allen L Susan Bond Teresa Fry Brown Gennifer Brooks Teresa Eisenlohr Anna Carter Florence Kenyatta Gilbert R Mark Giuliano David Schnasa Jacobsen John McClure Mary Elizabeth Moore Mary Alice Mulligan Debra Mumford Peter Paris Luke Powery Shelly Rambo Lee Ramsey Robert London Smith Amy Steele Frank A Thomas Lisa Thompson Scott Williamson Sunggu Yang Ted A Smith William B McClain

For Life Abundant Dorothy C. Bass, Craig Dykstra, 2008-04-29 Bass and Dykstra have written extensively and collaboratively on Christian Practices arguing that the what Christians have done faithfully over time constitutes a life-giving way of life and that this living of Christianity is more primary to what it means to be Christian than doctrinal confession that our confessions spring from faithful living rather than the other way around This book contains numerous essays that take up the question of Christian Practices and ministry the preparation of ministers theological education etc in a post Enlightenment understanding of the relationship of practice and head knowledge Because the book is the result of a community conversation it doesn't have a clear thesis but it models its conviction that reflection on theology arises from community conversation around our life in discipleship together An extremely helpful beginning to a conversation about ministry practices of faith clergy preparation etc as the time has come to integrate the kind of learning that comes in the classroom with the kind that only comes from living the faith with others Amazon.com

Making Sadza With Deaf Zimbabwean Women Kirk VanGilder, 2012-09-12 Missiological calls for self-theologizing among faith communities present the field of practical theology with a challenge to develop methodological approaches that address the complexities of cross-cultural practical theological research Although a variety of approaches can be considered critical-correlative practical theology existing methods are often built on assumptions that limit their use in subaltern contexts Kirk VanGilder addresses these concerns by analyzing existing theological methodologies with sustained attention to a community of Deaf Zimbabwean women struggling to develop their own agency in relation to child-rearing practices He explores a variety of theological approaches from practical theology mission-oriented theologians theology among Deaf communities and African women's theology in relationship to the challenges presented by subaltern communities such as Deaf Zimbabwean women Rather than frame a comprehensive methodology VanGilder proposes attitudes and guideposts to reorient practical theological researchers who wish to engender self-theologizing agency in subaltern communities
