Practising Feminism Identity Difference And Power:

Practising Feminism Nickie Charles, Felicia Hughes-Freeland, 1996 In Practising Feminisms contributors drawn from a range of backgrounds in anthropology sociology and social psychology explore different ways of practising feminism and their effect on gendered identities The contributors examine feminism and gender differences between different countries various feminist practices the call for the recognition of heterosexuality as a politicised identity and the practical role of feminism in nationalist struggles and finally methodological implications of feminist practices They show women to be different and that different structural influences come into play to make them different But women are not so different that a feminist politics or understanding is invalid Practising Feminisms is an important contribution to the neglected middle ground between post modern deconstructions of difference and identity and continued feminist concern with grounded power relations and the validity of experience

Deconstructing Feminist Psychology Erica Burman, 1998-01-12 How close is feminist psychology to contemporary feminism How can feminist psychological practice address issues of difference between women in meaningful ways What price has feminist psychology had to pay for attempting to engage with mainstream psychology to revise and improve it This book critiques feminist practice within psychology and reflects the diversity from across the globe of feminist struggles around psychology An international group of key feminist psychologists explore the relations between feminist politics and psychological practices in transitional and postcolonial contexts the distinct European traditions of critical psychology and women s studies and psychology s colonial centre in the United

Black British Feminism Heidi Safia Mirza, 1997 Black British Feminism A Reader is a unique collection of classic texts and new black feminist scholarship Exploring postmodern themes of gendered and racialized exclusion black identity and social and cultural difference this volume provides an overview of black feminism in Britain as it has developed during the last two decades Among the topics covered are white feminism political activism mixed race identity class differences cultural hybridity autobiography black beauty religious fundamentalism national belonging lesbian identity postcolonial space popular culture This timely and important book is essential reading for students and scholars of cultural studies women s studies sociology literature and postcolonial studies

Autobiography and the Construction of Identity and Community in the Middle East NA NA, 2016-04-30 Ranging from the early modern period to the present day this edited collection uses biography as a window into the history of the Arab Islamic Middle East The contributors reinterpret the lives of the famous such as George Antonius and Doria Shafiq and rediscover the lives of individuals previously consigned to the margins of history including the notorious individuals of 17th century Syria and the 20th century Palestinian activist Kulthum Auda The book also draws on the biographical tradition of Arab historical writing including biographical dictionaries for an understanding of the region s social and cultural history Interdisciplinary in scope and theoretically informed this volume brings to light individual lives which are essential to an understanding of Middle Eastern history

Birthing Autonomy

Nadine Edwards,2013-04-03 Birthing Autonomy brings some balance to the difficult arguments that arise from debates about home births and focuses on women s views and their experiences of planning home births It provides an in depth exploration of how women make decisions about home births and what aspects matter most to them Comparing how differently the pros and cons of home births are constructed and contemplated by mothers and by the medical profession the book looks at how current obstetric thinking and practices can disempower and harm women emotionally and spiritually as well as physically Written in an accessible style this book is enlightening for student and practicing midwives and obstetricians as well as researchers and students of nursing medical sociology health studies gender studies feminist practitioners and theorists It will also be invaluable to expectant mothers who want to be more informed about the choices they are facing and the wider context within which their birth options are considered Eating and Believing David Grumett,Rachel Muers,2011-11-03

What are the links between people s beliefs and the foods they choose to eat In the modern Western world dietary choices are a topic of ethical and political debate but how can centuries of Christian thought and practice also inform them And how do reasons for abstaining from particular foods in the modern world compare with earlier ones This book will shed new light on modern vegetarianism and related forms of dietary choice by situating them in the context of historic Christian practice It will show how the theological significance of embodied practice may be retrieved and reconceived in the present day Food and diet is a neglected area of Christian theology and Christianity is conspicuous among the modern world s religions in having few dietary rules or customs Yet historically food and the practices surrounding it have significantly shaped Christian lives and identities This collection prepared collaboratively includes contributions on the relationship between Christian beliefs and food practices in specific historical contexts It considers the relationship between eating and believing from non Christian perspectives that have in turn shaped Christian attitudes and practices It also examines ethical arguments about vegetarianism and their significance for emerging Christian theologies of food Defending Our Dreams Shamillah

Wilson,Anasuya Sengupta,Kristy Evans,2005-10 This book brings together analyses by feminists of diverse identities on themes including women s rights and economic change new technologies sexuality feminist organizations and movements It presents key issues arising out of the experiences of young women living in both North and South the challenges confronting young feminists and the agenda for a new era of feminist leadership and activism Political Opportunities Social Movements, and Democratization Patrick G. Coy,2001-08-02 Presents a series of papers that discuss political opportunity and social movements This book includes case studies of specific social movements comparative case studies of social movements and comparative case studies of transnational issue networks Gender and Political Identities in Scotland,

1919-1939 Annmarie Hughes,2010-05-15 This work offers a unique contribution to gender and Scottish history breaking new ground on several fronts there is no history of inter war women in Scotland very little labour or popular political history and virtually nothing published on women the home and family This book is a history of women in the period which integrates class and gender history as well as linking the public and private spheres Using a gendered approach to history it transforms and shifts our knowledge of the Scottish past unearthing the previously unexplored role which women played in inter war socialist politics the General Strike and popular political protest It re evaluates these areas and demonstrates the ways in which gender shaped the experience of class and class struggle Importantly the book also explores the links between the public and private spheres and addresses the concept of masculinity as well as femininity and pays particular reference to domestic violence The strength of the book is the ways in which it illuminates the complex interconnections of culture and economic and social structure Although the research is based on Scottish evidence it also uses material to address key debates in gender history and labour history which have wider relevance and will appeal to gender historians labour historians and social and cultural historians as well as social scientists

Philosophy and the Sciences of Exercise, Health and Sport Mike McNamee, 2004-06 This investigation into the rationale and validity of prevailing research methodologies used in sport exercise and health science calls on researchers to reflect critically on the nature and aims of scientific enquiry in these disciplines

Power, Knowledge and Feminist Scholarship Maria do Mar Pereira, 2017-02-10 Feminist scholarship is sometimes dismissed as not quite proper knowledge it s too political or subjective many argue But what are the boundaries of proper knowledge Who defines them and how are they changing How do feminists negotiate them And how does this boundary work affect women s and gender studies and its scholars and students lives These are the questions tackled by this ground breaking ethnography of academia inspired by feminist epistemology Foucault and science and technology studies Drawing on data collected over a decade in Portugal and the UK US and Scandinavia this title explores different spaces of academic work and sociability considering both official discourse and corridor talk It links epistemic negotiations to the shifting political economy of academic labour and situates the smallest but fiercest departmental negotiations within global relations of unequal academic exchange Through these links this timely volume also raises urgent questions about the current state and status of gender studies and the mood of contemporary academia Indeed its sobering yet uplifting discussion of that mood offers fresh insight into what it means to produce feminist work within neoliberal cultures of academic performativity demanding increasing productivity As the first book to analyse how academics talk publicly or in off the record humour about feminist scholarship Power Knowledge and Feminist Scholarship is essential reading for scholars and students in gender studies LGBTQ studies post colonial studies STS sociology and education Winner of the FWSA 2018 Book Prize competition The Open Access version of this book available at <https://doi.org/10.4324/9781315692623> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license unevenly and has remained only marginally represented in the international canon Romancing the Margins? Gabriele Griffin, 2000 Romancing the Margins Lesbian Writing in the 1990s explores the range of critical responses to lesbian writing on issues of gender sexuality and lesbian identity in the final decade of the 20th century Discussing contemporary texts such as Sarah Schulman's novel Empathy Native American lesbian writing biographies and autobiographies and other texts by and about lesbians this volume stresses the diversity of gender and sexual identity in the 1990s and raises questions about the politics of those positions The Kurdish Question in Turkey Cengiz Gunes, Welat Zeydanlioglu, 2013-09-23 Almost three decades have passed since political violence erupted in Turkey's south eastern regions where the majority of Turkey's approximately 20 million Kurds live In 1984 the Kurdistan Workers Party PKK initiated an insurgency which intensified in the following decades and continues to this day Kurdish regions in Turkey were under military rule for more than a decade and the conflict has cost the lives of 45 000 people including soldiers guerrillas and civilians The complex issue of the Kurdish Question in Turkey is subject to comprehensive examination in this book This interdisciplinary edited volume brings together chapters by social theorists political scientists social anthropologists sociologists legal theorists and ethnomusicologists to provide new perspectives on this internationally significant issue It elaborates on the complexity of the Kurdish question and examines the subject matter from a number of innovative angles Considering historical theoretical and political aspects of the Kurdish question in depth and raising issues that have not been discussed sufficiently in existing literature this book is an invaluable resource for students and scholars of Nationalism and Conflict Turkish Politics and Middle Eastern politics more broadly Women We Love SooJin Lee, Kate Korroch, Liew Kai Khiun, 2023-09-19 Women We Love Femininities and the Korean Wave is an edited volume exploring femininities in and around the Korean Wave since 2000 While studies on the Korean Wave are abundant there is a dearth of thought put toward the female identifying stars characters and fans who shape and lead this crucial cultural movement This collection of essays is one of the first works to focus on gender and the key female actors of this global phenomenon Using women as an inclusive term extending to all those who self define as women this volume examines the role of women in K pop and K drama industries and fandom spaces encompassing crucial intersectional topics such as queering of gender dissemination of media and fan culture In addition to the communities engaged with visual culture of the Korean Wave the audience for Women We Love will reflect the contributors to this text They are K pop and K drama fans queer international they are also academics of Asian histories sociology gender and sexuality art history and visual culture The chapters are playful intersectional and will be adapted well into syllabi for media studies gender studies visual culture studies sociology and contemporary global history Women We Love goes far beyond the dyad of the flower boy Hallyu star and his female fan to offer readers an illuminating discussion of plural femininities in the Korean Wave since the turn of the millennium The essays will answer many burning yet heretofore unanswered questions about the affective resonances and political significance of Korean popular culture's gender dynamics which have fascinated puzzled and at times frustrated many fans and observers Rigorously interdisciplinary yet grounded in textual detail historical context and material reception practices this is a timely and valuable contribution to the study of gender fandom and global media Michelle Cho University of Toronto This is a provoking and fascinating book one of the most awaited books in Hallyu studies Drawing from a multitude of feminist theories and case studies this edited volume not only provides captivating and much needed discussions but also critically expands the current debates in gender studies feminism studies and fan studies This book is vital literature for researchers students and practitioners who are willing to advance their understanding of the Korean Wave from a new scope and angle Dal Yong Jin Simon Fraser University

Corporate Strategy Angelique Du-Toit, 2006-09-27 This book takes a fresh look at corporate strategy exploring it from a feminist perspective Challenging male dominated theory Corporate Strategy looks at unquestioned assumptions held about strategy in practice and academia including whether women approach strategy differently from men and if so how their approach differs Reviewing the histories of strategy and feminism the book explores the reasons why so few serious works on strategy have been written by women and investigates the continued lack of women at senior levels within many organizations Ang lique du Toit draws on postmodern arguments to illustrate the claims made for the necessity of diversity within organizations and challenges the fact that positions of power both in society and organizations remain the exclusive right of men Corporate Strategy argues that if an organization is to survive and succeed in the global economy it has to pay more than lip service to issues surrounding diversity

Mothering the Self Stephanie Lawler, 2002-01-04 The mother daughter relationship has preoccupied feminist writers for decades but typically it has been the daughter s story at centre stage Mothering the Self brings together these maternal and daughterly stories by drawing on in depth interviews with women who speak both as mothers and as daughters This study examines the ways in which these mothers and daughters participate in their understanding of class gender and race locations both using and resisting them The result is a fresh start from which to consider the far reaching implications of this relationship not simply for mothers and daughters but in terms of how we understand the shaping of the self and its place within the social world

Capricious Borders Olga Demetriou, 2013-04-01 Borders of states borders of citizenship borders of exclusion As the lines drawn on international treaty maps become ditches in the ground and roaming barriers in the air a complex state apparatus is set up to regulate the lives of those who cannot be expelled yet who have never been properly rooted This study explores the mechanisms employed at the interstices of two opposing views on the presence of minority populations in western Thrace the legalization of their status as tablis established and the failure to incorporate the minority in the Greek national imaginary Revealing the logic of government bureaucracy shows how they replicate difference from the inter state level to the communal and the personal educational experience influences their involvement in their children's schooling. The book examines the support of the mother in her child's schooling to reveal the part she plays in social reproduction and to recognize her centrality to an understanding of social class. The book should be of interest to undergraduates in the sociology of education, gender studies and to those studying PGCE primary education. Class Work: Mothers' Involvement Diane Reay, 2005-08-16. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and gripping novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.

Class Work Diane Reay, 2023-05-12 This text looks at the ways in which women as mothers are positioned in society in terms of ethnicity social class and marital status Using case study material the author expands her assessment to analyse the way women s
