Deep Map Country Susan Naramore Maher, 2014-05-01 Taking its name from the subtitle of William Least Heat Moon's PrairieEarth a deep map the deep map form of nonfiction and environmental writing defines an innovative and stratigraphic literary genre Proposing that its roots can be found in Great Plains nonfiction writing Susan Naramore Maher explores the many facets of this vital form of critique exploration and celebration that weaves together such elements of narrative as natural history cultural history geography memoir and intertextuality Maher's Deep Map Country gives readers the first book length study of the deep map nonfiction of the Great Plains region featuring writers as diverse as Julene Bair Sharon Butala Loren Eiseley Don Gayton Linda Hasselstrom William Least Heat Moon John Janovy Jr John McPhee Kathleen Norris and Wallace Stegner Deep Map Country examines the many layers of storytelling woven into their essays the deep time of geology and evolutionary biology the cultural history of indigenous and settlement communities the personal stories of encounters with this expansive terrain the political and industrial stories that have affected the original biome and Plains economies and the spiritual dimensions of the physical environment that press on everyday realities Literary Invention and the Cartographic Imagination, 2022-10-24 Literary Invention and the Cartographic Imagination Early Modern to Late Modern is a wide ranging inter and transdisciplinary approach grounded in the twin rigors of theory and history which through close readings of authors from Edmund Spenser to Olga Tokarczuk and through considered discussions of the ideologies of walking and mapping in performance art and cultural representation assesses and analyses the significance of maps to literary texts and which examines the ways in which the literary maps imaginary and real worlds Together the essays demonstrate convincingly the close relationship between text map and culture Echoing Silence John Moss, 1997 The North has always had and still has an irresistible attraction This fascination is made up of a mixture of perspectives among these the various explorations of the Arctic itself and the Inuk cultural heritage found in the elders and contemporary stories This book discusses the different generations of explorers and writers and illustrates how the sounds of a landscape are inseparable from the stories of its inhabitants Published in English Unsettling the City Nicholas K. Blomley, 2004 First Published in 2004 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company The Soul of Place Linda Lappin, 2015-04-20 This is such a pleasure to read Unlike most books with writing prompts this one goes in depth with sensitizing you to ground yourself in awareness of where you are and why Grazie Linda for this marvelous work Frances Mayes author of Under the Tuscan Sun In this engaging creative writing workbook novelist and poet Linda Lappin presents a series of insightful exercises to help writers of all genres literary travel writing memoir poetry fiction creative nonfiction discover imagery and inspiration in the places they love Lappin departs from the classical concept of the Genius Loci the indwelling spirit residing in every landscape house city or forest to argue that by entering into contact with the unique energy and identity of a place writers can access an inexhaustible source of creative power The Soul of Place provides instruction on how to evoke that power The writing exercises are drawn from many fields architecture painting cuisine literature and literary criticism geography and deep maps Jungian psychology fairy tales mythology theater and performance art metaphysics all of which offer surprising perspectives on our writing and may help us uncover raw materials for fiction essays and poetry hidden in our environment An essential resource book for the writer s library this book is ideal for creative writing courses with stimulating exercises adaptable to all genres For writers or travelers about to set out on a trip abroad The Soul of Place is the perfect road trip companion attuning our senses to a deeper awareness of place The Spatial Humanities David J. Bodenhamer, John Corrigan, Trevor M. Harris, 2010-06-28 Geographic information systems GIS have spurred a renewed interest in the influence of geographical space on human behavior and cultural development Ideally GIS enables humanities scholars to discover relationships of memory artifact and experience that exist in a particular place and across time Although successfully used by other disciplines efforts by humanists to apply GIS and the spatial analytic method in their studies have been limited and halting The Spatial Humanities aims to re orient and perhaps revolutionize humanities scholarship by critically engaging the technology and specifically directing it to the subject matter of the humanities To this end the contributors explore the potential of spatial methods such as text based geographical analysis multimedia GIS animated maps deep contingency deep mapping and the geo spatial semantic web Ecospatiality Lowell

Wyse, 2021-07-15 John Steinbeck s Salinas Valley Richard Wright s Chicago Leslie Marmon Silko s New Mexico Readers often have strong connections with literary places like these And some works of literature can even change our understanding of the world we live in But can place also change our view of literature Site Reading advances a place based approach to literature reading classic texts through the twin lenses of geographical awareness and environmental thought This book highlights recent developments in ecocriticism and geocriticism to argue for a theory of ecospatiality with nature space and story as the three elements of place Site Reading reconsiders well known works of twentieth century American prose and shows how social and environmental issues always overlap Travel writer William Least Heat Moon whose work embodies the ecospatial perspective portrays his experiences with place on the local regional and continental scales Classic novels by Silko Willa Cather and Ana Castillo usually discussed in isolation converge in a way that maps diverse cultural perspectives and environmental threats onto the shared geography of Central New Mexico A reading of Steinbeck s Salinas Valley Watershed texts investigates the impacts of literary tourism in Steinbeck Country before drilling down into Steinbeck s portrayals of spatial development and environmental history And an innovative analysis of Native Son shows how Richard Wright uses cartographic details to decry the spatial racial politics of South Side Chicago in the 1930s In this book Lowell Wyse shows how place provides the grounds for both human experience and critical practice By bringing together concepts like literary cartography deep mapping and bioregionalism in an ecospatial approach Site Reading not only maps new terrain between ecocriticism and geocriticism but also shows why place matters in the world and in the text Making Books that Fly, Fold,

Wrap, Hide, Pop Up, Twist, and Turn Gwen Diehn, 2006 Presents instructions for making various kinds of books including those that carry messages across space and time as well as those that save words ideas and pictures The Lost Frontier Mark Asquith, 2014-06-19 Annie Proulx is one of the most provocative and stylistically innovative writers in America today She is at her best in the short story format and the best of these are to be found in her Wyoming trilogy in which she turns her eye on America's West both past and present Yet despite the vast amount of print expended reviewing her books there has been nothing published on the Wyoming Stories The Lost Frontier fills this critical void by offering a detailed examination of the key stories in the trilogy Close Range 1999 Bad Dirt 2004 Fine Just the Way it Is 2008 The chapters are arranged according to western archetypes the Pioneer Rancher Cowboy Indian and arguably the most important character of them all in Proulx's fiction Landscape The Lost Frontier offers students a clear sense of the novelist's early life and work her stylistic influences and the characteristics of her fiction and an understanding of where the Wyoming Stories and Annie Proulx's work as a whole fits into traditional and contemporary writing about the American West Travel Writing, Form, and Empire Julia Kuehn, Paul Smethurst, 2008-11-19 This volume aims to explore more widely and more locally the expression of imperialist discourse in travel writing and also to locate within contemporary travel writing attempts to evade or re engage with the power politics of imperialist discourse Microtravel Charles Forsdick, Zoë Kinsley, Kate Walchester, 2024-06-04 The 2020 COVID 19 pandemic imposed immobility on large sectors of the world's population with confinement becoming an everyday reality The lives of those who previously enjoyed the privileges of being fast castes ground to a halt while at the same time the displacement of more vulnerable populations along well established migration corridors has been radically reduced The result has been a recalibration of the scale of journeying with travellers slowing down their journeys and readjusting their relationship to the proximate and nearby This situation has provided an opportunity for those who study travel and travel writing to rethink their objects of study and approaches to them This volume explores and historicizes the phenomenon of microtravel designating slower journeys within a limited radius which allow and sometimes necessitate new forms of experiencing the world Encyclopedia of American Literature of the Sea and Great Lakes Jill B. Gidmark, 2000-11-30 The sea and Great Lakes have inspired American authors from colonial times to the present to produce enduring literary works This reference is a comprehensive survey of American sea literature The scope of the encyclopedia ranges from the earliest printed matter produced in the colonies to contemporary experiments in published prose poetry and drama The book also acknowledges how literature gives rise to adaptations and resonances in music and film and includes coverage of nonliterary topics that have nonetheless shaped American literature of the sea and Great Lakes The alphabetical arrangement of the reference facilitates access to facts about major literary works characters authors themes vessels places and ideas that are central to American sea literature Each of the several hundred entries is written by an expert contributor and many provide bibliographical information While the encyclopedia includes entries for white male canonical writers such as Herman Melville and Jack London it also gives considerable attention to women at sea and to ethnically diverse authors works and themes The volume concludes with a chronology and a list of works for further reading

Envisioning Landscapes, Making Worlds Stephen Daniels, Dydia DeLyser, J. Nicholas Entrikin, Doug Richardson, 2012-03-15 There has been a remarkable resurgence in the past decade of intellectual interplay between geography and the humanities in both academic and public circles Terminology and concepts such as space place landscape mapping and geography are becoming pervasive as conceptual frameworks and core metaphors in recent publications by humanities scholars and well known writers Envisioning Landscapes Making Worlds examines the depth and complexity of human meaning invested in maps attached to landscapes and embedded in the spaces and places of modern life The clashing and blending of cultures caused by globalization and the new technologies that profoundly alter human environmental experience suggest new geographical narratives and representations that are explored here by a multidisciplinary group of authors With contributions from leading scholars this text is essential reading for scholars and students seeking to understand the new synergies and interconnectedness of geography and the humanities

Clearing Land Jane Brox, 2005-09-14 A moving graceful elegy for the American farm Larry Zuckerman author of The Potato Nonfiction literature of a high and lasting order Clearing Land Brox s third book parlays the resonantly detailed specifics of life on her immigrant family s farm in Massachusetts into a larger consideration of the meaning of cleared land and its relationship to other iconic locations in the American landscape wilderness prairie mountain city Her precise eloquent prose wedded to a sensibility that manages to be at once elegiac and hard minded strikes unerringly through sentiment and convention to the heart of the matter The result is a deeply affecting conclusion to her trilogy of books about living the consequences of natural process human desire and the shifting balance between them Carlo Rotella Chicago Tribune Sings with the joy of life Brox knows farming but she knows writing even better Clearing Land is a treasure Jules Wagman Milwaukee Journal Sentinel Clearing land is the book s guiding metaphor one that encompasses both time and space and serves brilliantly to compare the material world and its flux with our attempts to understand it This Brox does with eloquent melancholy Katherine A Powers The Boston Globe

The Top Books of the Year
Prairyerth A Deep Map 1st Edition
The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have enthralled audiences this year.

The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover
"It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed.

Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids
"The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery.

Discover the Magic : Delia Owens
"Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting.

These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered.

The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts.

The Secret History is a masterful and suspenseful novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
