

SUITE IV.

PRAELUDIUM. (J. use.) (Moderato.)

The first staff begins with a treble clef, a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and a common time signature (C). The music is written in a single melodic line. The notation includes various note values (quarter, eighth, and sixteenth notes), rests, and dynamic markings such as 'f' (forte) and 'p' (piano). The lyrics 'cre', 'son', and 'do' are written below the notes in several places, indicating a vocal or instrumental melody. The score is arranged in a single system with 12 staves.

Prelude From Suite No 4 For Cello Pujol 104:

Recording the Classical Guitar Mark Marrington, 2021-03-30 Recording the Classical Guitar charts the evolution of classical guitar recording practice from the early twentieth century to the present day encompassing the careers of many of the instrument's most influential practitioners from acoustic era to the advent of the CD. A key focus is on the ways in which guitarists recorded repertoire programmes have shaped the identity of the instrument particularly where national allegiances and musical aesthetics are concerned. The book also considers the ways in which changing approaches to recording practice have conditioned guitarists' conceptions of the instrument's ideal representation in recorded form and situates these in relation to the development of classical music recording aesthetics more generally. An important addition to the growing body of literature in the field of phonomusicology, the book will be of interest to guitarists and producers as well as students of record production and historians of classical music recording. Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress.
