Gerontological Nursing: Providing High-Quality Care For Older Adults

Gerontological nursing is a specific field that must consider the age of the patients. Moreover, multiple factors have to be included when building the plan for caring for senior adults. This field is patient-based, but nurses can take into consideration family members as active participants. Furthermore, intentional learning can be applied in regards to learning about the specific strategies used when working with older patients. For example, cultural aspects, therapeutic conversations, evidence-based models, and safety practices depend on each individual in particular. Nurs...
