Reading in a Second Language William Grabe, 2009 Abstract Aspects of Language Development in an Intensive English Program Alan Juffs, 2020-03-02 While there is much in the literature on ESL development this book is the first of its kind to track the development of specific language abilities in an Intensive English Program IEP longitudinally and highlights the implications of this particular study's findings for future IEP implementation and practice and ESL and SLA research The volume draws on many years worth of data from learners at an IEP at the University of Pittsburgh to explore selected aspects of language development including lexical grammatical speaking and writing abilities in addition to placement assessment practices and student learning outcomes A concluding chapter points to the ways in which these findings can be applied to decision making around IEP curriculum development and the future role of IEPs in higher education more broadly With its focus on students in IEP settings and the concentration on data from students evaluated over multiple semesters this volume offers a unique opportunity in which to examine longitudinal developmental patterns of different L1 groups on a variety of measures from the same learners and will be key reading for students and researchers in second language acquisition English for Academic Purposes language education and applied linguistics Working Collaboratively in Second/Foreign Language Learning María del Pilar García Mayo, 2021-01-18 Since the introduction of communicative language teaching collaborative learning has played an important role in the second language L2 classroom Drawing from sociocultural theory which states that human cognitive development is a socially situated activity mediated by language studies in L2 pedagogy advocate the use of tasks that require learners to work together Collaborative dialogue encourages language learning and research shows that the solutions reached by students in this process are more often correct with a lasting influence on their language comprehension This volume includes ten chapters that illustrate the benefits of collaborative dialogue in second foreign language classrooms The volume considers key issues dealing with collaborative tasks and implications for language teaching Tutoring Second Language Writers Shanti Bruce, Ben Rafoth, 2016-03-01 Tutoring Second Language Writers a complete update of Bruce and Rafoth's 2009 ESL Writers is a guide for writing center tutors that addresses the growing need for tutors who are better prepared to work with the increasingly international population of students seeking guidance at the writing center Drawing upon philosopher John Dewey's belief in reflective thinking as a way to help build new knowledge the book is divided into four parts Part 1 Actions and Identities is about creating a proactive stance toward language difference thinking critically about labels and the mixed feelings students may have about learning English Part 2 Research Opportunities demonstrates writing center research projects and illustrates methods tutors can use to investigate their questions about writing center work Part 3 Words and Passages offers four personal stories of inquiry and discovery and Part 4 Academic Expectations describes some of the challenges tutors face when they try to help writers meet readers specific expectations Advancing the conversations tutors have with one another and their directors about tutoring second language writers and writing Tutoring Second Language Writers engages readers with current ideas and issues that highlight the excitement and challenge of working with those who speak English as a second or additional language Contributors include Jocelyn Amevuvor Rebecca Day Babcock Valerie M Balester Shanti Bruce Frankie Condon Michelle Cox Jennifer Craig Kevin Dvorak Paula Gillespie Glenn Hutchinson Pei Hsun Emma Liu Bobbi Olson Pimyupa W Praphan Ben Rafoth Jose L Reyes Medina Guiboke Seong and Elizabeth Adelay Witherite The Intersection of Library Learning and Second-Language Learning Karen Bordonaro, 2013-12-01 Language learning and library learning in a university setting are closely related endeavors that intersect at various times and locations and with various teachers and learners This book is an examination of how these intersections are experienced by language learners Its aim is to explore the two types of learning to help sustain and develop the learning in both areas The Intersection of Library

Learning and Second Language Learning Theory and Practice is aimed at practitioners both librarians and language instructors and describes everyday scenarios which will resonate with academic librarians and language instructors. It presents practical experiences and accompanies them with a consideration of the literature of both librarianship and language education. It reviews and evaluates professional practices employed by working librarians and language instructors in their dealings with international students. Considerations of the intersections between language learning and library learning are placed within a theoretical framework of learner autonomy. This framework offers librarians and language instructors methods and practices that enable students to take control of their learning in the areas of both language learning and library learning. A concluding chapter offers ways to connect the framework of learner autonomy to settings outside that of a university context.

Handbook of Adolescent Literacy Research Leila Christenbury, Randy Bomer, Peter Smagorinsky, 2011-06-10. The first comprehensive research handbook of its kind, this volume showcases innovative approaches to understanding adolescent literacy learning in a variety of settings. Distinguished contributors examine how well adolescents are served by current instructional practices and highlight ways to translate research findings more effectively into sound teaching and policymaking. The book explores social and cultural factors in adolescents' approach to communication and response to instruction, and sections address literacy both in and out of schools, including literacy expectations in the contemporary workplace. Detailed attention is given to issues of diversity and individual differences among learners. Winner, Literacy Research Association's Fry Book Award.

Resources in Education, 1999-04. Second Language Instruction/acquisition Abstracts, 1997. A Multilingual Development Framework for Young Learners Barbara Hofer, 2023-03-06. This book presents a new extended framework for the study of early multicompetence. It proposes a concept of multilingual competences as a valuable educational target and a view of the multilingual learner as a competent language user. The thematic focus is on multilingual skill development in primary schoolers in the trilingual province of South Tyrol, northern Italy. A wide range of topics pertaining to multicompetence building and the special affordances of multilingual pedagogy are explored. Key concepts like language proficiency, native speakerism, or monolingual classroom bias are subjected to critical analysis.

Explorations of Language Teaching and Learning with Computational Assistance Zou, Bin, 2012-07-31. Computer-based technologies can enhance language learning and help students embrace the complexities of an additional language. Due to rapid technological changes, innovative teaching approaches and strategies are necessary in order to successfully integrate new technologies within language teaching. Explorations of Language Teaching and Learning with Computational Assistance provides cutting-edge research which evaluates, improves, and applies effective pedagogy in the fields of computer-assisted language learning (CALL) and foreign language learning. It expands on the principles, theories, design, and implementation of computer-assisted language learning programs.
