Asemic Writings 2 Mark Urizar,Zbigniew Jaworski,2022-06-26 This coded asemic book has many deciphered messages that reveal an intriguing tale of the unforgiven La Mancha This sentenced individual accrued substantial karmic debt that caused a cosmic imbalance This had to be corrected and reconciled For just punishment a miserable life full of hardship was fated The accrued karmic debt is the sum of all the resulting bad we had done These are our bad choices decisions brutal acts past sins and misdeeds waiting to be reconciled Death does not erase these nor does karma dismiss or forget these Rather they become the karmic debt that will outlive us our flesh and will be remembered passing onto all our future incarnations Whilst freedom tempts us we are required to live just moral and ethical lives We are also obliged to atone and reconcile all the bad we had done Life provides ample opportunity and time to reconcile this And we are afforded many lifetimes to repent atone for our sins and redeem ourselves However we must choose to do so La Mancha had failed to do so and remained unrepentant For an eternity persistent bad was done that eventually forced karma to intervene and punish this unrepentant soul This led to this fated sentenced life of inescapable misery This is the story of the La Mancha the unforgiven

The Poetical Works Walter Scott (Sir),1826 Antonio Richard Pooler,2010-09-06 This is an erotic historical romance based on a journal written at the start of the 16th century by a young man called Antonio who grew up in the village of Cortona in northern Italy His mother died in childbirth his brother moved away to find work in Perugia and he was left living with his father Giorgio from whom he learned the trade of carpentry The novel takes the form of a picaresque adventure in search of work This leads to his meeting several of the famous artists of the time painting frescoes in different churches As he progresses past adolescence he discovers women to his delight Antonio is clearly an honest generous affectionate and good looking young man As he moves from one village to another he meets a variety of young women whose wishes and desires he is unable to resist Increasingly he becomes aware of the wider world and the fractious politics of the time The Borgias are in power in the Vatican and Cesare Borgia is rampaging through Tuscany working his way towards Cortona He sends his agent Leonardo da Vinci to survey the local fortifications and Antonio almost meets him There is also a studious side to his nature and he finds a mentor at the local monastery who teaches him how to write and keeps him informed about the events of the day including the scandals surrounding the Borgias Other events include meeting a ghost at an ancient monastery and consulting a soothsayer who reveals his future Running through this story is a golden thread with one end being his abiding love for a particular woman the great love of his young life who seems beyond his reach As he moves from one romantic attachment to another it is his true love who really occupies his thoughts As his future unfolds we see him holding onto that thread and somehow hoping that he would never have to let it go How the story is played out against the short term vicissitudes of his life is finally revealed in the last chapter This story is truly a Rite of Passage from youth to manhood
