she looked like a wreath of faint mist At least Dan fancifully thought so as he stole a glance at her frail beauty or perhaps she was more like a silver point drawing exquisitely fine But whatever image love might find to express her loveliness Dan knew in his hot passion that she was the one girl in the world for him Lillian Halliday was a much better name for her than Lillian Moon Dan himself was tall and slim dark and virile with a clear cut clean shaven face suggestive of strength and activity His bronzed complexion suggested an open air life while the eagle look in his dark eyes was that new vast distance expression rapidly being acquired by those who devote themselves to aviation No one could deny Dan s good looks or clean life or daring nature and he was all that a girl could desire in the way of a fairy prince But fathers do not approve of fairy princes unless they come laden with jewels and gold To bring such to Lillian was rather like taking coals to Newcastle since her father was so wealthy but much desires more and Sir Charles wanted a rich son in law Dan could not supply this particular adjective and therefore as he would have put it in the newest slang of the newest profession was out of the fly Not that he intended to be in spite of Sir Charles since love can laugh at stern fathers as easily as at bolts and bars And all this time Lillian stared at the door and then at Dan and then at her plate putting two and two together But in spite of her feminine intuition she could not make four and turned to her lover for that Dan was and a declared lover too for an explanation
