Secret Rendezvous:

Secret Rendezvous Kobo Abe, 2002-07-09 From the acclaimed author of Woman in the Dunes comes Secret Rendezvous the bizarrely erotic and comic adventures of a man searching for his missing wife in a mysteriously vast underground hospital From the moment that an ambulance appears in the middle of the night to take his wife who protests that she is perfectly healthy her bewildered husband realizes that things are not as they should be His covert explorations reveal that the enormous hospital she was taken to is home to a network of constant surveillance outlandish sex experiments and an array of very odd and even violent characters Within a few days though no closer to finding his wife the unnamed narrator finds himself appointed the hospital's chief of security reporting to a man who thinks he's a horse With its nightmarish vision of modern medicine and modern life Secret Rendezvous is another masterpiece from Japan's most gifted and original writer of serious fiction

Sisters and Lovers Megan Jennaway, 2002 The Balinese devotion to their temples is both legendary and conspicuous but the ways in which they enshrine their innermost desires have long been hidden This ethnography draws back the veil by focusing on the romantic experiences of women in a rural village Punyanwangi in North Bali from adolescence to maturity Delving into the intensity of passion that exists just below the harmonious veneer of traditional patterns of courtship and marriage motherhood and connubial fidelity this book overturns Margaret Mead's assertions of passivity in Balinese social life Punyanwangi's proximity to a thriving tourist center allows Megan Jennaway to explore as well the striking gender disparities in the ways sexuality and desire are culturally mediated Aside from service work women are excluded from entering the tourist domain yet male sexual adventurism is expected and even encouraged The bodies of foreign women are thus invested with potent fantasies of exotic desire while those of local women are muted denied legitimate avenues of expression The author invokes Post Freudian and feminist concepts of sexuality to explain culturally specific psychiatric disorders to which Balinese women are prone interpreting them as expressions of frustrated desire She thus convincingly reveals Balinese society as anything but unemotional or stagnant Rather it is swept along by currents of emotionally charged desire By allowing key informants to tell their stories in their own voices and by skillfully interweaving fictionalized interludes the author gives us not only a rigorously researched ethnography but an intimate and fully realized portrait of Balinese women's innermost desires Sublime Voices

Christopher Bolton, 2020-03-17 Since the 1950s Abe K b 1924 1993 has achieved an international reputation for his surreal or grotesque brand of avant garde literature From his early forays into science fiction to his more mature psychological novels and films and finally the complicated experimental works produced near the end of his career Abe weaves together a range of voices the styles of science and the language of literary forms In Abe's oeuvre this stylistic interplay links questions of language and subjectivity with issues of national identity and technological development in a way that ultimately aspires to become the catalyst for an artistic revolution While recognizing the disruptions such a revolution might entail Abe's texts embrace these disjunctions as a way of realizing radical new possibilities beyond everyday experience and everyday values By arguing that the crisis of identity and postwar anomie in Abe's works is inseparable from the need to marshal these different scientific and literary voices Christopher Bolton explores how this reconciliation of ideas and dialects is for Abe part of the process whereby texts and individuals form themselves a search for identity that must take place at the level of the self and society at large Operator #5
