Models Of The Church:

Models of the Church Avery Dulles, 2002-05-14 There is today a dramatic reexamination of structure authority dogma indeed every aspect of the life of the Church is held up to scrutiny Welcoming this as a sign of vitality Avery Dulles has carefully studied the writings of contemporary Protestant and Catholic ecclesiologists and sifted out six major approaches or models through which the Church's character can be understood as Institution Mystical Communion Sacrament Herald Servant and in a recent addition to the book as Community of Disciples A balanced theology he concludes must incorporate the major affirmations of each The method of models or types observes Cardinal Dulles can have great value in helping people to get beyond the limitations of their own particular outlook and to enter into fruitful conversation with others Such conversation is obviously essential if ecumenism is to get beyond its present impasses This new edition includes a new Appendix and Preface by the author

Models of the Kingdom Howard A. Snyder, 2001-07-23 Christians often misunderstand one another when they refer to the kingdom of God They may ask Is it here on earth In our hearts In our churches Over the years best selling author Howard Snyder has been helping pastors and church leaders understand kingdom terminology Now he explains in eight models how the kingdom or reign of God has been and may be conceived Snyder explains with biblical texts and illustrations from church history If you are a pastor or church leader you will find guidance for building new kingdom communities in your congregation as well as ways to relate kingdom theology to global crises with the environment and our economy

Models for Scripture John Goldingay, 2004 Looks at the task of interpreting Scripture as witnessing tradition authoritative canon inspired word and experienced revelation

A Charismatic Model of the Church David Y.T. Lee, 2018-06-11 Edward Irving 1792 1834 has been known as a controversial pastor theologian in nineteenth century Britain particularly given his belief that Christ took on sinful flesh in His incarnation This book focuses on Irving's teaching of the church as the body of Christ in the power of the Holy Spirit and the eschatological community in holiness It explores Irving's emphasis upon the exalted humanity of Christ after His resurrection in relation to the church Such a Christ centred and Spirit empowered concept of the church has relevance to the twenty first century church in China as the Chinese church leaders attempt to reconstruct a contemporary theology of the church

Models of Jesus Revisited John F. O'Grady, 1994 With this revised version of his Models of Jesus O'Grady makes available a classic work that offers an extensive treatment of various models of Jesus that are not only possible but actual in the church today The author first surveys models of Jesus in the New Testament then examines six contemporary models of Jesus

Models of the Eucharist, Second Edition Irwin, Kevin W., 2020 In this book updated with the texts of the third edition of the Roman Missal Kevin Irwin reflects on the jewel in the crown of Catholicism the celebration of the Eucharist His book theological pastoral and contemporary is essentially concerned with issues about the Eucharist that face us today decades after the truly historic and unprecedented revisions that took after the Second Vatican Council Some of these concerns are the result of unforeseen developments about the Eucharist resulting from other factors for example the decline in numbers of clergy which has led in some places to Sunday celebrations without the Mass Other concerns arise from a lack of proper catechesis about the Mass and a keen desire to understand why and how the Eucharist is at the center of Catholic life In addition to being expressly theological this book is also expressly pastoral in that it is a reflection on the life lived by the church as it enacts the Eucharist and seeks to live out what the Eucharist celebrates The book is aimed at the audience of educated Catholics who seek a deeper appreciation of what the Eucharist is and who want to appropriate that understanding in the way they live their lives This book will be of particular interest to pastoral ministers both those present and those in training and the communities of faith whom they serve Models of Priestly Formation Declan Marmion, Michael Mullaney, Salvador Ryan, 2019-06-25 The preparation of new priests for ministry currently faces closer scrutiny than at any time since the Reformation and the importance of effective priestly formation has perhaps never been clearer in the entire history of the Church In Models of Priestly Formation some of the world's leading experts on the topic consider priestly formation since Vatican II explore current best practices internationally and imagine what the future of such formation might look like The book promises to become an essential reference for every person involved in priestly formation and for anyone interested in understanding better how it is carried out and how those who do it think about their task The eBook edition includes four additional essays An Introductory Dictionary of Theology and Religious Studies Orlando O. Espín, James B. Nickoloff, 2007 Spanning the gamut from Aaron to Zwingli this dictionary includes nearly 3 000 entries written by about sixty authors all of whom are specialists in their various theological and religious disciplines The editors have designed the dictionary especially to aid the introductory level student with instant access to definitions of terms likely to be encountered in but not to substitute for classroom presentations or reading assignments Publisher The Art of Dialogue Ineke de Feijter, 2007 Media and culture are deeply intertwined in contemporary society Religions have problems relating to this media culture which is shaped by media processes and conditioned by digital media and interactive forms of communication Media set the agenda and they profoundly challenge religions both with respect to their public communication and their very existence and public relevance People increasingly use media for shaping their religious identity and their search with respect to questions of ultimate meaning Barely any theological studies exist that reflect on religious policies and their subsequent praxis in the field of communication The author analyzes Christian policy views and identifies the main problems and opportunities in relating to media culture Being and Building up the Church in My Father's Home Alozie Oliver Onwubiko, 2020-06-03 The rehabilitation by St Pope Paul VI of African traditional religions and cultures has made them more objective for theological and anthropological reflection And the reflecting subject is a native African himself And the repatriation of missiology into ecclesiology in the Catholic Church in the 21st Century is a new development and the result if it is what we have before us in this book Here personal native anthropological and theological experience has combined with in depth reading of the African novelists necessarily biased distillation of African culture has nourished thinking and reflection at a new level in terms of ecclesial implications of living Christianity authentically and being and building the Church in my father s home
