Models Of Unemployment And Economic Development:

Models of Unemployment in Trade and Economic Development Bharat Hazari, Pasquale Sgro, 2005-07-27 The impact of increased levels of international trade on domestic labour markets is a key issue for policy makers in both developed and less developed countries This book considers the most important current issues in this area in the context of models which examine the relationship between trade and employment It is divided into three parts The first deals with unemployment decay and the Dutch Disease the second with structural adjustment urban unemployment and protectionism the last offers some variations on models of unemployment In parts one and two the important insights are that minimum wages may cause decay rather than growth and that disaggregation of non traded goods between urban and rural regions is of critical importance in structural adjustment protectionism and the real exchange rate In part three segmented labour market theory is used to explain urban and disguised unemployment and the importance of proper agricultural policies for rural development is emphasised Finally the impact of technology transfers on employment in both donor and recipient countries is explored

Economic Growth Theory Wei-Bin Zhang, 2018-01-18 This book develops a new theoretical framework to examine the issues of economic growth and development Providing analysis of economic dynamics in a competitive economy under government intervention in infrastructure and income distribution the book develops a unique analytical framework under the influence of traditional neoclassical growth theory However in a departure from neoclassical growth theory it examines both the Solow Swan and the Ramsey growth models introducing a utility function which treats consumer choices in ways critically different to previous approaches Using practical examples and models the book demonstrates how this new direction can effectively analyze the key issues of economic growth in a compact and comprehensive manner

Economic Development and the Division of Labor Xiaokai Yang, Jeffrey D. Sachs, 2008-04-15 This innovative new text from Jeffrey Sachs and Xiokai Yang introduces students to development economics from the perspectives of inframarginal analysis and marginal analysis The book demonstrates how the new found emphasis on inframarginal analysis has influenced a shift back to an interest in Classical Economics from Neoclassical Economics Inframarginal Analysis vs Marginal Analysis is presented as a consistent theoretical framework throughout Shows how the relationship of Inframarginal Analysis to Marginal Analysis has influenced the shift back to an interest in Classical Economics from Neoclassical Economics with regard to economic development. Allows economists to reduce their overall reliance on marginal analysis which may be less relevant to development economics than it is to the economics of developed countries. Brings considerable analytic machinery to bear on important problems. A focus on institutions and transaction costs that is very relevant to development economics. Offers a thorough analysis of trade. CHs 3, 7 and macroeconomics CHs 16, 19 both of which are not dealt with in depth by comparable textbooks. Modeling Economic Growth in Contemporary Czechia Daniel Stavárek, Michal Tvrdoň, 2024-04-08 Separated into four distinct parts. Modeling Economic Growth in Contemporary Czechia explores economic growth in Czechia from the perspectives of the dynamics of the economy, setting up of the economic policies, functioning of the markets and institutions and the contribution of specific industry sectors to economic growth. Modeling Economic Growth in Contemporary Slovakia Michael Augustin, Peter Jančovič, Bruno S. Sergi, 2024-11-15 This edited collection analyses various aspects of Slovakia's economy including recent developments and events such as the COVID 19 pandemic and war in Ukraine highlighting issues that arise from the current economic model making it difficult for Slovakia to revitalize and adapt the economy to new circumstances.

Macroeconomic Analysis for Economic Growth Musa Jega Ibrahim, 2022-09-28 The book discusses the essential principles that guide macroeconomic policy formulation and implementation to stimulate strong economic growth for sustainable development especially for emerging economies. It includes twelve chapters over three sections: Macroeconomics of Economic Growth, Labour Market and Employment and The Financial System and Macroeconomic Performance. Key conclusions illustrate that the efficacy of regulatory frameworks to create enabling conditions for nurturing and bolstering robust value adding production structures anchored on appropriate macroeconomic management are the fundamental building blocks of strong economic growth. International Trade, Economic Development and National Welfare Kausik Gupta, Jayanta Kumar Dwivedi, 2023-03-31 This book presents a comprehensive analysis of contemporary issues in international trade and economic development. Emphasising the significance of economic development within policymaking, the book covers important issues like the provisioning of public goods, its implication in a liberalised regime, crime and corruption, skilled/unskilled wage inequality, income distribution and unemployment, environmental regulation and role of educational capital and informal sector. The volume deals with the impact that different aspects of international trade and investment are likely to have on the above mentioned areas. The essays written to honour the memory of Professor Sarbajit Chaudhuri also examine topics that focus on public policy related to immigration of skilled workforce, political resistance and political compulsions that a democratic government might face in keeping with its commitment to tariff reforms, gender wage gap and issues related to globalisation, income distribution and unemployment. The book will be of invaluable interest to postgraduate students, scholars and researchers of development economics, international economics and labour economics and to those working on theoretical research on applications of general equilibrium trade models in developing countries.
