Education: Debunking Myths in Education Philip Adey, Justin Dillon, 2012-10-16 This is an important and welcome book Readers can see the faults of simplistic judgments neglect of evidence dismissal of researchers and injudicious implementation From the foreword by Paul Black We all know that small classes are better than large classes that children are best taught in groups according to their ability that some schools are much better than others and that we should teach children according to their individual learning styles or do we This book asks awkward questions about these and many other sacred cows of education Each chapter tackles a persistent myth in education confronting it with research evidence and teasing out any kernel of truth which may underlie the myth Leading authors from the world of education each bring analysis and expertise to bear on their chosen subject presenting their argument in an accessible manner based on sound scholarship Some of the conclusions drawn in Bad Education are likely to be real eye openers for many teachers and parents who will find some of their basic assumptions about education called into question It is also essential reading for anyone involved in educational policy making or management Contributors Philip Adey Mike Anderson Ed Baines Paul Black Peter Blatchford Margaret Brown Guy Claxton Frank Coffield Justin Dillon Julian Joe Elliott Simon Gibbs Jeremy Hodgen Neil Humphrey Annette Karmiloff Smith Bill Lucas Bethan Marshall Brian Matthews Corinne Reid Rob Webster Dylan Wiliam As education policymakers it can be difficult to resist the comfort of our own experience and gut instincts or the lure of populism Bad Education is an invaluable myth buster that tears down common misconceptions and serves up hard facts in their place This is a politically unpalatable guide to the evidence that will challenge policymakers the press and parents alike Dale Bassett Head of Public Policy AQA This book should become a manifesto for change for all of those in education who want to ensure our children do not receive a Bad Education Every Headteacher should buy a copy for every teacher and hopefully somebody

Baroness Perry of Southwark Modern Education, Textbooks, and the Image of the Nation Yoonmi Lee, 2012-08-21 By reinterpreting the way that Korean reformers confronted the process of modernization Westernization between 1880 and 1910 this study challenges the failure thesis which maintains that subsequent Japanese colonization is an indication that the early modernization process in Korea was unsuccessful Japanese Higher Education as Myth Brian J.

McVeigh, 2015-03-04 In this dismantling of the myth of Japanese quality education McVeigh investigates the consequences of what happens when statistical and corporatist forces monopolize the purpose of schooling and the boundary between education and employment is blurred Debunking the Myth of Job Fit in Higher Education and Student Affairs Brian J.

Reece, Vu T. Tran, Elliott N. DeVore, Gabby Porcaro, 2023-07-03 Co published with This groundbreaking book examines a concept that has gone unexamined for too long The concept of job fit in the student affairs profession Fit is a term used by nearly everyone in student affairs throughout the hiring process from search committees and hiring managers to supervisors and HR professionals This book opens a conversation about the use of job fit as a tool for exclusion that needs to be critically investigated from multiple standpoints This edited collection brings together a number of voices to look at the issues involved through various lenses to explore the ways policies procedures environments and cultural norms provide inequitable job search experiences for individuals from various marginalized groups These include looking at the legal aspects employer definitions communication barriers as well as scholarly personal narratives looking at the concept from the perspective of class race gender and sexual orientation Emerging from the Commission for Social Justice of ACPA the personal narratives and critical explorations in this book are an attempt to provide graduate students and professionals with a resource that is relevant to the job search in an increasingly competitive job market while taking into account the complex realities of their identities The normative assumptions of fit are analyzed by the authors to make visible the barriers those assumptions create for those with non dominant identities The student affairs profession strives for inclusion and acceptance as a core value and an essential competency The profession has made progress in the way it serves students but there is a disconnect between the conversation about students and the way those same values play out in the treatment of practitioners and scholars in the field This book aims to help job seekers looking to evaluate fit in their current and possible future positions as well as hiring managers who face challenges in creating equitable hiring processes Challenging the norms and rhetoric about job fit in student affairs means that scholars and practitioners alike must be able to incorporate this topic explicitly into various aspects of the profession Supporting Improving Primary Schools Paul Lincoln, Geoff Southworth, 2005-06-27 Drawn from the experience of the Essex Primary School Improvement programme this book shows how primary schools in the county have improved their standards subsequent to OFSTED inspection It explores the role of the LEA in supporting schools and their efforts to improve It also looks at the collaborative relationship that LEAs and schools can form and the implications for school leadership and for students The book also sheds light on issues of consultancy information and data handling and evaluating school improvement
