International Who's Who in Poetry 2004 Europa Publications, 2003 Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets The Dreaming Body Melissa Sihra, Paul Murphy, 2009 In A Critical History of Modern Irish Drama 1891 1980 1984 the late Professor D E S Maxwell states that the drama of J M Synge has an effect of language to disturb the apparent solidity of his stage's material accessories to fantasticise and mythologise character into action In a sense this is what all great drama does through the use of the fantastic and the mythic it disturbs the solidity of the world as we know it The works presented and discussed in this volume show how the material of the everyday is transformed by the dreams of theatre makers as we journey forth into the 21st Century In writings by Marina Carr Seamus Heaney Olwen Fou r Terry Eagleton Paul Murphy Aoife Monks Melissa Sihra Conall Morrison Mark Phelan Eamonn Jordan Brian Singleton Lynne Parker Rhona Trench Stephen Regan David Johnston and Donal O Kelly we see examples of creative writing which engage critically with a world that is constantly changing and examples of critical writing which engage creatively with theatre that is constantly evolving This book is also a celebration of the vitality originality and richness of theatre practice and scholarship on the island today In Olwen Fou r's 1999 production Angel Babel the millennial cyborg figure says The dreaming body lies at the core of everything and the metaphor of the dark is much richer and stranger than what is being talked about Theatre indeed all art is impossible without the dreaming body whether it is the body of the performer the playwright the designer the scholar or the director Such creative impulses are at the heart of what this book seeks to explore Theatre practice and scholarship in Ireland North and South has never been more vibrant and energised This collection of writings offers a taste of the dreams and imaginings which have materialised on the island over the last forty years The sixteenth volume in the Ulster Editions Monographs Series International Who's Who of Authors and Writers 2008 Europa Publications,2007-08-23 An invaluable source of information on the personalities and organizations of the literary world Renegotiating and Resisting Nationalism in Twentieth-century Irish Drama Scott Boltwood,2009 The essays in this collection seek to refine our understanding of the often polyvalent and conflicted engagement that Irish dramatists have entered into with nationalism a cultural and political movement that they have often attempted to simultaneously resist and renegotiate These nine essays construct a genealogy of dissent of loyal opposition revealing the apprehension and dissatisfaction with which the twentieth century s most influential playwrights have sometimes viewed the Irish state from its emergence in the early 1900s to its maturity at the century s end The articles on W B Yeats Augusta Gregory J M Synge and Sean O Casey reveal the early Abbey Theatre s struggle to critique the failures of and influence the development of the early state and its proscriptive brand of nationalist Irishness The essays exploring the later plays of Samuel Beckett Brian Friel Frank McGuinness Anne Devlin Christina Reid Marie Jones and Marina Carr expose both the conceptual and political failures of mainstream Irishness in the second half of the twentieth century to satisfy the material or political aspirations of people on either side of the Irish border While many of this collection s essays share a common postcolonial interpretive strategy individual articles also employ the strategies of ecocriticism social anthropology structuralism feminism and nationalist theory The fifteenth volume in the Ulster Editions and Monographs series
