Modern Landscape:

Modern Landscape Architecture Jory Johnson, 1991

Modern Landscape Architecture Marc Treib, 1994-07-25

Twenty two essays that provide a forum for assessing the tenets accomplishments and limits of modernism in landscape architecture and for formulating ideas about possible directions for the future of the discipline These twenty two essays provide a rich forum for assessing the tenets accomplishments and limits of modernism in landscape architecture and for formulating ideas about possible directions for the future of the discipline During the 1930s Garrett Eckbo Dan Kiley and James Rose began to integrate modernist architectural ideas into their work and to design a landscape more in accord with the life and sensibilities of their time Together with Thomas Church whose gardens provided the setting for California living they laid the foundations for a modern American landscape design This first critical assessment of modern landscape architecture brings together seminal articles from the 1930s and 1940s by Eckbo Kiley Rose Fletcher Steele and Christopher Tunnard and includes contributions by contemporary writers and designers such as Peirce Lewis Catherine Howett John Dixon Hunt Peter Walker and Martha Schwartz who examine the historical and cultural framework within which modern landscape designers have worked There are also essays by Lance Necker Reuben Rainey Gregg Bleam Michael Laurie and Marc Treib that discuss the designs and legacy of the Americans Tunnard Eckbo Church Kiley and Robert Irwin Dorothy E Imbert takes up Pierre Emile Leger and French modernist gardens of the 1920s and Thorbjørn Andersson reviews experiments with stylized naturalism developed by Erik Glemme and others in the Stockholm park system

Contemporary Urban Landscapes of the Middle East Mohammad Gharipour, 2016-03-17 The Middle East is well known for its historic gardens that have developed over more than two millenniums The role of urban landscape projects in Middle Eastern cities has grown in prominence with a gradual shift in emphasis from gardens for the private sphere to an increasingly public function The contemporary landscape projects either designed as public plazas or public parks have played a significant role in transferring the modern Middle Eastern cities to a new era and also in transforming to a newly shaped social culture in which the public has a voice This book considers what ties these projects to their historical context and what regional and local elements and concepts have been used in their design

Contemporary Landscapes of Contemplation Rebecca Krinke, 2005-11-14 Contemplative landscape and contemplative space are familiar terms in the areas of design landscape architecture and architecture Krinke and her highly regarded contributors set out to explore definitions theories and case studies of contemplative landscapes The contributors Marc Treib John Beardsley Michael Singer Lance Necker Heinrich Hermann and Rebecca Krinke have spent their careers researching critiquing and making landscapes Here they investigate the role of contemplative space in a post modern world and examine the impact of nature and culture on the design or interpretation of contemplative landscapes The essays drawn from both scholarship and personal experience explore the links between spaces designed to provide health benefits and contemplative space

Garden History Tom Turner, 2005-09

Highly illustrated to present and explain in a most appealing way the historic styles of gardens with particular emphasis on the philosophy of garden design This carefully structured overview makes the large subject of garden history accessible to a wide range of readers The sections on history and philosophy are written as succinct essays illustrated with photographs or perspective drawings The essays deal with the ideas and historical conditions which led to the making of particular types of gardens The section on styles will focus on plan analysis and will be illustrated Diagrams illu
