Modern Movement:

The Modern Movement Chris Baldick, 2004 A major new survey of literature in England during the first half of the twentieth century Chris Baldick places modernist with non modernist writings high art with low entertainment The Modern Movement ranges broadly covering psychological novels war poems detective stories satires children s books and other literary forms evolving in response to the new anxieties and exhilarations of twentieth century life The Challenge of Change: Dealing with the Legacy of the Modern Movement Dirk van den Heuvel, Maarten Mesman, Bert Lemmens, 2008-09-15 Conservation of architecture and the conversation of Modern architecture in particular has assumed new challenges Rather than attempting to return a Modern building to its resumed original state the challenge of these proceedings is to revalue the essence of the manifold manifestations of Modern architecture and redefine its meanings in a rapidly changing world of digital revolution worldwide mobility and environmental awareness This volume aims to provide a variety of platforms for the exchange of ideas and experience A large international group of architects historians scholars preservationists and other parties involved in the processes of preserving renovating and transforming Modern buildings has been invited to investigate the paradox of the Modern monument and to reflect on the manifold dilemmas of change and continuity The general theme is elaborated through five sub themes The sub theme Change and Continuity addresses the tensions between change and continuity from a historical theoretical perspective Restructuring Cities and Landscapes focuses on the larger scale of city and landscape while Shifts in Programme and Flexibility draws attention to the scale of the building or building complex and questions limits of re use and flexibility The fourth sub theme deals with education and the fifth sub theme Progress Technology and Sustainability considers specific issues of techniques and materials Modern Architecture Alan Colquhoun, 2002 In this study of the international modern movement in architecture Alan Colquhoun explores the complex motivations behind its revolutionary new style and assesses its triumphs and failures The Modernist Movement in the Roman Church Alec R. Vidler, 2014-07-17 Originally published in 1934 this book examines the Modernist movement in Roman Catholicism from its beginnings around 1890 until its conclusion around 1910 Vidler examines the pre Modernist condition of Catholicism in France Germany Italy and England and the outcome of the modernist movement both within and outside of the Catholic Church This book will be of value to anyone with an interest in this tumultuous time in the development of Catholic theology Dancefilm Erin Brannigan, 2011-02-09 Dancefilm traces some of the most significant collaborations between dancers choreographers and filmmakers and presents new models of cinematic movement that are both historically informed and thoroughly interdisciplinary London Anthony Sutcliffe, Professor Anthony Sutcliffe, 2006-01-01 London is one of the world s greatest cities and its architecture is a unique heritage The Tower of London is an urban castle unique in Europe St Paul s is one of the world s greatest domed cathedrals and the squares and crescents of the West End inspired Haussmann s Paris In London it is the variety of the streets buildings and parks that strikes the visitor No king or government has ever set its mark here Private ownership has shaped the city and architects have served a wide variety of clients London's Classical era produced an elegant townscape between 1600 and 1830 but medieval Tudor and Victorian London were a potpourri of buildings large and small each making its own design statement In London An Architectural History Anthony Sutcliffe takes the reader through two thousand years of architecture from the sublime to the mundane With over 300 color illustrations the book is intended for the general reader and especially those visiting London for the first time Paolo Portoghesi Silvia Micheli, Léa-Catherine Szacka, 2023-10-19 Through the work of the Italian architect theorist and historian Paolo Portoghesi 1931-2023 this book offers a new perspective on postmodern architecture showing the agency of other spheres of knowledge history politics and media in the making of postmodern architectural discourse It explores how Portoghesi's personal postmodern project was based on the triangulation of a renewed interest in historical architectural language unprecedented use of media and intertwined links between architecture and politics Organized in a sequence of critical chapters supported by the analysis of Portoghesi's most significant architectural projects including Casa Baldi 1959 The Mosque in Rome 1975-95 and his Strada Novissima exhibition 1980 and publications the book unfolds around the three main themes of history politics and media Published as part of the Bloomsbury Studies in Modern Architecture series which brings to light the work of significant yet overlooked modernist architects the study features previously unpublished archival material interviews by the authors and articles from professional and mainstream press to present Portoghesi in his multifaceted role of mediator politician historian and designer The Buildings Around Us Thom Gorst, 2003-09-02 Buildings surround and affect us all In this clear and concise introduction to buildings Thom Gorst demystifies the culture of architecture and shows how an interest in our environment whatever our cultural position can be of great value to us Modern Architecture and the Mediterranean Jean-Francois Lejeune, Michelangelo Sabatino, 2009-12-04 Considering the influence of the forms and tectonics of the Mediterranean vernacular on modern architectural practice and discourse from the 1920s to the 1960s Architecture and Participation Peter Blundell Jones, Doina Petrescu, Jeremy Till, 2013-07-04 Bringing together leading international practitioners and theorists in the field ranging from the 1960s pioneers of participation to some of the major contemporary figures in the field Architecture and Participation opens up the social and political aspects of our built environment and the way that the eventual users may shape it Divided into three sections looking at the politics histories and practices of participation the book gives both a broad theoretical background and more direct examples of participation in practice Respectively the book explores participation's broader context outlining key themes and including work from some seminal European figures and shows examples of how leading practitioners have put their ideas into action Illustrated throughout the authors present to students practitioners and policy makers an exploration of how a participative approach may lead to new spatial conditions as well as to new types of architectural practices and investigates the way that the user has been included in the design process
