Linguistics Project 231 Palmer Hall Princeton University Princeton N J 08544 609 258 4269 The Russian Hero in Modern Chinese Fiction Mau-sang Ng, 1988-01-01. The Russian influence took root in the Chinese intellectual tradition that evolved after the Literary Revolution of 1917. When the Chinese communists turned to Russia for their inspiration they also accepted the Russian version of the novel's form and function in society. However they did not accept it uncritically. Chinese understanding of the arts goes back for thousands of years and thus Chinese intellectuals brought their own kinds of tradition and intelligence to these new arts and political solutions. In this lucid study the author demonstrates how Chinese writers guided by Russian authors such as Chekhov, Turgenev and Andreiev created works of art that are both original and Chinese. However he also shows that the familiar heroes of such famous novelists as Lu Xun, Yu Dafu, Mao Dun and Ba Jin have a strong Russian flavor linked to prototypes in the Russian literary tradition. The author depicts the fortune of Soviet literature and the fate of the intellectual hero in the People's Republic of China. He believes that the humanistic May Fourth intellectual tradition which inspired enthusiasm for classical Russian literature has been revived with the publication of works like Dai Houying's Man ah Man and Zhao Zhenkai's Waves. Cataloging Sound Recordings Deanne Holzberlein, Dolly Jones, 1988. A lasta manual that takes the chore out of cataloging sound recordings. The author clarifies the AACR2 rules Anglo American Cataloging Rules 2nd edition and literally steps through the thought process used in cataloging a sound recording beginning with what to use as the source for the title through the physical description and series.
