Susan Sontag Leland Poague, Kathy A. Parsons, 2021-12-12 Susan Sontag An Annotated Bibliography catalogues the works of one of America's most prolific and important 20th century authors Known for her philosophical writings on American culture topics left untouched by Sontag's writings are few and far between This volume is an exhaustive collection that includes her novels essays reviews films and interviews Each entry is accompanied by an annotated bibliography

The Secular Rabbi Doris Y. Kadish, 2021 The Secular Rabbi focuses on the ambivalent Jewish identity of Philip Rahv co founder of Partisan Review Drawing on his letters to her mother from 1928 to 1931 Doris Kadish illuminates Rahv's life and work through textual analysis historical accounts genealogical records memoirs interviews and scholarship on the New York intellectuals

Preserving the Hunger Isaac Rosenfeld, 1988 Isaac Rosenfeld who died in 1956 at the age of thirty eight was a brilliant and original writer whose work has unfortunately become unavailable to anyone but the scholar A gifted member of a gifted generation his writings shine with the hard light of a burning and troubled intelligence Though Rosenfeld was a man quintessentially of his era grappling with issues and books that may no longer engage us his writing remains fresh because of his commitment to striking deep and remaining open to experience with all the risks entailed thereby In the contemporary climate of academic thought we are badly in need of teachers like Rosenfeld who read books no differently than they conduct their lives with the belief that the world of the phrase can do more than make a point or strike a pose but rather can through intensity poise and grace give meaning to life

Jewish Writing and the Deep Places of the Imagination Mark Krupnick, 2006-01-09 When he learned he had ALS and roughly two years to live literary critic Mark Krupnick returned to the writers who had been his lifelong conversation partners and asked with renewed intensity how do you live as a Jew when mostly you live in your head The evocative and sinuous essays collected here are the products of this inquiry In his search for durable principles Krupnick follows Lionel Trilling Cynthia Ozick Geoffrey Hartman Philip Roth Saul Bellow and others into the elemental matters of life and death sex and gender power and vulnerability The editors Krupnick's wife Jean K Carney and literary critic Mark Shechner have also included earlier essays and introductions that link Krupnick's work with the deep places of his own imagination

Lionel Trilling and the Critics John Rodden, 1999-01-01 Lionel Trilling and the Critics provides a comprehensive portrait of Lionel Trilling perhaps the most influential American cultural critic of the twentieth century The contributors are a who's who of Anglo American intellectuals from the 1930s through the 1970s They include Edmund Wilson Robert Penn Warren F R Leavis Leslie Fiedler R W B Lewis R P Blackmur Irving Howe Irving Kristol Raymond Williams Norman Podhoretz Gertrude Himmelfarb William Barrett Bruno Bettelheim Gerald Graff and Cornel West

The Oxford Handbook of Restoration Literature Matthew C. Augustine, Steven N. Zwicker, 2024-10-22 The Oxford Handbook of Restoration Literature begins by asking if there was a distinctive literature of the Restoration For a long time the answer seemed obvious heroic drama libertine comedy scandalous lyrics and the short but brilliant career of John

Wilmot earl of Rochester Could there be an age when the coincidence of literary culture and political rule were any more obvious But as this Handbook will remind us some of the most wonderful literature of this Restoration came from writers who had lived across the decades of turbulence and into an age when the Stuart kings returned when the Church and House of Lords were restored a world made safe for bishops and for the memory of divine right rule Of course these returns and restorations did not meet with uniform celebration John Milton wrote his great epic poems not in quiet submission but in a kind of resistance to the dominant culture of the 1660s and Andrew Marvell produced his most brilliant satiric verse by holding up a looking glass to court corruption and Anglican intolerance So we begin with the most obvious conclusion Restoration literature does and does not fit to the categories that so long defined the late Stuart age This book explores and contests challenges and reimagines the experience embodied by the writing of the late Stuart world and invites readers new to this world and those who have often read its literatures to the pleasures but as well to the challenges and discomforts of its texts Literature, 1900 The Cambridge Companion to Saul Bellow Victoria Aarons, 2017 This book demonstrates the complexity of Bellow's work by emphasizing the ways in which it reflects the changing conditions of American identity

The Stock of Available Reality James D. Bloom, 1984 This study links two long and troubled modern American literary careers and explores the politics of reading in Anglo American criticism and poetry Examining three decades of poetry and prose by both writers the author documents their partisan affiliations with and disaffections from acknowledged literary masters and prevailing critical conventions E.S. Dallas in The Times Graham Law, Jenny Bourne Taylor, 2023-10-10 This volume comprises of a substantial selection of E S Dallas's journalism in The Times Although his reviews were crucial not only in forging the literary reputations of upcoming writers such as different as George Eliot and Mary Elizabeth Braddon but also in recalibrating the response to well established authors such as Tennyson and Dickens Eneas Sweetland Dallas 1827-79 remains arguably the most unjustly neglected of mid Victorian critics Although Dallas wrote for many other periodicals it was his reviews in The Times that had the greatest impact on both the market for books and literary culture in the mid Victorian period This collection brings together an anthology of his contributions as well as a newly written introduction a comprehensive listing of the articles he submitted to The Times critical apparatus to contextualise the materials and a detailed chronology reappraising Dallas biography This volume will be of great interest to students and scholars of literary history
