In Iran since the mid nineteenth century one issue has been a common concern how should Iran become modern More than a century of struggle for or against modernity has constituted much of the social political and cultural history of the country In the decades since the 1979 Revolution the question has become even more critical In Modernity Sexuality and Ideology in Iran Talattof finds that the process of modernity never truly unfolded due in large part to Iran s reluctance to embrace the seminal subjects of gender and sexuality Talattof s approach reflects a unique look at modernity as advancement not only in industry and economy but also toward an open intellectual discourse on sexuality Exploring the life and times of Shahrzad a dancer actress filmmaker and poet Talattof illuminates the country s struggle with modernity and the ideological traditional and religious resistance against it Born in 1946 she performed in several theater productions became an acclaimed film star in the 1970s and pursued a career as a journalist and poet Following the revolution she was imprisoned and eventually became homeless on the streets of Tehran Her success and eventual decline as a female artist and entertainer illustrate the conflict between modernity and tradition and Iran's failure to embrace an overt expression of sexuality Talattof also profiles several other female artists of the 1970s analyzing their lives and work as windows through which to examine what Iranian culture allowed and what it repudiated A pioneering and timely work Modernity Sexuality and Ideology in Iran explores the integral role of popular culture and female artists in the shaping of modern Iran constructing a new framework for understanding such crucial concepts as ideology and modernity
